VOL. V.]

AUCKLAND, TUESDAY, NOV. 18, 1845.

[No. 28.]

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency GEORGE GREY, Esquire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Province of South Australia, and Lieutenant-Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased, by a Warrant under the Royal Signet and Sign Manual, bearing date the twenty-first day of June, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, to constitute and appoint me, GEORGE GREY, Esquire, to be Lieutenant-Governor of Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, with such powers and authorities, and according to such directions as are expressed in Her Majesty's Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster, the sixteenth day of November, 1840: And Her Majesty did require and command all Officers and Ministers, and all other Her subjects in the said Colony, and all others whom it may concern, to take due notice of Her Majesty's said Warrant, and to give their ready obedience accordingly.

Now therefore, I, GEORGE GREY, do hereby proclaim and declare, that I have, this day, taken the prescribed Oaths, and assumed the administration of the Government, accordingly; And I hereby call upon the Inhabitants of the Colony, to be aiding and assisting me therein.

Given under my Hand, and under the Public Seal of the Colony, at Government House, Auckland, this eighteenth day of November, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

GEORGE GREY,

Lieutenant-Governor.

By His Excellency's Command,

ANDREW SINCLAIR,

Colonial Secretary.
