WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1851.

No. 24.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir George Grey, a Knight Commander of the most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Islands of New Zealand, and Governor of the Provinces of New Ulster and New Munster, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

the Governor in Chief of the Islands of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, intituled, "An Ordinance for regulating the Conveyance and Postage of Letters," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor-in-Chief from time to time by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette to make and establish all such Rules and Regulations as to him may seem expedient for promoting the safe and expeditious conveyance and delivery of all Mails, Letters, Newspapers, and other papers.

And whereas by a Proclamation dated the 31st December, 1850, certain regulations for the purposes aforesaid were made and established by which persons were enabled to send letters to and from places beyond the seas, and letters to and from the Governor, letters on the public service, or to and from any of the Government offices or departments.

And whereas it is intended to establish neumiform postal arrangements throughout the whole of the British Colonies and Possessions with respect to Printed Books, Magazines, Reviews, and Pamphlets; and it is expedient that the regulations to be established in that behalf be consolidated with the regulations made by the Produmation aforesaid.

Now therefore, I, the Governor-in-Chief, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said in part recited Ordinance, and under and by virtue of all other powers and authorities enabling me in that behalf, do hereby revoke the aforesaid Proclamation of the 31st December, 1850, and all regulations and rates established by the same are hereby abolished and repealed.

And I do further proclaim and declare that, from and after the 1st day of January, 1852, the following regulations in lieu thereof for the conveyance and postage of letters shall be in operation throughout the said Islands of New Zealand:—

LETTERS AND PACKETS.

A colonial rate of Postage shall be charged and paid on all letters passing through any Post Office in the colony of New Zealand, or transmitted by post therein, by weight according to the following rate (that is to say):—

On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight—two pence.

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight—then the sum of two pence for every half ounce, or fractional part of half an ounce, according to the weight of such letter.

The Postage on all letters, packets, and papers, despatched from New Zealand to places beyond the seas shall be paid in this colony.

All letters and papers having a Postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, or enclosed in covers having a Postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto of such form as may be prescribed by the Local Government, which shall not have been used before, and which shall be of the value or amount of the Postage to which such letters or papers would be respectively liable, according to the scale hereinbefore provided, shall pass by the Post free of Postage.

On all letters sent by Post, on being redirected and again forwarded by the Post, there shall be charged and paid a new and distinct rate of Postage for the redirection, in addition to all other rates of Postage payable thereon, according to the scale and rate of Postage hereinbefore mentioned.

No letter or packet exceeding sixteen ounces in weight shall be forwarded by the Post, except Deeds. Law Proceedings and Law Papers, and also except letters to and from places beyond the seas, and letters to and from the Governor, letters on the public service, or to and from any of the Government offices or departments, and except also Printed Books, Magazines, Reviews, and Pamphlets.

PRINTED BOOKS.

Printed Books, Magazines, Reviews, or Pamphlets, (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign), Books, Law Presenting, Law Papers, shall be permitted to be sent through the several Post Offices to the United Kingdom, at the following rates of Postage:—

For a single volume, or packet, not exceeding 11b. in weight. 0 0 6

For a single volume, or packet, exceeding 11b., and not exceeding 1lb	_	1	0
For a single volume, or packet, exceeding 11b., and not exceed-			. 7
ing 2lbs	0	2	0
For a single volume, or packet, exceeding 2lbs,, and not exceeding 3lbs.	0	3	0

And so on, increasing 1s, for every additional pound, or fraction of a pound.

The charge shall be the same whether the Books, &c., be posted or delivered at the Port, or whether they be posted or delivered at any place in the interior of the colony.

To prevent the inconvenience which might ensue from a large arrival of Books, &c., by the same mail, the Colonial Postmasters are hereby authorized, in cases of necessity, to delay the despatch of such Books to or from the interior, until the despatch of the mail next after that by which they would in the usual course be sent, or at their option, for a period not exceeding one week.

No such Book or packet shall be sent by any route which would entail an expense oftransit Postage on the department.

One-third of the total charge will be considered as paid for the British Inland Rate, one-third for the Sea Rate, and the remaining third for the Colonial Inland Rate.

Printed Books, &c., (except Deeds, have Proceedings, and Low Beast) sent through the Post, under the Regulations here proposed, shall be subject in all respects to the same restrictions as are hereinafter made with respect to Newspapers.

NEWSPAPERS.

Printed Newspapers shall be conveyed by the Post free of Postage, provided they be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the sides, and there be no writing thereon, or upon the cover of the same, except the name and address of the person to whom sent, and that no paper or thing be enclosed in or with any such paper. And every paper or packet which shall be contrary in any respect to the conditions hereby required to be observed, shall be charged with taring the duty of Postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

Printed Prices Current and Commercial Lists, not exceeding two ounces in weight, shall be forwarded through the Post under the same regulations and privileges as Newspapers.

ARMY AND NAVY LETTERS.

Non-Commissioned Officers, Captains, Stewards, Seamen, and Soldiers, may send the who is expedent to alter same the law ties with respect tenton particular, thereof and receive letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight by the Post, on their own private concerns only, while they are em-ployed on her Majesty's service, at the rate of one penny for each letter. And with respect to letters sent or received by any such privileged persons, the following conditions shall be observed, that is to say,—the Postage of each letter (unless sent from parts beyond the seas) shall be paid on being put into the Post Office, and upon such letter shall be subscribed the name of the writer and his class or description in the vessel, regiment, corps, or detachment, to which he belongs, and signed by the officer having at the time the command of the vessel, or of the regiment, corps, or detachment to which the privileged person belongs.

Whenever the letters sent or received by any such privileged persons shall be sent from parts beyond the seas, without the said Postage of one penny being prepaid, every such letter shall be charged to the party receiving the same with a rate of two pence, and any letters received by the Post, under this regulation, by any such privileged persons, which may have been redirected shall not be charged with any Postage for such redirection.

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Islands of New Zealand, at Govern(L.S.) ment House, at Wellington, in the Province of New Munster, in the Islands aforesaid, this nineteenth day of September, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

G. GREY. Governor-in-Chief.

By His Excellency's command, ALFRED DOMETT, Colonial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GREY, a Knight Commander of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Islands of New Zealand, and Governor of the Provinces of New Ulster and New Munster, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS, it is expedient that so much of the District of New Plymouth as is included within the boundaries hereinafter described, be divided into Hundreds. Now therefore I, the Governor-in-Chief of the Islands of New Zealand aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare the same to be divided into two several Hundreds, to be called respectively the Hundred of New Plymouth and the Hundred of Omata; the respective boundaries whereof are hereinafter particularly set forth, and are described on a map or plan deposited in the office of the Commissioner of Crown Lands at Wellington.

Description of the Boundaries of the Hundred of the New Plymouth.

The South Western boundary commences at highwater mark at Paritutu Rock, and proceeds inland along the Paritutu Line on a bearing of S. 35deg. E. about 520 chains to the Mangore River.

The South Eastern boundary then commences and follows the course of the Mangore River to its confluence with the Waiwakaiho River.

The Eastern boundary thence follows the course of the Waiwakaiho River to high water mark where it falls into the sea.

The North Western boundary thence proceeds Westward along the shore at high water mark to Paritutu Rock, as hereinbefore described.

Description of the Boundaries of the Hundred of Omata.

The South Western boundary commences at high water mark where the Okurukuru stream falls into the sea, and proceeds inland along the South Western sides of sections Numbers 19, 18, 25, 33, and 35 to the Tapuaeruru River; thence down the course of the Tapuaeruru to its confluence with the Paopaohoanui River; thence inland on a bearing of S. 35 deg. E. about 492 chains to the Mangore River.

The South Eastern boundary then commences and follows the course of the Mangore River to the point at which the Paritutu line strikes that River.

The North Eastern boundary thence proceeds seaward along the Paritutu Line about 520 chains, to high water mark at Paritutu Rock.

The North Western boundary thence proceeds South-westerly along the shore at high water mark to the mouth of the Okurukuru stream, hereinbefore described.

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Islands of New Zealand, at Govern-

(L.S.) ment House, at Wellington, in the Province of New Munster, in the Islands aforesaid, this seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

G. GREY, Governor-in-Chief.

By His Excellency's command.
ALFRED DOMETT,

Colonial Secretary.

GOD BAVE THE QUEEN!

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GREY, a Knight Commander of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Gowernor and Commander in Chief in and over the Islands of New Zealand, and Governor of the Provinces of New Ulster and New Munster, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS it is expedient that part of the district of Whanganui should be constituted a Hundred. Now therefore 1, the Governor of the Province of New Munster, do hereby proclaim and declare that so much of the district of Whanganui, in the Province of New Munster, as is included within the boundaries hereinafter particularly set forth and described on a map or plan deposited in the office of the Commissioner of Crown Lands for the district of Wellington, shall be constituted a Hundred, to be called the Mundred of Whanganui.

Description of the Boundaries.

The South Eastern boundary commences at high water mark at Motukaraka, or Wilson's Bluff, and proceeds thence on a bearing of N. 26deg. E, to the commencement of the "Eastern Line" at the South Eastern angle of section No. 108,

The Eastern boundary thence proceeds Northward along the "Eastern Line" to the point at which that line intersects Bell's Creek: where the North Eastern boundary commences, and follows the course of that Creek to the point at which it is intersected by "Number Three Line;" thence along that line Northward to the point at which it intersects the Southern branch of the Metaongaanga Creek; thence tolkswing the course of that Creek to its confiscence with the Whanganui River.

The Eastern boundary then continues Northward up the stream of the Whangaani to the point at which the "Missionary Line" strikes the River.

The Northern boundary thence proceeds Westward along the Missionary Line to its termination at the South Western angle of section No. 71, thence on a bearing of S. 68 deg. W. to the point at which the Middie Line intersects the Mangauira River, and thence follows the course of that River to its confluence with the Mowhanau River.

The Western boundary then commences at that confluence and follows the course of the Mowhanau River to the point at which it is intersected by the boundary line of the Whanganui block, and proceeds along that line to highwater mark on the shore. The South Western boundary then commences, and proceeds in a South Easterly direction along the shore at high water mark to Wilson's Bluff as hereinbefore described.

Given under my hand, and issued under the public seal of the Province of New Munster, in the Islands of New Zealand, at Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

G. GREY, Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

Wellington, 18th September, 1851.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR has been pleased to direct the publication of the following correspondence for general information.

By His Excellency's command,
ALFRED DOMETT,
Colonial Secretary.

Resident Magistrate's Court, Wellington, 13th September, 1851.

Sir.—The List of Electors, for 1851-52, for Commissioners for the Town of Wellington, having been this day revised by the Bench of Magistrates, I have the honor to request instructions previous to the publication of notice by the Resident Magistrate for the Electors to assemble for the electing of Commissioners as to the mode of proceeding in such election. The Ordinance does not define the manner in which the votes are to be taken; how the list is to be prepared; or who is to be the Returning Officer.

I have the honor to be, Sir, Your most obedient Servant,

(Signed) HENRY St. HILL, R. M. The Honorable

The Colonial Secretary, Wellington.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Wellington, 17th September, 1851.

Sir,—In reply to your letter of the 13th instant, requesting instructions, with respect to the election of Road Commissioners for the Town of Wellington, as to the manner in which the votes are to be taken, how the list is to be prepared, and who is to be the Returning Officer; I am directed to inform you that his Excellency the Governor-in-Chief has caused the opinion of the Attorney General to be taken on the following points:—

1st. Whether the law is defective in the particulars referred to by the Resident Magistrate.

2nd. If such is the case, who has the the power under the Ordinance, or any other law, to determine:—

The manner in which the votes are to be taken:

The mode in which the lists are to be prepared, and who is to be the Returning Officer:

The opinion of the Attorney-General is to the effect that, "the Ordinance is defective in not enacting what manner the election of the Commissioners shall be held, and the defect cannot be cured by any authority not equipollent with that which made the Ordinance, viz., a Legislative Council."

I am further to request you will be good enough to communicate this opinion to those members of the Bench of Magistrates who signed the requisition for the Proclamation of the Ordinance in question.

> I have the honor to be, Sir.

Your most obedient Servant,
(Signed) ALFRED DOMETT,
Colonial Secretary.

The Resident Magistrate, Wellington.
