

The New Zealand Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1859.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

To all to whom these presents shall come,
Greeting:—

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly, intituled "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by warrant under his hand, from time to time, to appoint Polling Places for each Electoral District, within or without the limits thereof; and to appoint any one of such places to be the principal Polling Place for the District, and all or any of such Polling Places at any time to abolish, and to appoint other Polling Places in lieu thereof,

Now know ye, that I, Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby appoint the following place to be a Polling Place for the District of the Wellington Country District, in the Province of Wellington, for the Election of Members of the House of Representatives, namely,
At Manawatu, the Residence of T. Robinson, Esquire.

Given under my hand, at Government House, at Auckland, this seventh day of November, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

(Signed) T. GORE BROWNE.

By His Excellency's command,
HENRY JOHN TANCRED.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

To all to whom these presents shall come,
Greeting:—

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly, intituled "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor by Warrant under his hand, from time to time, to appoint Polling Places for each Electoral District within or without the limits thereof, and to appoint any one of such places to be the principal Polling Place for the District, and all or any of such Polling Places at any time to abolish, and to appoint other Polling Places in lieu thereof. And whereas by another Act of the General Assembly, intituled "The Provincial Elections Act, 1858," it is enacted that, subject to certain provisions therein contained, every Election of the Superintendent or of a Member of the Provincial Council of a Province shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1858," aforesaid, and all the provisions of the said last mentioned Act shall apply to the Elections of Superintendents and Members of Provincial Councils,

Now know ye, that I, Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Acts, do hereby appoint the following place to be a Polling Place for the District of the Wellington Country District, for the Election of the Superintendent and Members of the Provincial Council of the Province of Wellington, namely,

At Manawatu, the Residence of T. Robinson, Esquire.

Given under my hand at Government House, at Auckland, this seventh day of November, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

(Signed) T. GORE BROWNE.

By His Excellency's command,
HENRY JOHN TANCRED.

HENRY JOHN TANCRED,

For the Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's office,
Auckland, 7th November, 1859.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct a Holiday to be observed at the Offices of the General Government, at Auckland, on MONDAY next, the 14th instant, on the first occasion of the expiration of the term of service of the Auckland Volunteer Rifles, when that Force will Brigade with the Seamen of Her Majesty's Ship "Niger" and the 64th Regiment.

HENRY JOHN TANCRED,

For the Colonial Secretary.

WHEREAS by the "Coroners' Act, 1858" the Governor is empowered in the manner therein mentioned to appoint fit persons to be Coroners of the several districts of the Colony, of New Zealand, and from time to time to define the districts within which such Coroners shall respectively have jurisdiction, and every such definition to revoke or amend, and the limits of such districts to alter as occasion may require.

Now, therefore, I, Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance of the said power and authority, do hereby define the District of in the Province of Wellington, to be all the territory comprised within the limits following, that is to say:—a line from the point where the Horokiwi road strikes the beach, to the point on the Rimutaka range, where that range is crossed by the Wairarapa road, thence by the summit of the Rimutaka and Turakirai ridges to the sea at Orongorongo Point, and thence by the sea beach to the starting point.

Given under my hand, at Government House, at Auckland, this eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

T. GORE BROWNE.

By his Excellency's command,

This appointment bears date from the nineteenth day of August, 1858.

HENRY JOHN TANCRED

"MARRIAGE ACT, 1854,"

OFFICIATING MINISTERS FOR 1860.

Registrar-General's Office,
Auckland, November 4, 1859.

THE attention of the person or persons, within the Colony of New Zealand, in whom is vested ecclesiastical authority over any of the Religious Bodies enumerated in "Schedule D," annexed to an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled

“The Marriage Act, 1854,” and of all other persons concerned, is requested to the following extracts from the Act aforesaid :—

“42. Any Minister of Religion, whose name shall have been sent in to the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, or other Officer to be appointed by the Governor in that behalf, by the persons or person within the Colony, in whom ecclesiastical authority shall for the time being be vested, or reputed to be vested, over any of the Religious Bodies enumerated in the Schedule D, to this Act annexed, shall, subject to the conditions hereinafter mentioned, be an Officiating Minister within the meaning of this Act; and the name of every such Minister of Religion shall be certified under the hand or hands of the person or persons aforesaid, and shall be entered and published as hereinafter provided: Provided always, that any Minister of Religion not connected with any of the Bodies enumerated in the aforesaid Schedule to this Act annexed, who shall present to any Registrar a certificate signed by twenty-four householders, resident in the District for which such Registrar shall be appointed, declaring that such Minister is their Officiating Minister, shall be entitled to have his name inserted in the list of Officiating Ministers in the meaning of this Act. Provided always that such certificate shall be attested by two Justices of the Peace, and such attested certificate shall be sent in to the Registrar-General or other Officer as aforesaid, anew in the month of December in every year, and no such attested certificate presented to any Registrar by any Minister as aforesaid, shall continue in force unless renewed in like manner.

“44. The several ecclesiastical authorities as aforesaid of the respective Religious Bodies, shall send in to the said Registrar-General, or other Officer as aforesaid, a correct list of such Officiating Ministers in the month of December in every year.”
