WELLINGTON, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1865.

Declaration of Indemnity for Colonel Logan.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of New Zealand, made and passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, No. 1, intituled "an Act for indemnifying persons acting in the suppression of the Native insurrection," it is enacted amongst other things that—"All and singular the officers of Her Majesty's forces, and all and every other person and persons whosoever, who shall at any time before the passing of this Act have acted by authority of the Government, or in execution of orders or directions of any officer of Her Majesty's Imperial or Colonial forces, or of any Judge, Magistrate, or other person acting under authority of the Government in or about the quelling of the said insurrection; the resisting, apprehending, detaining, confining, or imprisoning of any person or persons concerned or suspected to be concerned therein; the destroying or damaging of property belonging to any person or persons concerned or suspected to be concerned in the said insurrection; the preserving or restoring of peace or good order in any part of the said Colony; the apprehension, detention, confinement or imprisonment of any dangerous or disloyal person or persons, or of any person or persons believed or suspected to be dangerous or disloyal; or the providing for the safety of Her Majesty's peaceable and loyal subjects, shall be, and they are hereby severally and respectively freed and indemnified of and from all actions, suits, indictments, informations, prosecutions, proceedings, and liabilities whatsoever, which they, or any of them respectively, may have been or may be or become liable or subject to, for or by reason or by means of or in relation to any act, matter, or thing, done by them respectively before the passing of this Act, by such authority or in execution of such orders or directions as aforesaid."

And further, that—"in order to prevent any doubt which may arise whether any act, matter, or thing, alleged to have been so done as aforesaid shall have been done under such authority or in execution of such orders and directions as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Governor to declare any such act, matter, or thing, to have been done under such authority or by such orders and directions as aforesaid."

And whereas an action was lately commenced, and is now pending in the Supreme Court of New Zealand, Middle District, wherein one James Moore, of Wanganui, New Zealand, storekeeper, is plaintiff, and Robert Abraham Logan, a Lieut.-Colonel in Her Majesty's 57th Regiment, is defendant; in which action the plaintiff seeks to recover damages for that, as alleged by the plaintiff in the said action, on or about the fifteenth day of April, 1865, the defendant assaulted the plaintiff and imprisoned him and kept him in prison for a long time, (that is to say—from the said fifteenth day of April to the twenty-fourth day of the said month of April.)

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the said Act do hereby declare that the acts, matters, and things, done, or by the declaration in the said action alleged to have been done by the said Robert Abraham Logan, and thereby complained of, and for which the plaintiff therein seeks to recover damages as aforesaid, were done under such authority or by such orders and directions as in the said Act mentioned.

Given under my hand, at the Government House, at Wellington, this fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.
