

The New Zealand Gazette.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1861.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME GREETING:—

WHEREAS it was enacted by the "New Zealand Constitution Act" that at any time during the continuance of the office of any Superintendent of a Province it should be lawful for Her Majesty to remove him from such office on receiving an address signed by the majority of the Members of the Provincial Council of such Province praying for such removal: And whereas it was by the said Act further provided that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, or by Instructions under Her Majesty's Signet and Sign Manual, or signified through one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to delegate to the Governor any of the powers thereinbefore secured to Her Majesty respecting (amongst other things) the removal of Superintendents of Provinces: And whereas by Instructions under Her Royal Signet and Sign Manual, dated at Windsor the 14th day of November, 1857, Her Majesty did delegate to me, the said Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor of New Zealand, (amongst others) the before recited power for the removal of Superintendents of Provinces:

And whereas in and by an address, dated the nineteenth day of December last, and received by me on the first day of January last, and signed by the majority of the Members of the Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, such Members requested me to remove the Superintendent of the said Province from such Office.

JAMES MACANDREW, Esq.,

Now, therefore, I, THOMAS GORE BROWNE, the Governor of New Zealand, in exercise of the power and authority for this purpose vested in me, do hereby remove the said

JAMES MACANDREW,

from the Office of Superintendent of the Province of Otago.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name at the Government House, at Auckland, and have caused the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand to be hereunto affixed, this sixth day of March, 1861.

T. GORE BROWNE.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. W. STAFFORD.

A PROCLAMATION

Declaring Carisbrook House, Dunedin, not to be a Public Gaol.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS power is vested in the Governor of New Zealand to declare what House, Building, Enclosure, or Place, shall be deemed to be a Public Gaol: And whereas James Macandrew, Esq., the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, has declared Carisbrook House to be one of the Public Gaols of the Colony of New Zealand, until proper provision be made otherwise in that behalf:

Now, therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, do hereby declare that Carisbrook House shall not be a Public Gaol: And this Proclamation shall be in force and take effect on and after the 22nd March, instant.

Given under my hand, at the Government House, at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this sixth day of March, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

T. GORE BROWNE.

By His Excellency's command,

E. W. STAFFORD.
