NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Harbour Master's Office,
Auckland, 7th March, 1844.

A BUOY painted Red, with a White Head, has been placed about a ship's length to the Northward of a Sunken Rock lying about one mile and a quarter to the Eastward of the Island "Tea-tea Matangi."

This Rock lies nearly in a line between the Peaks of Rangitoto and the little Barrier Island, and has about two feet water over it at low water.

A similar Buoy has also been placed over the Rock lying to the N. N. Eastward of the North Head of this Harbour.

This Rock has six feet of water over it at the lowest spring tides, and can easily be avoided by keeping towards mid-channel between the North Head and Rangitoto, or with a fair wind passing about mid-way between the Buoy and the North Head.
