*At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th

PRESENT.

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Representation from the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, dated the tenth August instant, and in the words following, viz.—

“The Lords of the Judicial Committee having taken into consideration the scale on which the costs of Appeals, and other matters referred by your Majesty to this Committee, are usually taxed by the Masters of the Court of Queen's Bench, or other persons to whom their Lordships have, from time to time, referred the same; their Lordships agree humbly to represent to your Majesty, that it is expedient that the scale of Costs hitherto allowed in the said proceedings before this Committee, should be reduced; and their Lordships recommend that, provisionally, and until further consideration, such costs in all Appeals, or matters not being Appeals, from the Courts of Ecclesiastical or Admiralty Jurisdiction, should be taxed and allowed by all such taxing officers as shall hereafter be directed to ascertain and report the same to the Board, according to the Schedule hereunto annexed; and that this rate of charges should be observed by Solicitors conducting business before this Committee.”

Her Majesty, having taken this representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and of what is therein recommended, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the same be duly and punctually observed, complied with, and carried into execution. BY THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL.

The Lords of the Judicial Committee having taken into consideration the practice of referring the taxation of costs in Appeals and other matters heard at their Lordships' bar to the Masters of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, and being of opinion that such practice ought to be discontinued, their Lordships are thereupon pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that it be referred to the Clerk of Appeals of the Privy Council Office, acting as the Registrar of this Committee, to tax all bills of costs, under their Lordships' orders, on appeals or upon the petition of the parties; and their Lordships do further direct that all such taxation shall be regulated by the Schedule of Fees annexed to their Lordships' Representation to Her Majesty in Council of this day's date, and their Lordships do further direct that a separate account be kept of all the Fees received by the said Clerk of Appeals, on account of such taxation, such Fees to be the same as have been usually charged by the Masters or other persons to whom the taxation of such bills of costs has heretofore been referred.
