Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by the "Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand, for the purposes of the said Act, into such and so many Districts as he may think fit, and that every such District shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar's District, and it is provided that the Governor may, at any time, revoke the whole or any part of such Proclamation, and issue a new Proclamation dividing the Colony or any part of it anew into Districts, or increasing the number or altering the he may think requisite;

And whereas by a Proclamation duly made and issued, bearing date the 22nd day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, the Governor, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, did amongst others constitute a District for the purposes of the said Act, called the "Wakatip District," the boundaries whereof were therein set forth, which said Proclamation came into operation and took effect on the first day of September, one thousand

And whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said Proclamation as relates to the said District, and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such District:

Now therefore I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation, so far as relates to the "Wakatip District," and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such District shall be and is hereby divided for the purposes of the said Act into two Districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows:—

ARROW DISTRICT

comprises all that area bounded towards the land, and by the ocean; and on the West by the ocean.

And I do declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

THOMAS B. GILLIES,

MEMORANDUM of Agreement made this thirty-first day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, between the Honorable the Postmaster-General of New Zealand, of the one part, and the New Zealand Steam Navigation Company (Limited) of the other part. Witnesseth that in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter contained, the said parties hereto for themselves and their respective executors, administrators, and successors, do hereby respectively covenant and agree to and with the other of them and their respective executors, administrators, and successors, in manner following, that is to say,—

3. From and after the date hereof, and for twelve calendar months thence next ensuing, the said New Zealand Steam Navigation Company shall, with one of the afore-mentioned steamers, or other steamer authorised by the Postmaster-General, perform a service monthly between Manukau and the Bluff, leaving Manukau on the 18th and the Bluff on the 2nd of each month, according to Time Table No. 3, hereunto annexed, subject to variation of dates as hereinafter mentioned.

4. By the aforesaid steam postal services, the said Company shall receive and safely carry Her Majesty's mails, and provide all necessary accommodation therefor, to the satisfaction of the said Postmaster-General, and shall deliver the same over the ship's

5. By each of the aforesaid steamers the said Company shall, if required, provide a free cabin passage, fare, and accommodation, for one person in charge of the mails, in accordance with written instructions from the said Postmaster-General.

6. The aforesaid steamers shall (weather permitting) proceed on their respective voyages from Auckland and Otago at noon, or as near thereto as the tide will permit on the respective dates mentioned in the said Time Tables hereunto annexed, or on such other dates as may be fixed as hereinafter mentioned, and shall not, in their respective voyages between the said ports, exceed the time allowed by the said Tables. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the said Postmaster-General, or his authorised agent at either of the said ports, to detain without charge either of the said boats for the period of twenty-four hours, and to detain them for such further time as he shall think proper on payment of a bonus of fifty pounds (£50) per day, not exceeding three days, the said Company paying a liquidate penalty of fifty pounds (£50) for each day, or part of a day, they do not (weather permitting and accidents excepted) proceed from the aforesaid ports at the times appointed.

7. 8. The said Postmaster-General shall be at liberty, on reasonable notice, to alter the dates of sailing mentioned in the said Time-Tables hereunto annexed, provided such alteration does not, without consent of the Company, shorten the times of remaining at the several intermediate ports of New Zealand respectively.

9. This contract shall continue in force until terminated by two months' notice by either of the said parties hereto, provided that it shall not be terminated by such notice sooner than the aforesaid period of twelve months—such notices to be delivered at the offices in Auckland of the respective parties hereto.
