WELLINGTON, MONDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1865.

NOTICE.

One Thousand Pounds Reward.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 2nd October, 1865.

WHEREAS upon the 21st day of September a Native Policeman, named Kereti, was barbarously murdered by a party of Hau Hau fanatics, when he was engaged in carrying the Governor's Proclamation of Peace to the Natives in arms, and after he had been invited by them to bring the Proclamation for their perusal. And whereas it appears by the dying declaration of the deceased that the under-mentioned Natives were amongst those who committed the murder, the Governor has been pleased to direct that a Reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS shall be given for the apprehension and bringing to justice of any one person, and One Hundred Pounds in addition for each of the other persons who took part in the said crime.

The Natives who were identified by Kereti were—HIMIONA TE WHAWATI, of the Ngarauru Tribe, Waitotara, Hare Tipene's Hapu.
RAWIRI, a Taranaki Native connected with the Ngatipourua Hapu, Waitotara.
HAMI TUKIHATA, of the Ngarauru Tribe, Te Iwipirau's Hapu.

By His Excellency's command,
J. C. RICHMOND.
