By His Excellency's command,
ANDREW SINCLAIR,
Colonial Secretary

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 9th February, 1856.

Sir,—

I am directed by His Excellency the Governor to state that no Mails have been received here by the "Zingari" this time from Otago, Lyttelton, and Wellington; and that on inquiry it appears that Mails were put on board that ship at those three ports; that all the Mails were landed at Nelson, and that to the best of the Captain's belief, the only Mail brought on from Nelson was a Nelson Mail.

His Excellency has directed me to call upon you for a full explanation as far as you are able to give it on this matter, which has been productive of great public inconvenience.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) ANDREW SINCLAIR,
Colonial Secretary.

The Postmaster,
Nelson.

Post Office, Nelson,
18th February, 1856.

Sir,—

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter (date and number as per margin), written by direction of His Excellency the Governor, requesting an explanation as to the non-transmission of the Mail from Wellington by "Zingari."

On the Mails arriving here I directed the man having the bags in charge from the Custom House to place in this office those labelled, and those without labels into an adjoining building, as I could not find room for them all.

In mentioning bags without labels, I beg to remark that bags containing newspapers are rarely labelled, and only tied up.

As I had newspapers unsorted and had not time to attend to them and despatch Mails they remained until after the steamer had left, when on opening the bags among others I found the Auckland one, without label, it having been destroyed.

I am aware of the great inconvenience and greater annoyance this has caused the Public, and regret exceedingly it has occurred, and which I can only admit has been caused from the want of the necessary accommodation and room in this office to enable me to carry on its duties in a proper manner.

I trust His Excellency will be pleased to consider this a sufficient explanation, and relieve me of any charge of neglect or inattention to the important duties of the Post Office.

I think it right to state, that the labels of four Mails, which arrived this day by the "Zingari," had been destroyed.

I have
(Signed) B. WALMSLEY, Postmaster.

the Colonial Secretary, &c.,
