A PROCLAMATION

Appointing certain Districts under the Marriage Act.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by "The Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand for the purposes of the said Act into such and so many Districts as he may think fit, and that every such District shall be called by a distinct name and shall be a Registrar's District, and it is provided that the Governor may at any time revoke the whole or any part of such Proclamation and issue a new Proclamation dividing the Colony or any part of it anew into Districts, or increasing the number, or altering the boundaries of Districts as from time to time he may think requisite :

And whereas by a Proclamation duly made and issued bearing date the Sixth day of July, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Governor, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority did amongst others constitute a District for the purposes of the said Act called the "Ahuriri District," the boundaries whereof were therein set forth, which said Proclamation came into operation and took effect on the First day of October, One thousand eight hundred and fifty nine :

And whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said Proclamation as relates to the said District and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such District :

Now therefore I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation so far as relates to the "Ahuriri District," and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such District shall be and is hereby divided for the purposes of the said Act into Four Districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows :—

Mohaka District.

Bounded on the North by the Northern boundary of the Province of Hawke's Bay ; on the East by the Sea Coast to the Waikari River ; on the South following up the Waikari to its source, following a straight line in a North West direction to the North West corner of the said Province.

Napier District.

Bounded on the North by the Southern boundary of the Mohaka District ; on the East along the Sea Coast to the mouth of the Manauarakau stream ; South following that stream to the Southern boundary of the Waimarama Native Block to the Makara stream, following it to its junction with the Tuki-tuki river, down that river to the South-western boundary of the Te Mata Block, and following the Ngaruroro to its source, and on the West by the Ruahine Mountains.

Waipukurau District.

Bounded on the North by the Southern boundary of the Napier District towards the East by the Sea Coast to the Southern boundary of the Hapuku Block; on the South following that line to the Hua-tokitoki river, thence up that river to its junction with the Taurakaetai stream following that stream and the Monga-angaanga to the Purimu Lake, thence by a straight line to the Forty-mile Bush, along the edge of the bush to the Ruahine Range, and on the West by the boundary of the said Province.

Porongahau District.

Bounded on the North by the Southern boundary of the Waipukurau District; East by the Sea Coast to Waimata; on the South by the Southern boundary of the said Province; West by the Ruahine Range.

And I do declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the first day of July, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

Given under my hand at New Plymouth, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.
