(For the Colonial Secretary)

WILLIAM CONNELL

Colonial Secretary's Office, Auckland, 9th November, 1842.

HIS Excellency the Officer administering the Government, directs it to be notified, that the following Claims to Land in this Colony have been referred to the Commissioners appointed under the Ordinance of the Governor and Council of New Zealand, 5th Vict., Sess. 2, No. 14: being in addition to the Claims notified in the Government Gazette of New South Wales, as referred to the Commissioners appointed under the Act of the Governor and Council of that Colony on the 9th November, 1840, and on the 9th, 16th, 23rd, 30th, March, and the 6th, 13th, 20th, and 27th, April, and in the Government Gazette of this Colony, on the 18th August, and 13th, 20th, and 27th October, 20th November, and 1st, 15th, and 22nd December, 1841; and 5th January, 28th March, 4th, 11th, and 18th May, 23rd June, 28th September, and 19th October, 1842.

Parties are reminded, that, before such claims can be investigated, they must pay to the Commissioner a fee, of Five Pounds, as prescribed by the Ordinance.

By His Excellency's Command,
(For the Colonial Secretary,)

WILLIAM CONNELL.

Case No. 447, (a).—JOHN E. HARGREAVES, of Waimate, claimant.

A piece of land called Papawahi, near to Waimate; boundaries and contents not stated.

Alleged to have been purchased by claimant from the native chief Puhi, on the 11th November, 1839.

Consideration given to the natives—£15 sterling.

Nature of conveyance—Deed in favor of claimant.

Case No. 448.—ELEANOR BAKER, of Hokianga claimant.

60. Sixty acres, more or less, being a piece of land called Kohe Kohe, bounded on the north by land claimed by Mr Makings; on the south by a ridge of high land, on the east by the river Orida.

Alleged to have been purchased from certain native chiefs not named, by Mr. John Monk, from whom claimant derives.

Consideration given to the natives—not stated.

Nature of conveyance—not stated.

Case No. 449.—THOMAS M'DONNELL, of Hokianga, claimant.

A tract of land, contents not stated, known by the name of "Te Horeke;" the river frontage of which extends from the entrance of the Wairere creek to a sloping point of land and down to the water's edge, called Wai Nashemginui—from the latter place a line running to a remarkable patch of ground called Mataka, forms the northern boundary—from the Mataka patch, a line running by compass until the head or source of the Wairere creek bears forms the inland or eastern boundary—from the position when the head or source of the Wairere creek bears by compass, a line in the same bearing, and including all the land on the east or left bank of the Wairere, is the river Hokianga, where the first position was taken, is the southern boundary.

Alleged to have been purchased by claimant from Messrs. Jones & Walker, who were managing trustees for Messrs. Rann & Ramsay, the original purchasers from the natives, 20 in number, by whom the boundaries were defined in 1836.

Consideration given to the natives—upwards of £400.

Nature of conveyance—not stated.

Case No. 449 (a).—THOMAS M'DONNELL, of Hokianga, claimant.

A piece of land, contents not stated, adjoining the preceding claim, known by the name of Mataka, bounded as follows:—from a position on the right bank of the Hokianga, where the entrance of the Orida river bears by compass W. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., a line running to a mark made by the Tao Nui, and from the latter, rounding or skirting the woods including the Tay, and on to the west extremity of a tabooed wood, the line then bending round the base of a sloping hill, and then running east-south-east to the skirt of a wood, and a full English mile through the same, is the northern boundary; from the point where the mile into the wood terminates, a line running south-west by compass until the Mataka patch bears north by compass, is the inland boundary; the northern boundary of the preceding claim, Houreke, is the southern boundary of the present claim, and includes Paki Tarete, Tukirange, Puka Taraice, and Motu Skokie.
