ORDER IN COUNCIL

Making Regulations for Aboriginal Natives to serve on Juries.

G. Grey,
Governor.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE, AT AUCKLAND,
ON THURSDAY, THE NINTH DAY OF JANUARY, 1862.

Present :—

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the Jury Amendment Ordinance, 1844, His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council do make and issue the following Regulations as regards Aboriginal Natives to serve on Juries :—

The Resident Magistrate in every District is to ascertain, to the best of his ability, the persons of the aboriginal race who, in his judgment, may from their personal qualifications, appear to be capable to serve on Juries.

He is to prepare a list of such persons, and return the same to His Excellency, who will make any and what selections he may please from such List, and will return the List corrected and duly certified to the Magistrate. The List so corrected and certified will be transmitted by the Magistrate to the Sheriff.

The persons whose names shall appear on such Lists shall be held qualified and liable to serve as Jurors.

And doth declare that this Order shall take effect from and after the 9th day of January, 1862.

JAMES HOLT,
Clerk of Executive Council.

ORDER IN COUNCIL,

Appointing District of "Tokomaru" under Native Circuit Courts Act.

G. GREY,
Governor.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT AUCKLAND,

NOTICE.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 16th January, 1862.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to cancel the following appointments held by ISAAC RHODES COOPER, Esq.:-

Major in the Wanganui Regiment of Militia
(Commission dated April 16, 1860.)

Major Commanding the Wanganui Volunteers
(Commission dated April 16, 1860.)

Deputy of the Governor; under Warrant, dated 3rd July, 1861.

By His Excellency's Command.

WILLIAM FOX,
Colonial Secretary.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE, AT AUCKLAND, THE 16TH DAY OF JANUARY, 1862.

Present:—

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR,
THE HON. THE COLONIAL SECRETARY,
THE HON. THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Militia Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to make, vary, and abolish Regulations under which the services of Volunteers shall be accepted in any Militia District; Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, and in exercise of the powers in this behalf vested in him by the said recited Act, doth hereby make and ordain the following Regulations under which the Services of Volunteers shall be accepted in any Militia District within the Colony:—

1. All such Regulations heretofore made are hereby abolished.

2. There shall be no limit to the term of service, of any Volunteer: Provided that any Volunteer shall be entitled to be discharged at the expiration of One Month's notice in writing given by him to the Officer Commanding the body of Volunteers to which he may belong of his own desire to be so discharged; and, in case such Officer Commanding shall be satisfied that urgent necessity exists for the discharge of any such Volunteer before the expiration of the said Month's notice, he may give him his discharge accordingly.

3. Every Volunteer shall attend to be trained and exercised at such time and places as shall be appointed by notice in any Gazette or Newspaper, or by verbal order issued by or by the authority of the Officer Commanding the body of Volunteers to which he may belong: Provided always that no Volunteer shall be compelled to attend more than One hundred and sixty eight hours in any one year.

4. No Volunteer shall be absent during any part of any time appointed for training and exercise; and every Volunteer who shall offend against this Regulation shall for such offence forfeit and pay any such sum not exceeding One Pound, as shall be fixed by the Officer Commanding, as aforesaid, which sum so fixed shall be recoverable in a summary way by any Officer of the body of Volunteers to which the person so offending may belong.

5. No Volunteer who shall, previous to the issue of a Summons under the foregoing Regulations, produce to such Officer Commanding as aforesaid a Certificate signed by a duly qualified Medical Practitioner, that such absence was unavoidably caused by illness, or satisfy the Commanding Officer of his illness, and no Volunteer who shall be absent, having duly obtained leave of absence from such Officer Commanding as aforesaid, shall be liable to the penalty set forth in the foregoing Regulation.

6. If any Volunteer's Arms or Accoutrements shall, in the opinion of the Officer Commanding as aforesaid, be in a defective or dirty state, he shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, to be fixed and recoverable in manner as aforesaid.

7. If any Arms, Accoutrements, or other Government property shall be lost, destroyed, or injured in any way other than on service, a fine not exceeding the value of the Arms, Accoutrements, or other Government property shall be paid by the Volunteer in whose charge they were. Such fine shall be fixed by a Board of Officers appointed for that purpose by the Officer Commanding as aforesaid upon consideration of the circumstances, and if not paid to them on demand, may be recovered by the Officer Commanding as aforesaid, on behalf of the Government, in any Resident Magistrate's Court in the Colony.

8. If any Volunteer shall not deliver to the Officer Commanding as aforesaid, the Arms, Accoutrements, and other Government property entrusted to him as a Volunteer, within three days after an order to that effect shall have been given to him by the Officer Commanding as aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty of Ten Pounds, to be recovered in a summary way.

9. All Commissioned Officers shall be appointed by the Governor, and names for that purpose shall be submitted to him (through the Officer Commanding as aforesaid, for his approval,) by the Troop or Company to which they are proposed to be appointed. No Commissions will be issued (unless to Officers who have held Commissions in the regular service) until the Candidates are found fit after examination.

10. All Non-commissioned Officers shall be elected by the Volunteers of the Troop or Company to which they are to be appointed, and shall be examined by the Senior Officer of such Troop or Company, and if passed as competent, shall be appointed by the Officer Commanding as aforesaid.

11. All Volunteers shall be subject to the provisions contained in the following Sections of the "Militia Act, 1858," viz. :—1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 9, 18, 19, 20, 22, and 24, and in the following Sections of the "Militia Act Amendment Act, 1860," viz. :—10, 11, 13, 14, 16, and 18.

12. General Parades of all the Volunteers in each District shall be held on a day in each quarter to be fixed by the Governor.

13. Each Troop or Company which shall consist of sixty Volunteers or more, shall receive from the Government annually the sum of seventy-five pounds.

14. Each Volunteer, after four years' service as such, shall be at all times thereafter exempt from attendance for training and exercise in the Militia; half the period of service of Volunteers under former Regulations this day abolished, shall be allowed to reckon.

15. Every Volunteer shall take the following Oath, to be administered to him by the Commanding Officer of the body of Volunteers in which he intends to serve, or by the Adjutant of Militia.

I, _____ do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and that I will faithfully serve in the _____ until I shall be lawfully discharged."

16. In the construction of these Regulations the phrase "Officer Commanding" shall, in case of his absence from the District, or incapacity to act by reason of illness, or any other cause, mean the Officer of the same body of Volunteers next in seniority.

HAMPDEN WILLIS,
For Clerk of Executive Council.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 16th January, 1862.

REFERRING to the above Regulations for Volunteer Forces, the Government will propose a measure to the House of Representatives making provision to the following effect:—

"In the case of any Volunteer Officer being killed on service, his family shall be entitled to such pension as they would have been entitled to had he been an Officer of the same rank in Her Majesty's Regular Service; and, in the case of a Non-commissioned Officer or Private being killed on service, he shall, for the purposes of such pension, be taken to have ranked with an Ensign of Her Majesty's Regular Forces."

WILLIAM FOX,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 1st January, 1862.

THE following letter to the Deputy Adjutant-General of Militia and Volunteers is published for general information.

WILLIAM FOX.

No. 10. Militia Branch.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 16th January, 1862.

SIR,—The issue of new Regulations for the enrolment of Volunteers in New Zealand necessitates the disbandment of the present Force, and I have to request you, in communicating this circumstance to the respective Commanding Officers of Volunteer Corps, to express through them to the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of each Corps the full appreciation by His Excellency the Governor of the public spirit which led to the formation of these Corps, and to convey to them His Excellency's best thanks for the services which they have thus rendered to the Colony in a time of difficulty.

In these sentiments His Excellency's Responsible Advisers cordially join.

The new Regulations have been framed with a view to the further encouragement of the Volunteer movement and to the permanent establishment, in this Colony, of a Volunteer Force on an improved basis, and it is earnestly hoped that they will lead to the attainment of so desirable a result.

I have, &c.,

WILLIAM FOX.

Lieut.-Colonel Balneavis,
Deputy-Adjutant General.

Attorney-General's Office,
Auckland, 18th, January 1862.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint

THOMAS MOORE PHILSON, Esq., M.D.,
to be Coroner for the General District of Auckland, as defined hereunder.

HENRY SEWELL.

Warrant Defining District under "Coroners' Act, 1858."

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight, Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by the "Coroners' Act, 1858," the Governor is empowered, in the manner therein mentioned, to appoint fit persons to be Coroners of the several Districts of the Colony of New Zealand, and from time to time to define the Districts within which such Coroners shall respectively have jurisdiction, and every such definition to revoke or amend, and the limits of such Districts to alter as occasion may require:

Now, therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance of the said power and authority, do hereby define the District of

in the Province of Auckland, to be all the territory lying and being within a radius of Twenty (20) miles from the Government House at Auckland, exclusive of the Provincial Hospital, the Lunatic Asylum, and the
