A PROCLAMATION

Disallowing certain Ordinances of the Province of Otago.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight, Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Imperial Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is amongst other things enacted that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent as in the said Act provided the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him to declare by Proclamation his disallowance of such Bill and that any such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such Proclamation or any subsequent day to be named therein :

And whereas the Ordinances hereinafter specified have been enacted by the Superintendent of the Province of Otago with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, and the said Ordinances were received by the Administrator of the Government on the thirty first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one :

And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinances should be disallowed :

Now therefore I, George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the following Ordinances passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, viz. :—

- "The Diseased Cattle Ordinance, 1861"
- "The Education Ordinance, 1861"
- "The Roads Ordinance, 1861."

Given under my hand, at the Government House at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this fourth day of December in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

G. GREY.

By His Excellency's command,
WILLIAM FOX.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN !

A PROCLAMATION

Constituting Hundreds in the Province of Otago.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GREY, Knight, Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS it is enacted by the "Definition of Districts Act, 1858," that it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony into Counties, Hundreds, Parishes, or such other divisions as he may deem expedient, which shall have such limits, and shall have and be known by such names or designations as in and by the Proclamation constituting the same shall be prescribed:

Now therefore I, George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid, in exercise of the power in me in this behalf vested by the said recited Act, do hereby Proclaim and Declare as follows:—

There shall be within the Province of Otago in the said Colony the several Hundreds, bounded by the limits and known by the names or designations hereunder written; that is to say, Waitahuna Hundred.

Comprises all that area estimated to contain 39,040 acres, bounded to the North East by a straight line drawn from the Hill End to the junction of the scrub burn with the Clutha, to the South East by North Tokomairiro Hundred, and to the South and West by the Clutha River.

Pomahaka Hundred.

Comprises all that area estimated to contain 46,080 acres, bounded on the North East by Black Cleugh burn and the Clutha River, on the East by the West Clutha Hundred, on the South by the Pomahaka River, and on the West by the Rankle burn and Mount Valpy summits.

Popotuna Hundred.

Comprises all that area estimated to contain 60,160 acres, bounded on the North by the Pomahaka river, on the East by West Clutha Hundred, on the South by the Kaihiku Waiwero Kuriwau and Wairuna Ranges, and on the West by the Wairuna Creek.

And I do also proclaim and declare that the first day of January next shall be the day from and after which any Licenses issued under the Otago Land Regulations at present in force, shall cease and determine as to so much of the land comprised therein as may be included within the boundaries of the Hundreds herein described respectively.

Given under my hand, at the Government House, at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this 7th day of December, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred sixty-one.

G. GREY.
