PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS the General Assembly of New Zealand now stands prorogued to the eighteenth day of June next, and it is expedient further to prorogue the same; Now, therefore I, the Governor, in pursuance of the authority in me vested in that behalf, do hereby further prorogue the said General Assembly to Wednesday, the twenty-fifth day of July next ensuing; and I do hereby further announce and proclaim that the said General Assembly shall assemble for the despatch of business on the aforesaid Wednesday the twenty-fifth day of July next, at two o'clock, p.m., in the General Assembly House, at Auckland; and the Honorable Members of the Legislative Council and the Members of the House of Representatives, respectively, are hereby required to give their attendance at the said time and place accordingly.

Given under my hand and issued under the Public Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, at the Government House at Auckland, this twenty-eight day of May, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty.

T. GORE BROWNE.

By His Excellency's command,

E. W. STAFFORD.
