PROCLAMATION.

By his Excellency, Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the General Assembly, intituled "The Gold Fields Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time by Proclamation, to constitute and appoint any portion of the Colony to be a Gold Field under the provisions of the said Act, and the limits of such Gold Field from time to time to alter as occasion may require.

AND WHEREAS by a Proclamation duly made and issued, dated the fourth day of October, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, I did, in pursuance of the said power and authority, establish and appoint all that territory therein described to be a Gold Field under the provisions of the said Act, and it is expedient to alter the limits thereof in manner hereinafter set forth and declared.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, do hereby in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, alter the limits of the said Gold Field, and do appoint and declare that the district known as the Town of Collingwood, shall be excluded from such limits and from the operation of the said Act.

Given under my Hand and issued under the Public Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, at the Government House at Auckland, this twenty-eight day of May, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and sixty.

T. GORE BROWNE.

By His Excellency's command,
E. W. STAFFORD.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS, by a Deed of Grant under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, and tested at Auckland the 5th day of January, in the year 1855, all that piece of Land situated in the City of Nelson, in the said Colony, containing one Acre, more or less, bounded on the North by Washington Road, on the East by land granted to Daniel Dixon, and on the South and West by land granted to John Burns, was granted to James Watkins, Samuel Ironside, John Aldred, William Hough, Adam Jackson, John Riley, and Richard Wallis, and the survivor of them, and the heirs and assigns of such survivor, in trust to permit the said land and all buildings thereon erected or to be erected to be for ever appropriated to the use of the Schoolmaster for the time being attached to the School belonging to the people called Methodists, in the connexion established by the late Reverend John Wesley. Now, notice is hereby given that, at the next meeting of the General Assembly for the said Colony of New Zealand, a petition will be presented on behalf of such of the said trustees as are qualified for leave to introduce a special Bill to empower the said trustees to sell and dispose of the said piece of land with all the buildings thereon, and to provide for the investment of the proceeds of sale in the purchase of other land in the said City of Nelson, and the erection thereon of a minister's dwelling-house and school-house, to be vested in trustees for the use of the said people called Methodists, in the connexion aforesaid in the said City of Nelson. Dated this eighteenth day of May, in the year of Our Lord 1860.

DONALD SINCLAIR,
Solicitor for the said Trustees
