Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1859.

WHEREAS, by the "District Courts Act, 1858," it is provided that there shall be, within the Colony, Courts of Record, possessing Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction, to be called District Courts, and the Governor is empowered from time to time, by notification in the New Zealand Gazette to fix the times and places within the District, at which every such Court shall be held.

Now, therefore, I, Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor of the Colony, do hereby, in pursuance and execution of the said power and authority, fix that Sessions of the District Court of WELLINGTON, shall be held at Wellington, in the Province of Wellington, on the third Wednesday in every month, excepting the months of January, June, July, and December, in every year, or as soon as conveniently may be after every such day respectively, and by adjournment at Grey Town, in the said District of Wellington, on such days as the Judge of the said Court shall from time to time deem necessary.

As witness my hand this sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

T. GORE BROWNE.
