

New Zealand Gazette

EXTRAORDINARY.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1861.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Auckland, 7th June, 1861.

OFFICIAL Information having been received of the Death of HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUCHESS OF KENT, His Excellency the Governor invites the Civil Officers of the Government, and all others Her Majesty's Subjects in Auckland, to put themselves in decent mourning on Sunday, the 9th instant, as a tribute of respect for the memory of the illustrious deceased.

2. As a further mark of respect the Union Flags at Fort Britomart, will be hoisted half-mast high, from 8 a.m., on the same day.

E. W. STAFFORD.

