VOL. I. AUCKLAND, SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1848. No. 16.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Auckland, 24th June, 1848.

MANY of the Inhabitants of Auckland having, from the very commencement of the fire at Government House, on the 23rd instant, until its conclusion, rendered themselves conspicuous by the most prompt and zealous exertions to save both public and private property, and having by those exertions greatly contributed to save the large amount of property which was rescued from the fire, His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief avails himself of this mode of thanking them in his public capacity for their assistance in saving the public property, and of returning them his own most grateful thanks for the benefit he received, as a private individual, from their exertions, and most admirable conduct upon this unfortunate occasion.

By His Excellency's command,

ANDREW SINCLAIR,

Colonial Secretary.
