> Colonial Secretary's Office, Auckland, 21st June, 1850.

IS Excellency the Governor-in-Chief has been pleased to direct the publication, for general information, of the following Supplementary Bye Law and Notice, which will come into operation on the 9th of August, 1850,

By His Excellency's command, Andrew Sinclair, Colonial Secretary. Supplementary Bye Law and Notice for the Hundred of Onehunga.

A T a Meeting held June 8, 1850, the Wardens of Onehunga having learnt that several Bulls of inferior quality are at large on the Waste Lands, whereby persons who have expended capital in the purchase of choice breeds of cattle, with a view to the improvement of their stock, have been disappointed in the result, from the depasturing of such Bulls as aforesaid: — now, therefore, the Wardens aforesaid deem it expedient to make the following Bye Law, and to issue the notice accompanying, to take effect thirty days after publication hereof in the Government Guzette.

Bye Law, No. 4; passed 8th June, 1850.—
That no Bulls shall be allowed to depasture on the Waste Lands of the Hundred of Onehunga, except such as shall be especially licensed by the Wardens, or any two of them, for the time being, under penalty of being impounded, and a fine of five shillings per head, on each impounding, in addition to the usual pound fees and charges of such pound wherein they shall be impounded.

Notice.—Resolved, that the Wardens of Onehunga will not issue any license for the depasturing of any entire Bull, unless the same be the bona fide property of some licensed person who shall have complied with all the Bye Laws, Rules, Regulations and Notices heretofore issued or hereafter issued by the said Wardens. Application for such license to be made to the Wardens in writing, accompanied by a certificate signed by two other licensed least six cows depasturing within the Hundred, which certificate shall state that such Bull therein described is the property of the person applying, and a reasonably good and proper Bull towards the preservation or improvement of a good breed of stock.

Note.—As no charge will be made for such license, persons owning Bulls within enclosures would do well to register the same, and obtain a similar license, in order to obviate any liabilities from the breaking out of such Bulls during the coming season.

THOS. SOMERVILLE Wardens of WM. Powditch Onehunga.

Auckland, 24th June, 1850.

THE Wardens of the Hundred of Auckland have appointed Mr. David George SMALE to be Ranger for the Hundred of Auckland, under the provisions of the Crown Lands Ordinance, No. 1, Sess. 10.

2nd.—Licensed persons having hired dairy stock, or oxen or horses for the purpose of draught (the same being so used by him or them), and duly registered as such with the Wardens of the Hundred aforesaid, may depasture such stock on the Crown Waste Lands of the such providing that such stock be liable to such notices, rules, and assessments as such similar stock, the bona-fide property of licensed persons, are liable to.

3rd.—Any person lawfully holding a depasturing license, and who shall have complied with the notices, rules, and regulations made or to be made from time to time by the Wardens of the Hundred of Pupuke, may, by applying to the Wardens, impound any unauthorized stock found by him or them, unlawfully on any part of the waste lands aforesaid.
