

THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 20TH, 1865.

Postage on Correspondence on Public Service.

General Post Office,
Wellington, 19th January, 1865.

IN consequence of the abolition of the system of franking correspondence on the public service to go free by post, Notice is hereby given that from and after the 1st proximo, Postmasters will be authorized to receive such correspondence without prepayment, and prefer quarterly accounts for the postage against the Department posting the same. It will be requisite that all letters, &c., should bear the designation of the Department transmitting them.

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT,
For the Postmaster-General.

Correspondence for certain Departments to be addressed to Wellington.

Treasury,
Wellington, 19th January, 1865.

ALL Officers of Government and other persons are requested from and after this date when communicating with the undermentioned Departments of Government, to address their correspondence to Wellington.

The Colonial Secretary's Department,
The Attorney General's " "
The Colonial Treasurer's " "
The Commissioner of Customs " "
The Postmaster General's " "
The Native Secretary's " "
The Department of Minister for
Colonial Defence
The Auditor of Public Accounts Department.
WILLIAM FITZHERBERT,
Colonial Treasurer.

