By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS on the 3rd day of February 1858, Her Majesty Queen Victoria, in pursuance of the powers vested in Her Majesty by the New Zealand Constitution Act, did, by an order with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, declare her disallowance of a Bill passed by the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Waste Lands Act, 1856." Now therefore I, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim, signify, and publish, Her Majesty's disallowance of the said Bill, together with a certificate under the hand and seal of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, certifying the day on which the said Bill was received by the Secretary of State for Her Majesty.

Given under my hand and issued under the Public Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, at Government House at Auckland, this third day of June, in the year of our Lord

One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

THOMAS GORE BROWNE.

And whereas, on the 16th August, 1856, the Governor of the said Colony assented in Her Majesty's name to a Bill passed by the Legislative Council and House of Representatives of the said Colony, entitled, "An Act to empower the Superintendents and Provincial Councils to enact Laws for regulating the sale, letting, disposal, and occupation of the Waste Lands of the Crown," which Bill was received by the Right Honorable Henry Labouchere, one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, on the 10th of February, 1857; And whereas it is expedient that the said Bill should be disallowed, now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and in exercise of the powers thereby reserved to Her Majesty as aforesaid, doth by this present, order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, declare Her disallowance of the said Bill.

And the Right Honorable Henry Labouchere, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
