PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor of the Colony of New Zealand &c., &c.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Naturalization Act, 1856," it is enacted, "that all and singular the persons who shall be declared to come within the operation of this Act by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by His Excellency the Governor, or Officer administering the Government, shall, as from the time to be in the respective cases in that behalf specified by such Proclamation, be deemed and taken, until the termination or the next Session of the General Assembly, to be, and to have been as from such specified time, natural born subjects of Her Majesty, within the Islands of New Zealand, as fully to all intents and purposes as if their names had respectively been inserted in the Schedule hereunto annexed. Provided always that every such Proclamation shall contain the description, occupation, or calling, of the person or persons therein named, and of his or their residence at the date of such Proclamation."

Now, therefore, I, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the person hereinafter mentioned shall come within the operation of the said Act from the date hereinafter specified, viz.:

FREDERICH ALBERT WACHSMANN,

from the 31st day of August, 1855, Native of Prussia, tailor, residence Nelson.

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, at Government House, at Auckland, this twenty-third day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

THOMAS GORE BROWNE,
Governor.

By his Excellency's command,
E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN !

NOTE—The above named Frederick Albert Wachsmann, was the person intended to be naturalized, by a Proclamation dated the 28th day of April, 1857, under the name of Frederick Albert Washmann, which latter name was transmitted in mistake to the Colonial Secretary.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is amongst other things enacted, that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent as in the said recited Act provided, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him to declare by Proclamation his disallowance of such Bill, and that any such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such Proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein.

And whereas an Ordinance hath been enacted by the Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, intituled "The Inwood Mill Ordinance," Session VIII, No. 4, and the said Ordinance was received by the Governor on the 23rd day of July, 1857.

And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Ordinance should be disallowed,

Now, therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the said recited Ordinance, passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury.

Given under my hand and issued under the Public Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, at Government House at Auckland, in the Colony aforesaid, this twenty-fourth day of July, in the twenty-first year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

THOMAS GORE BROWNE,
Governor.

By his Excellency's command,

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!
