WHEREAS by reason of the difficulty of transporting Offend- Preamble. ers beyond the seas, it has become expedient to make temporary provision for the substitution of other Punishment in lieu of Transportation.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand, as follows:

I. PENAL SERVITUDE SUBSTITUTED FOR TRANSPORTATION.

Transportation abol-

1. On and after the 1st day of January, 1855, no person shall be sentenced to Transportation.

Penal Servitude substituted for Transpor-

2. Any person who if this Act had not been passed, might have been sentenced to Transportation, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court to be kept in Penal Servitude within the Colony, for such term as hereinafter mentioned.

Equivalent terms of Servitude or Transportation. 3. The terms of Penal Servitude to be awarded instead of the Transportation, to which any offender would have been liable if this Act had not been passed, shall be as follows, that is to say,

Instead of Transportation for seven years, or for a term not exceeding seven years, Penal Servitude for the term of four years.

Instead of any term of Transportation exceeding seven years, and not exceeding ten years, Penal Servitude for any term not less than four, and not exceeding six years.

Instead of any term of Transportation exceeding ten years, and not exceeding fifteen years, Penal Servitude for any term not less than six, and not exceeding eight years.

Instead of any term of Transportation exceeding fifteen years, Penal Servitude for any term not less than six, and not exceeding ten years.

Instead of Transportation for the term of life, Penal Servitude for the term of life.

The Court to decide upon one of two or more terms.

4. In every case, when, at the discretion of the Court, one of any two or more terms of Transportation hereinbefore mentioned might have been awarded, the Court shall have the like discretion to award one of the two or more terms of Penal Servitude hereinbefore mentioned, in relation to such terms of Transportation.

Not to prevent other punishments being awarded. 5. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with or affect the authority or discretion of any Court, in respect of any punishment which such Court may now award or pass on any offender other than Transportation, but when such other punishment may be awarded at the discretion of the Court instead of Transportation, or in addition thereto, the same may be awarded instead of, or (as the case may be) in addition to the punishment substituted for Transportation under this Act.

Penal Servitude may in certain cases be substituted for Capital pushkment. 6. Whenever the Governor of the Colony shall be pleased to extend mercy to any offender convicted of any offence for which he may be liable to the Punishment of death, upon condition of his being kept to Penal Servitude for any term of years, or for life, such intention of mercy shall have the same effect, and may be signified in the same manner, and all Courts, Justices, and others, shall give effect thereto, and to the condition of the pardon, in like manner as in cases where the Governor of the Colony is now pleased to extend mercy upon condition of Transportation beyond seas, the order for the execution of such punishment as the Governor may have made the condition of mercy being substituted for the order of Transportation.

7. And whereas there are divers persons now in custody un- Convicts already under sentence or order of Transportation, who cannot conveniently be sent beyond the seas: Be it therefore enacted, that every person in Penal Servitude. who may be under such sentence or order when this Act shall come into operation, shall instead of being Transported for the period for which such person shall have been so sentenced or ordered as aforesaid be kept in Penal Servitude within the Colony, for and during the lowest term hereinbefore provided as an equivalent for the period of Transportation to which such person may have been sentenced or ordered as aforesaid, such term of Penal Servitude being computed to commence from the date of the conviction of such person.

8. Every person who shall be kept in Penal Servitude as last And to be deemed to aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been sentenced to be kept in have been sentenced aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been sentenced to be kept in have been sentenced. Penal Servitude under this Act.
