WILLOUGHBY SHORTLAND.

(COPY.)

*Downing-street,
November, 30th 1841.*

SIR,

It is my pleasing duty to announce to you, that on the morning of the 9th instant, at twelve minutes before eleven o'clock, the Queen was happily delivered of a Prince, to the great joy of the Nation, and of all the Royal Family.

Her Majesty and the infant Prince have, through Divine mercy, continued to do well up to the present time.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant,

(Signed) STANLEY.

GOVERNOR HOBSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Auckland, May 25th, 1842.

A PUBLIC MEETING will be held on Monday next, the 30th instant, at the Royal Hotel, to offer an address of congratulation to Her Majesty on the auspicious event of the birth of a Prince; on which occasion His Excellency the Governor will take the Chair at 12 o'clock.

By His Excellency's command,
WILLOUGHBY SHORTLAND.

*Government House,

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency WILLIAM HOBSON, Esq.,
Captain in Her Majesty's Royal Navy,
and Governor and Commander in Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and its Dependencies, and Vice
Admiral of the same.

WHEREAS, by an Ordinance enacted by the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, Session II, No. 16, intituled, "An Ordinance to provide for the summary recovery of compensation for Damage done by Cattle Trespassing," it is enacted, that if any Cattle shall be found wandering at large in any street or public place within the limits of any Town or Village which shall be proclaimed by His Excellency the Governor to come within the operation of this Ordinance, the owner thereof shall forfeit and pay for every head of cattle so wandering any sum not exceeding five shillings, to be recovered in a summary way. Now, therefore, I, the Governor and Commander in Chief of the Colony of New Zealand aforesaid, in pursuance of the authority by the said in part recited Ordinance in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare from and after the first day of July next so much of the Township of Auckland as is hereinafter described, to come within the operations of the said Ordinance, for the time being:—that is to say, that part of the said Township which is bounded on the west by a line following the centre of Lower William-street; on the south by a line traversing the centre of Douro-street, the centre of Wellington-square and Wellesley-place; from thence in a straight line to the south-west corner of the Government fence, following the said fence to its south-east corner, and leaving it in a straight line for the south-west corner of the Allotment occupied by the Superintendent of Works; following the south boundary of the said Allotment to the waters of Mechanics' Bay; and on the east and north by the said waters to Lower William-street aforesaid.

Given under my Hand, this fourteenth day of May, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, at Government House, Auckland.

W. HOBSON,
GOVERNOR.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLOUGHBY SHORTLAND.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency WILLIAM HOBSON, Esq.,
Captain in Her Majesty's Royal Navy,
and Governor and Commander in Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony in New Zealand, and its Dependencies, and Vice
Admiral of the same.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance enacted by the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, Session 2, No. 17, intituled, "An Ordinance to impose a Tax upon Raupo Houses," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Excellency the Governor from time to time by Proclamation, to declare the provisions therein-after contained, to be in force in any Town, or part of any Town, the boundaries whereof respectively shall be defined by such proclamation; and whereas it is further enacted by the aforesaid Ordinance, that on a day to be named in such Proclamation, not being less than six calendar months from the date thereof, and on the same day of every succeeding year, there shall be levied in respect of every building constructed wholly or in part of raupo, nikau, toitoi, wivi, kakaho, straw, or thatch of any description, and situate within the boundaries so defined, the sum of twenty pounds.

And whereas it is further enacted, that no person shall erect or cause to be erected, any such building as aforesaid, in any Town in which the provisions of this Ordinance shall be declared to be in force, and that every person shall, for so offending, forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred pounds, to be recovered in a summary way.

Now, therefore, I, the Governor and Commander in Chief of the Colony of New Zealand aforesaid, in pursuance of the authority by the said in part recited Ordinance in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare that from and after the sixteenth day of November next, ensuing, so much of the Township of Auckland as hereinafter described, shall come within the operations of the said Ordinance, for the time being:—that is to say, that part of the said Township which is bounded on the west by a line following the centre of lower William-street, on the south by a line traversing the centre of Douro-street, the centre of Wellington square, and Wellesley place; from thence by a straight line to the south-west corner of the Government fence, following the said fence to its south-east corner, and leaving it in a straight line for the south-west corner of the allotment occupied by the Superintendent of Public Works, following the south boundary of the said allotment to the waters of Mechanic's Bay; and on the east and north by the said waters to Lower William-street aforesaid.

Given under my Hand, this sixteenth day of May, at Government House, Auckland, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

W. HOBSON,
GOVERNOR.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLOUGHBY SHORTLAND.
