Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 24th August, 1863.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following letter with its enclosures from Major-General Galloway, for general information.

ALFRED DOMETT.

Head Quarters, Colonial Forces,
Auckland, 24th August, 1863.

SIR,—I have the honor to forward for the information of Government the accompanying letter from the Lieut. General Commanding the Forces, giving cover to a letter from the Officer Commanding at Auckland and Otahuhu.

It is a source of much pleasure to me that the conduct and soldierlike bearing of the Force under my command should have merited, and called forth such a gratifying mark of approval from the Lieut. General Commanding in New Zealand.

I have, &c.,

T. J. GALLOWAY,
Major-General,
Commanding Colonial Forces.

The Honble.
The Minister for Colonial Defence.

Head Quarters,
Queen's Redoubt,
23rd August, 1863.

Sir,—I am directed by the Lieut. General Commanding to forward for your information the enclosed copy of a letter which he has received from Colonel Carey, Commanding at Auckland and Otahuhu, and he feels sure that you will feel equally gratified with himself by that officer's account of the alertness and promptitude displayed by the Volunteers and Militia in repairing to their several posts on the occasion of the alarm being sounded in Auckland on the 20th instant. The Lieut.-General avails himself of this opportunity to express through you, his approbation of the conduct and services of all the corps of Volunteers and Militia since the outbreak of hostilities in this Province.

Having been called out suddenly for service in the field at the most inclement season of the year, encamped at great distances from their homes, and required to perform duties most trying and harassing, even to regular troops, they have been subject to many hardships and privations, which they have endured with a constancy and cheerfulness reflecting the highest credit upon them.

The Lieut.-General requests you will assure the officers and men of the high opinion which he entertains of their conduct and of the value of their services.

The Lieut.-General is fully aware how much your personal influence and example have contributed to call forth and encourage this soldierlike spirit on the part of the Militia and Volunteers, and begs you will accept his warm thanks for the timely assistance given by you in accepting your present command at a very critical period, and for the cordial manner in which you have co-operated with him all his arrangements for the defence of the Province.

I have &c.,

W. J. HUTCHINS,
Lieut.-Colonel.

Assistant Military Secretary, &c.
Major-General Galloway,
Commanding Colonial Forces,
Auckland.

Camp Otahuhu,
August 21st, 1863.

Sir,—I have the honor to report for the information of the Lieut.-Gen. Com. the Forces, that I yesterday carried into effect the "Alarm" in the City of Auckland, of which I had given notice in the daily papers some days since, with the view to ascertain whether the Militia and Volunteers belonging to that City were all cognisant of the different alarm Posts assigned to them.

It now affords me much pleasure to be enabled to testify to the promptitude, zeal, and good will, evinced upon this occasion by the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and members of both the Militia and Volunteers of Auckland, in answering this summons to their Military duties. Nothing could have been better than their conduct on the occasion, and, I therefore beg to recommend them to the favorable consideration of the Commander of the Forces.

I need scarcely add, that I received the greatest assistance from Lt.-Colonel Kenny, Dy. Qr.-M. General, and Lieut.-Col. Balneavis, Dy. Adjutant-General of the Militia and Volunteer Forces.

I have, &c.,

GEORGE F. CAREY,
Colonel 18th R.I.,

Commanding Auckland and Otahuhu.
The Military Secretary,
Head Quarters,
Queen's Redoubt.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 27th Aug., 1863.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following despatch, with its enclosure, from Lieutenant-General Cameron, C.B.

ALFRED DOMETT.

Head Quarters, Queen's Redoubt,
26th August, 1863.

SIR,—I have the honor to forward, for your Excellency's information, the copy of a report which I have received from Captain Cook, 40th regiment, relative to a sudden attack made by a large body of rebel natives upon a party of 25 men of the 40th regiment, employed under Mr. Martyn in felling bush on the Great South Road, near Williamson's clearing.

I regret to state that two men were killed, and nearly the whole of the arms belonging to the party taken possession of by the enemy, and more lives must have been lost but for the timely assistance rendered by the escort under the command of Captain Cook, whose conduct on the occasion was most praiseworthy.

The officers mentioned in Captain Cook's report, who commanded the different posts along the road, deserve great credit for the promptitude with which they hastened in support.

Your Excellency will observe that we had only one man hit after the arrival of the escort, although the enemy continued firing for upwards of an hour.

Had the men employed in felling the bush been protected by a covering party, according to my directions, this occurrence in all probability would not have taken place.

I have, &c.,

D. A. CAMERON,
Lt.-General.

His Excellency Sir George Grey,
K.C.B., &c., &c.

Queen's Redoubt,
August 25th, 1863.

SIR,—I have the honor to report for the information of the Lieutenant General Commanding, that when returning from Baird's farm in command of the escort with the convoy from Drury this day, on arriving at Williamson's clearing, I heard firing in my front, and on proceeding to the spot, found that my advance guard was engaged in the immediate vicinity of the road with a party of Maoris. The main body of my escort rushed up, and we quickly drove the enemy into the bush. It appears that a party consisting of 25 men of the 40th Regiment, under a non-commissioned officer, were employed in felling bush near the road; they had left their arms piled on the edge of the road under charge of a sentry. Suddenly a number of Maoris rushed upon the firing and took possession of the sentry arms at them. The Maoris had surrounded the men in the bush, and had shot two men dead when my advanced guard came up and engaged them. Reinforcements from Williamson's clearing, Martyn's farm, Kerr's farm, and Razor Back, as well as a party of thirty men of the escort proceeding to Drury, under Capt. Bishopp, Transport Corps, with Assistant Surgeon Carberry, 2B. 14th Regiment, joined me shortly after the firing commenced, and we skirmished with the enemy for about an hour and a quarter, driving them into the bush, and following them in for a short way. A party of the 65th Regiment, under Captain Ord, endeavoured to get behind the Maoris and cut off their retreat, but were unsuccessful.

The casualties of the troops under my command consisted of one man, 2B. 18th Regiment, wounded. The loss of the Maoris appears to have been one man killed and left on the field, and five men wounded and carried away.

Two rifles, a few muskets, some tomakawks, ammunition, &c., fell into our hands.

I beg to bring to the notice of the Lieutenant General Commanding, the services of Captain Ord, 65th Regiment, Captain Bishop, 2B. 18th Regiment, Lieutenant Warren, 65th Regiment, commanding at Kerr's farm, Lieutenant Thacker, 2B. 18th Regiment, commanding at Williamson's clearing, Lieutenant Clarke, Madrass Cavalry, attached to Transport Corps, and Lieutenant Pagan, 65th Regiment, and Ensign Haines, 2B. 18th Regiment, who were with the escort under my command.

The whole of the officers and men behaved extremely well.

Judging from the enemy's fire, I should say there were at least 200 of them.

I have, &c.,

A. COOK, Captain,
40th Regiment.

The Assistant Military Secretary,
&c. &c., &c.,
Head Quarters.

17th August 1863.

Sir,—I have the honour to forward you for your information copy translation of letters addressed by W. Kukutai to hostile parties.

They have reference to the matters alluded to by me in my letter to you of the 11th inst.

W. Tamehana has, I was informed by the General, written to Te Wheoro that the proposed 'Tapu' between the Panga Panga and the Heads shall be established but has not replied to my communication,

Taupari, August 12th, 1863.

To TIRENI TE HURA (Tioriori.)

Friend, Salutations,—I have seen your letter which arrived here for me.

Listen to my words,—You must discontinue writing to me. I am very much annoyed at your constantly writing to me. Do you think that that is a sign of consideration for me. In my view it is very wrong.

Listen I do not like this way of yours in the least. If I should agree to these ideas of yours it would be a cause of death to me.

I will have nothing at all to do with you,—Listen to my words,—If I should do wrong, I do so on a principle which I understand. (i.e. responsible for his actions) If I do right, I do so also on a principle. Likewise you and your fathers are acting on your own principles. If you are right you and your tribe do as you think right. If wrong you do wrong. 2nd. my words to you and all your tribe (or people) are that no person shall come here whether friends or relations—they shall not come here.

Likewise the men belonging to the Kakenga; they shall not visit the Kakenga.

The road shall be sacred (i.e. closed) commencing at the Panga Panga down to Taupari.

Let no one come and cause disturbances in my District. Leave my District to be sacred, for this is the law thereof. There shall no man traverse this road whether of your party or mine—there shall be an end to all travelling on that road. There have been some persons from there (your party) come down to Taupari. I did not see them when they arrived, I informed them they must cease visiting here. I have sent them back, and I wrote a very strong letter to them.

This is all I have to say to you.

W. PI KUKUTAI.

at Takinga Wairua.

[TRANSLATION.]

Taupari, August 12th, 1863.

To WILLIAM and GEORGE TE WHEORO, [late residents at Taupari of Nga ti Tipa tribe, who have joined the king party.]

I have heard that you arrived here last night and that you had stopped at the Wairoa (near Taupari.)

I now inform you of my directions :

Arise and start on your way as soon as you receive my letter, that is my command. Make haste George and take your wife with you to-day, do not stay.

Listen to my words, William—I do not wish you to come here. Listen. I have made this road very sacred (i.e., stopped it altogether) commencing at Taupari right up to the Panga Panga.

None of the enemy are to come to Taupari and none of the Taupari men to go there (Panga Panga) whether friends or relations. I will not permit them.

I have made very strict regulations concerning that road, and if any man attempts to pass it he shall be made prisoner.

What is the reason you want to come here? You have just found out you have got relations here? What is the good of your remaining here? You must start immediately, this very day and never return.

William you must go at 10 o'clock a.m. and you must not linger after that hour named which I have appointed for your leaving.

This must be the last time any of the hostile natives shall come on my land for I shall make arrangements to prevent any of the enemy trespassing on my land.

I have jurisdiction over all the land from the Panga Panga right to the mouth of the River at the Sea Coast.

From,

READER WOOD,
In the absence of the Native Minister.

August 13th, 1863

Father, Governor Grey,—

Salutations. We have received your Proclamation relative to those who are peaceable, and to those who are in arms against the Queen. It is good that I should hear it. O Father I am residing here at my place in Kawhia, holding fast to Governor Browne's and my words. You came with your words for peace and order, and by those am I abiding. There are two things which I do not like, the King movement and war. I am quite averse to these works, I have never been instructed in these things from my childhood up to the present time, but I was instructed by Governor Browne in the work of the Queen's law; and am employed in that still. Your proclamation says that we are to be the friends of the General. Yes, I will be his friend (or ally).
