PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858." it is enacted that the Governor may, from time to time, by Proclamation, require that Exporters of Gold other than Gold Coin, or their Agents, shall notify, in such manner and form as shall in that behalf be prescribed, their intention to export the same, and that the Governor may also in like manner from time to time make provision for the examination of exported Gold, not being Gold Coin, and respecting the mode of packing and securing the same, and may prohibit the exportation thereof, except from specified Ports, and generally may regulate and restrict, as may seem meet, the Export of Gold other than Gold Coin. And that every person who shall knowingly contravene any provision of any such Proclamation, shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding the sum of one hundred pounds, in addition to any other punishment or penalty to which he may become liable by reason of such contravention.

Now, therefore, I, Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor as aforesaid, in exercise of the power in me in this behalf vested by the recited Act, do hereby proclaim and declare as follows:—

1. No Gold shall be shipped, or be waterborne to be shipped, for exportation from the Colony, from any Port except the Ports of Nelson, Wellington, and Auckland, without the special license of the Commissioner of Customs.

2. All Gold for exportation shall be securely packed in boxes, or other packages approved of by the Collector, or other proper Officer of Customs at the Port of Shipment, which packages shall contain no other articles, and shall have on the outside thereof distinctive marks and numbers, legibly and properly cut or written thereon for the identification thereof.

3. Persons intending to export Gold shall give notice of such their intention to the Collector, or other proper Officer of Customs, at the Port of Shipment, at least twenty-four hours before the ship, by which they respectively intend to export, obtains a clearance at the Customs, and shall bring the packages of Gold ready for shipment to the Custom-house for examination, in charge of themselves or their agents, at a time to be fixed for the purpose by the Collector, or other proper Officer of Customs.

4. Every such package of Gold shall be opened at the Custom House, in the Collector's Room, or such other secure place as shall be appointed for the purpose by the Collector, or other proper Officer, and the contents o every such package shall be weighed, and the weight of such contents, in Troy weight, ascertained by the exporter or his agent, in the presence and to the satisfaction of such Officer, and the exporter or his agent shall thereupon securely repack the contents of every such package to the satisfaction of such Officer, and shall legibly and properly inscribe the weight of such contents on the outside of the package. The Collector, or other proper Officer, shall then seal the package with the Official Custom's Seal, and may place any additional mark thereon for the better identification thereof. And no such package shall be opened or seal broken, or mark altered or defaced, before the final departure of the export ship on her foreign voyage.

5. After the completion of such examination and other proceedings, the exporter of any such package, or his agent, shall pass an export entry for the same, and the proper duty shall be paid thereon before the same is taken from the Custom House for shipment, and the Collector, or other proper Officer, shall thereupon deliver to the exporter or his agent a duplicate of such entry, with a certificate signed by such Collector of the payment of duty thereon.

6. No Gold shall be shipped, or waterborne to be shipped, or be received on board of any vessel for exportation until a duplicate of such entry, with such certificate of payment of duty as aforesaid written thereon, shall have been delivered to the Master; and the Master of every vessel bound on a foreign voyage shall produce such entry and certificate for any Gold on board of his vessel to any Officer of Customs on demand, and such entry shall be appended under the Seal of the Customs to the clearance outward of such ship.

7. Gold, and packages of Gold, shall for all the purposes of the Customs Regulation Act, 1858, be deemed and taken to be goods the exportation of which is restricted, and shall be specified as such in the Content or Outwards Manifest of the export ship.

8. For the purposes of this Proclamation the term Gold shall mean such Gold only as by the Gold Duty Act, 1858, is made subject to a duty of Customs on the exportation thereof from the Colony.
