DESPATCHES FROM THE SECRETARY
OF STATE.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 10th June, 1864.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Despatches from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies.

WILLIAM FOX.

Downing Street, 23rd March, 1864.

SIR,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Despatch, No. 3 of the 4th of January, enclosing letters from Colonel Carey, commanding the Thames Expeditionary Force, reporting that he had successfully performed the duty for which he had been detached of establishing a line of Military Posts, and opening the communication between the Firth of the Thames and the River Waikato.

I am glad to observe that out of the 843 men under Colonel Carey's command, 340 belong to different Colonial corps, and I notice with satisfaction the valuable assistance afforded by the Naval Volunteers.

I have also to acknowledge your Despatch, No. 4 of the 4th of January, enclosing a report from Captain Jackson, commanding the Forest Rangers, of his having surprised a party of Natives in the bush, who were in possession at the time of a great amount of property which had been plundered from Europeans.

I quite concur in Sir D. Cameron's opinion that Captain Jackson and those who acted with him deserve great credit for the manner in which they followed up the track of these Natives, who were clearly more or less implicated in the outrages which have been committed.

I have, &c.,

C. FORTESCUE,

In the absence of and by authority of the Secretary of State.

Governor

Sir George Grey, K.C.B., &c.

Downing Street, 8th March, 1864.

SIR,—I have to inform you that Her Majesty's Government have decided to station a Consul in the territory of Sarawak, now governed under the authority of Sir James Brooke, and that the Queen has been graciously pleased to confer that appointment upon Mr. G. T. Ricketts. The special attention of Mr. Ricketts has been drawn to the importance of extending British trade in that portion of Borneo, and he has been desired to furnish the Governors of Her Majesty's Possessions in the East and elsewhere, and especially the Government of India, with any information which may be useful to the interests of those possessions. I have accordingly, in announcing the appointment of Mr. Ricketts, to instruct you to afford him such support as it may at any time be in your power to give him in furtherance of that object.

I have, &c.,

Governor

Sir George Grey, K.C.B., &c.

Downing Street, 9th March, 1864.

SIR,—With reference to my Circular Despatch of the 31st of December, 1862,* the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury have informed me that they are of opinion that there are no longer any grounds for requiring that the operation of Colonial Acts for the incorporation of Banking Companies should be confined to the Colonies by whose legislatures they are passed.

I have, &c.,

PROCLAMATION,

Prohibiting the Importation of Cattle from the Colony of Tasmania.

By the Honourable JOHN HYDE
HARRIS, Superintendent of the Province of Otago.

WHEREAS by Proclamation in the Provincial Government Gazette, issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Otago at Dunedin, the eighteenth day of January last, I, John Hyde Harris, Superintendent of the said Province, by virtue of the powers delegated to and vested in me in that behalf, did thereby proclaim and declare that from and after the date thereof all the Australian Ports, with the exception of Gipps Land and Mornington, should be deemed infected districts, places, or ports, within the meaning and for the purposes of the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861." And whereas by another proclamation in the said Gazette, issued as aforesaid upon the sixteenth day of February thereafter, I, by virtue of the said powers, did thereby rescind the said exceptions, and did proclaim and declare that from and after the date thereof Gipps Land and Mornington should be deemed to be infected districts, ports, or places within the meaning and for the purposes of the aforesaid Act. And whereas doubts have arisen whether by the proclamation first above recited the importation of Cattle from the Colony of Tasmania into the Province of Otago was prohibited, and it is expedient to remove these doubts. Now therefore I the said John Hyde Harris, by virtue of the powers delegated to and vested in me in this behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that from and after the date hereof the Colony of Tasmania and all ports and places therein shall be deemed infected districts, ports, or places, within the meaning and for the purposes of the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and that no cattle from and after the date hereof until further notice shall be imported into the Province of Otago from the Colony of Tasmania aforesaid.
