FREDK. WHITAKER.

Attorney-General's Office,
 Auckland, 5th June, 1860.

SIR,—Your having been convicted in the Supreme Court at Nelson, and sentenced to fine and imprisonment for a libel on the District Judge there, has rendered it necessary that you should be removed from the Commission of the Peace; and I have to inform you that your name is omitted accordingly from the new Commission now about to be issued.

In order to avoid any misconception on the subject, it is proper that I should add that the propriety of this course is not affected by the pardon which has been extended to you, as the remission of a portion of the sentence at imprisonment was granted on the ground that as your case was the first in which a conviction for libel had taken place, the Law had been sufficiently vindicated by the punishment you had already undergone; and it was not intended, by the course adopted, to express or imply any disapproval of the sentence which His Honor the Judge of the Supreme Court had thought it his duty to pass.

I have, &c.,

FREDK. WHITAKER.

Mr. Alfred Saunders, Nelson.
