A PROCLAMATION

Appointing certain Districts under the "Marriage Act."

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight, Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by the "Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand for the purposes of the said Act into such and so many Districts as he may think fit, and that every such District shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar's District, and it is provided that the Governor may at any time revoke the whole or any part of such Proclamation and issue a new Proclamation dividing the Colony or any part of it anew into Districts or increasing the number or altering the boundaries of Districts as from time to time he may think requisite: And whereas by a Proclamation duly made and issued bearing date the sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Governor, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, did amongst others constitute two Districts for the purposes of the said Act called the "Nelson District," and the "Wairau District," the boundaries whereof respectively were therein set forth, which said Proclamation came into operation, and took effect on the First day of October, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine: And whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said Proclamation as relates to the said two Districts, and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such Districts:

Now, therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation so far as relates to the "Nelson District" and the "Wairau District," and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such Districts shall be and is hereby divided for the purposes of the said Act into three Districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows:—

Nelson District.

From the sea at the North-east angle of the Waimea Road District following the Southern boundary of the last named District till it meets the straight line from summit of Mount Arthur to the junction of the Buller and Gowan, thence along that line to the mouth of the Gowan, thence up the Gowan to Lake Howick, along the Western shore of Lake Howick to its Southern extremity; thence to the Wairau Gorge, thence Northerly to Lake Arthur along its Eastern margin to the stream running into it from the North-east; thence up the said stream to the head of the Motupiko river; thence along water summits to Mount Rintoul, and thence along the boundary of the Province of Nelson to Tennyson's Inlet.

Picton District.

Bounded on the North and East by the coast line from the North-west corner of the Province of Marlborough at Tennyson's Inlet to the East end of the range of hills dividing White's Bay from Robin Hood's Bay; thence on the South by a right line to a point in the Tua Marina Valley, five miles due North from the mouth of the Tua Marina River; thence by a right line to a point in the Kaituna Valley, seven miles from the Wairau River; thence by a line to the summit of the range of hills dividing the Pelorus and Wairau rivers; thence by a line along the said summit to Mount Richmond; thence on the West and North-west by a right line to the Red Hills, and thence by the North-western boundary of the Province of Marlborough to Tennyson's Inlet.

Wairau District.

Bounded by the Southern boundary of Picton District from the range of hills dividing White's Bay from Robin Hood's Bay to Mount Richmond; thence by a line running Northerly to the Red Hills; thence by the Eastern boundary of the Nelson District to the Wairau Gorge; thence to the summit of the watershed between the Gorge and Barefell's Pass; thence to the summit of Mount Stafford; thence along the watershed to Mount Wells; thence along the watershed to the White Bluff; thence by the sea coast to the said range of hills dividing White's Bay from Robin Hood's Bay.

And I do declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the First day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

Given under my hand at the Government House at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this twenty-second day of January, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

G. GREY.

By His Excellency's command,
WILLIAM FOX.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Appointing certain Districts under the Registration Act.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by the "Registration Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand for the purposes of the said Act into such and so many Districts as he may think fit, and that every such District shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar's District, and it is provided that the Governor may at any time revoke the whole or any part of such Proclamation, and issue a new Proclamation dividing the Colony or any part of it anew into Districts, or increasing the number, or altering the boundaries of Districts as from time to time he may think requisite; and whereas by a Proclamation duly made and issued, bearing date the sixth day of July, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Governor, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, did amongst others constitute two Districts for the purposes of the said Act called the "Nelson District," and the "Wairau District," the boundaries whereof respectively were therein set forth, which said Proclamation came into operation and took effect on the first day of October, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; and whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said Proclamation as relates to the said two Districts, and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such Districts:

Now, therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation so far as relates to the "Nelson District" and the "Wairau District," and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such Districts shall be and is hereby divided for the purposes of the said Act into three Districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows:—

Nelson District.

From the sea at the North-east angle of the Waimea Road District, following the Southern boundary of the last named District till it meets the straight line from the summit of Mount Arthur to the junction of the Buller and Gowan; thence along that line to the mouth of the Gowan; thence up the Gowan to Lake Howick, along the Western shore of Lake Howick to its Southern extremity; thence to the Wairau Gorge; thence Northerly to Lake Arthur along its Eastern margin to the stream running into it from the North-east; thence up the said stream to the head of the Motupiko river; thence along watershed summits to Mount Rintoul; and thence along the boundary of the Province of Nelson to Tennyson's Inlet.

Picton District.

Bounded on the North and East by the coast line from the North-west corner of the Province of Marlborough at Tennyson's Inlet to the East end of the range of hills dividing White's Bay from Robin Hood's Bay; thence on the South by a right line to a point in the Tua Marina Valley, five miles due North from the mouth of Tua Marina river; thence by a right line to a point in the Kaituna Valley, seven miles from the Wairau River; thence up a line to the summit of the range of hills dividing the Pelorus and Wairau Rivers; thence by a line along the said summit to Mount Richmond; thence on the West and North-west by a right line to the Red Hills; and thence by the North-western boundary of the Province of Marlborough to Tennyson's Inlet.

Wairau District.

Bounded by the Southern boundary of Picton District from the range of hills dividing White's Bay from Robin Hood's Bay to Mount Richmond; thence by a line running Northerly to the Red Hills; thence by the Eastern boundary of the Nelson District to the Wairau Gorge; thence to the summit of the watershed between the Gorge and Barefell's Pass; thence to the summit of Mount Stafford; thence along the watershed to Mount Wells; thence along the watershed to the White Bluff; thence by the sea coast to the said range of hills dividing White's Bay from Robin Hood's Bay.

And I do declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the First day of April, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

Given under my hand at the Government House, at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this twenty-second day of January, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

G. GREY.

By His Excellency's command,
WILLIAM FOX.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

For the Naturalization of Johann Hofmann.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight Commander of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by "The Naturalization Act, 1861," it is enacted that every person who shall be declared to come within the operation of that Act by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by His Excellency the Governor, shall, as from the time in such Proclamation specified, be deemed and taken until the termination of the next Session of the General Assembly, to be, and to have been from such specified time, a Natural-born subject of Her Majesty within the Colony of New Zealand, as fully to all intents and purposes as if his name had been inserted in the Schedule to that Act annexed. Provided always that every such Proclamation shall contain the description, occupation or calling, of every person therein named, and his place of residence at the date of such Proclamation:

Now, therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the person hereinafter mentioned, shall come within the operation of the said Act from the date hereinafter specified, viz:—

JOHANN HOFMANN,

NOTICE.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 27th January, 1862.

THE Government having been informed that attempts are being made to obtain leases of land from aboriginal Natives, in anticipation of the sanction of Government being hereafter given to them, all persons are hereby cautioned that such leases are at present invalid and contrary to law, and that the Government will not consider itself bound in any way to recognize or sanction any dealings for Waste Lands between Europeans and Natives transacted previously to the establishment of the intended system of Native Government in the district where such lands may be situated, nor previously to the title to such lands being ascertained to the satisfaction of Government, and the fulfilment of such conditions as the Government may hereafter prescribe in reference to such transactions.
