FRANCIS FISHER,

Auckland, 27th, Dec. 1841.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 25th December, 1841

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct that the attention of the Heads of the various Departments of the Government of this colony, and of the public in general, be drawn to the following Regulations on the subject of Accounts, which will be in force from and after the 1st day of January, 1842

SALARIES,

The Abstracts of Salaries of the Officers holding situations under the Government are directed to be sent in to the Office of the Colonial Treasurer on the 2nd day of the month succeeding that for which they are due, when, if on examination they are found to be correct, the salaries will be paid on the 8th.

WAGES.

The abstracts for mechanics and labourers employed in the departments, must be transmitted to the Colonial Treasurer by the head of the department for whose service they are engaged, on the 6th day of each month succeeding that for which the wages are due, and if they prove correct in every respect they will be paid on the 12th.

ACCOUNTS FOR SUPPLIES, &c.

Parties furnishing Supplies to the various departments for the Public Service, Contractors and others, are required to send in the Bills of particulars, on the proper forms, to the head of each department by the 2nd day of the month succeeding that on which the Supplies were furnished. These documents, certified by the officer who received the Supplies, are to be transmitted by the head of the department, enclosed in the usual abstracts, to the Office of the Colonial Treasurer, on the 8th, when, if found correct, and supported by the proper authorities and vouchers, they will be paid on the 14th.

All Accounts, together with the Vouchers and Sub-Vouchers to the same, will in future be required in Duplicate only.

The heads of departments are particularly enjoined to use their utmost exertions to give effect to these arrangements, as well in pointing out to persons having claims on Government, the nature of the accounts to be given in, as in expediting their transmission to the Treasury when furnished

By His Excellency's command,
WILLOUGHBY SHORTLAND,

SALE OF GOVERNMENT STORES.
