Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 30th June, 1863.

THE following Circular Despatch, with its enclosure, from H.M. Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for the information of the public and the guidance of the Postmasters throughout the Colony.

ALFRED DOMETT.

Downing Street,
23rd April, 1863.

Sir,—I transmit to you herewith a copy of a Letter from the Under Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, with copies of a correspondence between that Office and the Post Office, by which you will perceive that, under the peculiar circumstances of the time, Vessels bound to Matamoros from the Ports in this country have been relieved from the obligation of carrying Ship Letter Mails.

I should wish you to take such steps as may be necessary for extending the same immunity to Ships sailing for Matamoros from the Ports of the Colony under your Government.

I have &c.,

NEWCASTLE.

Governor Sir George Grey,
&c., &c., &c.

MR. HAMMOND TO SIR F. ROGERS.

Foreign Office, April 17th, 1863.

Sir,—I am directed by Earl Russell to transmit to you copies of a correspondence between this Department and the General Post Office respecting a suggestion made by Lord Russell to the Post Office in consequence of representations addressed to his lordship, that under the peculiar circumstances of the present time, vessels bound to Matamoros from Ports in this country or from Ports in Her Majesty's Colonies, should be relieved from the obligation of carrying ship-letter Mails, and I am to request that in laying these papers before the Duke of Newcastle, you will move his Grace to give the requisite instructions to the several Colonial Post Offices with a view to the adoption of a regulation similar to that which the Postmaster-General is about to put in force in this country.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) E. HAMMOND.

Sir F. Rogers, Bart.

MR. HAMMOND TO MR. HILL.

Foreign Office, April 16th, 1863.

Sir,—I am directed by Earl Russell to request that you will state to the Postmaster-General that it has been represented to his Lordship by persons interested in vessels employed between this country and Matamoros, that the circumstances of those vessels being obliged to carry a ship-letter Mail, may, in many cases, have an injurious effect on the vessels if visited by U.S. Ships of War, inasmuch, as although the persons interested in such vessels and their cargoes may, as far as matters are within their control, be well assured of the innocence of both, yet they can have no such assurance in regard to the contents of Mails entrusted to them by the Post Office, which for aught they know, may include correspondence to which the U.S., as a belligerent power might fairly object.

I am therefore to request that you will state to the Postmaster-General that Lord Russell is of opinion that under the peculiar circumstances of the present time, vessels bound to Matamoros either from Ports in this country, or from Ports in Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions should be relieved from the obligation of carrying ship-letter Mails; and if the Postmaster-General should concur, Lord Russell would be glad to be informed of his doing so, in order that he may apprise the parties by whom the representation was made to him.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) E. HAMMOND.

F. Hill, Esq.

MR. HILL TO MR. HAMMOND.

General Post Office, April, 17th 1863.

Sir,—Having laid before the Postmaster-General your letter of yesterday's date, I am directed by his Lordship to request that you will state to Earl Russell that he sees no objection to the proposal made in that letter, that under the peculiar circumstances of the present time, vessels bound to Matamoros from Ports in this country should be relieved from the obligation of carrying ship-letter Mails, and orders, will immediately be given that, for the present, no ship-letter Mail be put on board any vessel sailing for Matamoros, unless with the full concurrence of the Commander.

With respect to vessels sailing from Ports in Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions, the Postmaster-General would suggest that Earl Russell should communicate with the Secretary of State for the Colonies, as except at Malta and Gibraltar, the management of the Posts in the Colonies is now entirely under local control.

As bearing upon the present question, I am to add that on the 2nd instant, the Brokers of a steam vessel, called the "Sea Queen," bound for Matamoros, wrote to this Office, stating that they should be glad to take a mail by her. But on the 11th instant, a further letter was received from them, pointing out that for reasons similar to those mentioned in your letter, the owners wished to decline taking the Mails for which they had previously applied.

Before the receipt, however, of that letter, three Mails containing 8 letters and two newspapers had been put on board the ship at Gravesend, and the vessel had sailed.

This circumstance was communicated to the Brokers yesterday; but the Postmaster-General has now directed a further letter to be written to them informing them that, if they still desire that the Mails should not be carried by the "Sea Queen," and will instruct the Commander to put them on shore at Falmouth, where it is understood the vessel is to call, his Lordship will authorize the Postmaster of Falmouth, by means of the Electric Telegraph, to receive the Mails and to return them to London.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) F. HILL.

Prohibiting the Importation of Cattle from Port Albert, in Gipps Land, into the Province of Otago.

By the Honorable JOHN HYDE HARRIS, Esquire, Superintendent of the said Province.

WHEREAS by section 9 of the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," passed by the General Assembly of New Zealand, it is enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to the Governor that any infectious or contagious disease has broken out in any district out of the Colony, it shall be lawful for the Governor, by order in Council, to declare that such district is infected within the meaning of the Act, and from time to time to make such regulations as to him shall seem fit for prohibiting the importation of cattle into the colony from such district, and the landing or driving of such cattle, and for destroying cattle imported, landed, or driven, contrary to such regulations. AND WHEREAS, by section 14 of the same Act, it is enacted that the Governor in Council may, by warrant under his hand, from time to time, delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the Colony, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or Governor in Council by the said Act: AND WHEREAS the Governor in Council hath, by warrant under his hand, delegated to me, JOHN HYDE HARRIS, so long as I shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Otago, the several powers vested in the Governor by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth sections of the said Act: AND WHEREAS a Proclamation was issued by the Superintendent of the said Province of Otago, under the public seal of the said Province, upon the twentieth day of September last, admitting cattle from Port Albert, in Gipps Land, which it is expedient partially to rescind to the intent that this Proclamation may have full force and effect: AND WHEREAS it has been made to appear to me that a certain infectious or contagious disease has broken out amongst cattle in the district of Gipps Land aforesaid: Now therefore I, the said JOHN HYDE HARRIS, by virtue of the powers vested in me in this behalf, do hereby rescind the aforesaid Proclamation of the 20th day of September, 1862, so far as relates to the exception therein contained in favor of Port Albert in Gipps Land, and do hereby proclaim and declare, that from and after the date hereof, Port Albert in Gipps Land, shall be deemed an infected District, place, or port, within the meaning and for the purposes of the above-mentioned Act, and that no cattle from and after the date hereof, until further notice, shall be permitted to be imported into the Province of Otago from Port Albert in Gipps Land.

THE following Memorial from the Girvan Hand Loom Weavers Emigration Society is published for general information.

ALFRED DOMETT.

Unto the Honourable the Governor General and Executive Council of the Colony of New Zealand.

The Petition of the Girvan Hand Loom Weavers Emigration Society,

HUMBLY SHEWETH—

That your Petitioners are Hand - Loom Weavers in the Town of Girvan, Ayrshire, Scotland, and owing to the depression of trade, and the low rate of wages (being on an average four shillings and sixpence per week), and only partially employed for the last three years past; makes our position very deplorable, and on account of the circumstances we are forced to apply to you for assistance to enable us to emigrate to your colony.

Our district being a rural one, we are all less or more acquainted with field operations, in seed time and harvest; but, being necessitated by the depressions of trade, we are accustomed at all times of the year to out-door labour—viz., such as making of roads, and all other useful employments.

Your Petitioners consider that they would be useful to the Colony in a general way by endeavouring to advance it in prosperity and wealth, and, at the same time, raising themselves in the social scale, and becoming useful members of society.

Under the above-mentioned circumstances, we humbly beg that you will take our case into your favourable consideration, and grant us free passages, or in any other way to you seeming most fit and convenient, further the object we have in view.

We are also willing to come under any obligations and directions which you may consider not only for our interest, but also for the benefit of the Colony, and under the regulations formed by the different associations therein for the purposes of emigration.

And your humble Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Samuel Lyons, Treasurer,
William John Hervey, Chairman.
William Stead, Secretary.

We, the undersigned Ministers and gentlemen of Girvan, knowing the circumstances of the Petitioners to be as set forth in the foregoing Petition, do very cordially support the prayer thereof.

William Cowan, Minister of Girvan,
David Chapman, Minister of South Church,
Adam Blythe, Minister of Free Church,
John Steller, Minister of U. P. Church,
R. Smith, J.P.,
David Andrews, Banker,
Jno. Lusk, Merchant,
Matthew Brown, Ironmonger.

All communications on this subject to be addressed to the Parish Minister of Girvan, Ayrshire, Scotland.
