VOL. III.] AUCKLAND, TUESDAY, OCT. 16, 1855. [No. 26.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Bath, Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is amongst other things declared, that no Bill which shall be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon shall have any force or authority within the Colony of New Zealand until the Governor of the said Colony shall signify—either by speech or message to the Legislative Council and House of Representatives of the said Colony, or by Proclamation—that such Bill has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same: And whereas on the 16th of September, 1854, a certain Bill passed by the Legislative Council and House of Representatives of the said Colony, intituled "An Act to authorise the General Assembly to empower the Provincial Councils to enact laws for regulating the sale, letting, disposal, and occupation of the Waste Lands of the Crown," was presented to the Officer administering the Government of the said Colony for Her Majesty's assent: And whereas the said Bill was reserved by the said Officer for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon: And whereas the said Bill so reserved as aforesaid has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to assent to the same:

Now therefore I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the provisions of the said in part recited Act, Do by this Proclamation signify and proclaim to all whom it may concern, that the said Bill has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, has been pleased to assent to the same.

Given under my hand and issued under the public seal of the Colony of New Zealand, at Auckland, in the Colony aforesaid, this sixteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

(Signed) THOMAS GORE BROWN,
Governor.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, &c., &c., &c.
