WELLINGTON, TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1866.

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Debentures Act, 1864," hereinafter called and referred to as "the said Act," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor of New Zealand to borrow any sum not exceeding on the whole the sum of One million pounds in anticipation of the loan of Three million pounds, authorized to be borrowed under the provisions of "The New Zealand Loan Act, 1863," and to take up the same on Debentures from time to time as he may deem expedient: And it is further enacted by the said Act that every such Debenture shall be in such form and in such sum, and shall be signed and issued by such Agent or Agents as the Governor shall appoint. And whereas by a Warrant under his hand, dated the second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, His Excellency the Governor did appoint Falconer Larkworthy, Robert Porter, and William Smellie Grahame, jointly and each of them severally, to be Agents and Agent in England for raising the sum of Five hundred thousand pounds, part of the said sum of One million pounds, authorized to be raised as aforesaid; and for signing and issuing Debentures under the provisions of the said recited Act. And whereas by a further Warrant under his hand, dated the second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, His Excellency the Governor did appoint David Limond Murdoch, Alexander Kennedy, and Robert Waterston, jointly and each of them severally, to be Agents and Agent in Australia and New Zealand for raising the further sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, part of the said sum of One million pounds authorized to be raised as aforesaid; and for signing and issuing Debentures under the provisions of the said Act. And whereas, by a further Warrant under his hand, dated the sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, His Excellency the Governor did appoint Frederick Aloysius Weld, William Fitzherbert, Henry Sewell, John Larkins Cheese Richardson,

Walter Baldock Durrant Mantell, and Harry Albert Atkinson, jointly and each of them severally, to be Agents and Agent in New Zealand for raising the sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, part of the said sum of One million pounds authorized to be raised as aforesaid; and for signing and issuing Debentures under the provisions of the said Act. And whereas before the passing of the Act intituled "The Debentures Act, 1864, Amendment Act, 1865," hereinafter called and referred to as "the said Amendment Act," there had been raised under the authority of the said last-mentioned Warrant the sum of One hundred and fifty-seven thousand one hundred and five pounds eleven shillings and four pence, and no more: And whereas the sum of Ninety-two thousand eight hundred and ninety-four pounds eight shillings and eight pence, being the balance of the said last mentioned sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, is still unraised. And whereas it is expedient to cancel the appointments and appointment of all and each of the said last-mentioned persons, appointed by the said last-mentioned Warrant as Agents and Agent as aforesaid, and to make other provision for raising the sum of Sixty thousand pounds, part of the said unraised sum of Ninety-two thousand eight hundred and ninety-four pounds eight shillings and eight pence. And whereas before the passing of the said Amendment Act there had been issued under and by virtue of the said first recited Warrant, Debentures to the amount of Five hundred thousand pounds. And whereas Debentures to the amount of One hundred thousand pounds, part of the said last mentioned Debentures amounting to Five hundred thousand pounds, will become due and payable on the thirty-first day of March now next ensuing. And whereas Debentures to the amount of Forty thousand pounds, issued before the passing the said Amendment Act under the authority of the said hereinbefore secondly-recited Warrant, have become due and have been duly paid. And whereas by the said Amendment

Act it is enacted that the principal sum secured by any such Debenture issued after the passing of the Act now in recital, as in the said Act or in the Act now in recital mentioned, shall be payable at a place, and on a day named in such Debenture, not sooner than the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and not later than the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, anything in the said Act notwithstanding. And whereas by the fourth section of the said Amendment Act it is also enacted that after payment of the principal sums and the interest thereon, secured by such Debentures respectively or any of them, and notwithstanding such payment new Debentures may be issued for such sums and in such manner in all respects as is provided by the said Act as to Debentures therein mentioned, and so on from time to time until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and not afterwards, subject to a proviso that the total amount of principal money secured by Debentures under the said Act and the Act now in recital at any one time, should not exceed in the whole the sum of One million pounds sterling, and that the principal be made payable not later than the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight. And whereas by the fifth section of the said Amendment Act it is further enacted that if the holder of any such Debentures, issued before the passing of the Act now in recital, shall be willing before the same be paid to renew the same and accept a Debenture issued under the Act now in recital in lieu of the Debenture then held by him, such new Debenture may be issued for the amount of the Debenture then held by the said holder, subject however to a proviso that such new Debenture shall not be issued for a longer period than that allowed by the Act now in recital. And by the said "Debenture Act, 1864, Amendment Act, 1865," it is further enacted that all the provisions of "The Debenture Act, 1864," shall apply to the Debentures authorized to be issued under the Act now in recital. And whereas that it is expedient that new Debentures should be issued under the said fourth section of the said Amendment Act, for the sum of Forty thousand pounds so paid off as aforesaid, and also for the sum of One hundred thousand pounds, so coming due as aforesaid when the same shall be paid off. And whereas it is intended to appoint an Agent in New Zealand to issue, in New Zealand, new Debentures under the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act, and it is expedient that Agents should be appointed in England to issue, in England, new Debentures under the fifth section of the said Amendment Act:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid, in pursuance and in exercise of all powers and authorities in this behalf enabling me, do hereby revoke, and from the day of the date hereof, annul the appointments and appointment of the said Frederick Aloysius Weld, William Fitzherbert, Henry Sewell, John Larkins Cheese Richardson, Walter Baldock Durrant Mantell, and Harry Albert Atkinson, and each of them as Agents and Agent as aforesaid: And do hereby appoint that there may be borrowed and raised under the authority of the said Act and the said Amendment Act, the sum of Sixty thousand pounds, part of the said unraised sum of Ninety-two thousand eight hundred and ninety-four pounds eight shillings and eight pence. And I do also appoint that under the authority of the said Act and the said Amendment Act, new Debentures may be issued to the amount of Forty thousand pounds under the said fourth section of the said Amendment Act, in the place of the Debentures to the amount of Forty thousand pounds so paid off as aforesaid. And

I do also hereby appoint that after payment of the principal sums and the interest thereon, secured by the said Debentures for the sum of One hundred thousand pounds so becoming due and payable on the thirty-first day of March now next ensuing, there may be issued new Debentures for One hundred thousand pounds under the said fourth section of the said Amendment Act. And I do also appoint that the said sum of Sixty thousand pounds shall be raised by Debentures in the form hereunder written, in sums of not less in amount than Twenty pounds, nor more than One thousand pounds, at the discretion of the Agents or Agent hereinafter mentioned and appointed, and that the same shall bear interest at the rate of eight pounds per centum per annum. And I do also appoint that the new Debentures hereinbefore authorized to be issued to the several amounts of Forty thousand pounds and One hundred thousand pounds under the said fourth section of the said Amendment Act in the place of the Debentures to the amount of Forty thousand pounds and One hundred thousand pounds, paid off or to be paid off as aforesaid respectively, shall be in the form hereunder written, in sums of not less in amount than Twenty pounds nor more than One thousand pounds at the discretion of the Agents or Agent hereinafter mentioned and appointed, and that the same shall bear interest at the rate of Eight pounds per centum per annum. And I do also appoint that PENROSE GOODCHILD JULYAN and WILLIAM CHARLES SARGEAUNT, Crown Agents for the Colonies, of Spring Gardens, in the City of Westminster, in England, jointly and each of them severally shall be the Agents and Agent in England for the purpose of raising the said several sums of Sixty thousand pounds, Forty thousand pounds, and One hundred thousand pounds respectively so authorized to be raised as aforesaid, and for signing and issuing Debentures hereby authorized to be raised. And I do direct that Coupons in the form hereunder may be appended to the Debentures issued under the authority hereby given or not, as the said Penrose Goodchild Julian and William Charles Sargeaunt, or each of them, in their or his discretion shall think fit. And I do direct that the said Penrose Goodchild Julian and William Charles Sargeaunt, shall have all the powers under the said Act and the said Amendment Act in reference to raising the said several sums of Sixty thousand pounds, Forty thousand pounds, and One hundred thousand pounds respectively. And in pursuance and in exercise of all powers and authorities in this behalf enabling me, I do hereby appoint that to any holder of any of the Debentures issued before the passing of the said Amendment Act, under the authority of either of the hereinbefore recited Warrants, who shall be willing to renew the same and accept a Debenture issued under the fifth section of the said Amendment Act, Debentures may be issued under the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act. And I do appoint that every Debenture issued under the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act shall be in the said form hereunder written in sums of not less in amount than Twenty pounds nor more than One thousand pounds at the discretion of the Agents or Agent hereinafter mentioned and that the same shall bear interest at the rate of Eight pounds per centum per annum. And that the said Penrose Goodchild Julian and William Charles Sargeaunt, and each of them, shall until otherwise ordered, be the sole Agents in England to sign and issue the same in England and not elsewhere. And I do direct that Coupons in the form hereunder written, may or may not be appended to the Debentures issued under the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act by virtue of the authority hereby given, as the said Penrose Goodchild Julian and William Charles Sargeant, and each of them, in their or his discretion may think fit. And I do direct that the said Penrose Goodchild Julyan and William Charles Sargeant, and each of them, shall have all the powers under the said Act and the said Amendment Act, or either of the said Acts, in reference to the issuing of Debentures under the said fifth section of the said last-mentioned Act.

Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at Government House, Wellington, this twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Debentures Act, 1864," hereinafter called and referred to as the said Act, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor of New Zealand to borrow any sum not exceeding in the whole the sum of One million pounds in anticipation of the loan of Three million pounds authorized to be borrowed under the provisions of "The New Zealand Loan Act, 1863," and to take up the same on Debentures from time to time as he may deem expedient: And it is further enacted that every such Debenture shall be in such form and in such sum, and shall be signed and issued by such Agent or Agents as the Governor shall appoint. And whereas by a Warrant under his hand, dated the second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, His Excellency the Governor did appoint Falconer Larkworthy, Robert Porter, and William Smellie Grahame, jointly and each of them severally, to be the Agent and Agents in England for raising the sum of Five hundred thousand pounds, part of the said sum of One million pounds to be raised as aforesaid; and for signing and issuing Debentures under the provisions of the said recited Act. And whereas by a further Warrant under his hand, dated the second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, His Excellency the Governor did appoint David Limond Murdoch, Alexander Kennedy, James Williamson, and Robert Waterston, jointly and each of them severally, to be Agents and Agent in Australia and New Zealand for raising the further sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, part of the said sum of One million pounds authorized to be raised as aforesaid; and for signing and issuing Debentures under the provisions of the said recited Act. And whereas by a further Warrant under his hand, dated the sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, His Excellency the Governor did appoint Frederick Aloysius Weld, William Fitzherbert, Henry Sewell, John Larkins Cheese Richardson, Walter Baldock Durrant Mantell, and Harry Albert Atkinson, jointly and each of them severally, to be the Agents and Agent in New Zealand for raising the sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, part of the said sum of One million pounds authorized to be raised as aforesaid; and for signing and issuing Debentures under the provisions of the said recited Act. And whereas there has been raised the sum of One hundred and fifty-seven thousand one hundred and five pounds eleven shillings and four pence out of the said last-mentioned sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds. And whereas the appointments and appointment of all and each of the said last-mentioned persons as such Agents and Agent as aforesaid has been duly cancelled and determined. And whereas by Warrant under his hand, dated twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six,

His Excellency the Governor did appoint Penrose Goodchild Julyan and William Charles Sargeant, Agents for the Colonies, jointly and each of them severally, to be the Agents and Agent in England for raising the sum of Sixty thousand pounds, part of the unraised residue of the said last-mentioned sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds.
And whereas it is expedient that an Agent should be appointed in New Zealand for raising the sum of Thirty-two thousand eight hundred and ninety-four pounds eight shillings and eight pence, being the balance of the said last-mentioned sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds. And whereas before the passing of the Act intituled "The Debentures Act, 1864, Amendment Act, 1865," hereinafter referred to as "the said Amendment Act," Debentures to the amount of Five hundred thousand pounds had been issued under the authority contained in the said hereinbefore recited Warrant; and also Debentures to the amount of Two hundred and twenty-three thousand three hundred and sixty pounds under the authority contained in the herein-before recited second Warrant; and also to the amount of One hundred and fifty-seven thousand one hundred and five pounds eleven shillings and four pence under the authority contained in the hereinbefore third recited Warrant. And whereas by the said Amendment Act it is enacted that the principal sum secured by any such Debenture issued after the passing of the Act now reciting, as in the said Act or the now reciting Act mentioned, shall be payable at a place and on a day named in such Debenture, not sooner than the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and not later than the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, anything in "The Debentures Act, 1864," notwithstanding. And whereas by the said Amendment Act it is also enacted, that after payment of the principal sums, and the interest thereon secured by such last mentioned Debentures respectively, or any of them, and notwithstanding such payment, new Debentures may be issued for such sums and in such manner in all respects as is provided by the said Act as to Debentures therein mentioned; and so on from time to time until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and not afterwards, subject to a proviso that the total amount of principal money secured by Debentures under the said Act and the Act now in recital at any one time should not exceed in the whole the sum of One Million pounds sterling, and that the principal be made payable not later than the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight. And whereas by the said Amendment Act it is further enacted that if the holder of any such Debentures, issued before the passing of the Act now in recital, shall be willing, before the same be paid, to renew the same and accept a Debenture issued under the Act now in recital in lieu of the Debenture now held by him, such new Debenture may be issued for the amount of the Debenture then held by the said holder, subject however to a proviso that such new Debenture shall not be issued for a longer period than that allowed by the Act now in recital. And by the said Amendment Act it is further enacted that all the provisions of the said Act shall apply to the Debentures authorized to be issued under the Act now in recital. And whereas it is expedient that an Agent should be appointed in New Zealand, to issue in New Zealand new Debentures under the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid, in pursuance and in exercise of all powers and authorities in this behalf enabling me, do hereby appoint that there may be borrowed and raised under the authority of the said "Debentures Act, 1864," and "The Debentures Act, 1864, Amendment Act, 1865," the sum of Thirty-two thousand eight hundred and ninety-four pounds eight shillings and eight pence, being the balance of the said unraised residue of the said last-mentioned sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, authorized to be raised by the said hereinbefore thirdly recited Warrant, and that the same shall be raised by Debentures in the form hereunder written, in sums of not less in amount than Twenty pounds nor more than One thousand pounds, at the discretion of the Agent hereinafter mentioned, and that the same shall bear interest at the rate of eight pounds per centum per annum. And that the Hon. EDWARD WILLIAM STAFFORD, one of the Executive Council of the said Colony, shall be the Agent in New Zealand for the purpose of raising the said sum of Thirty-two thousand eight hundred and ninety-four pounds eight shillings and eight pence, the balance of the unraised residue aforesaid of the last mentioned sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds so authorized to be issued. And I do direct that coupons, in the form hereunder, may or may not be appended to the Debentures issued under the authority hereby given, as the said Edward William Stafford in his discretion shall think fit. And I do direct that the said Edward William Stafford shall have all the powers under the said two several Acts, in reference to the raising the said sum of Thirty-two thousand eight hundred and ninety-four pounds eight shillings and eight pence. And in pursuance and in exercise of all powers and authorities in this behalf enabling me, I do hereby appoint that to any holder of any of the Debentures issued before the passing of the said Amendment Act, under the authority of either of the hereinbefore recited Warrants, who shall be willing to renew the same and accept a Debenture under the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act. And I do appoint that all Debentures issued under the said fifth section of "The Debentures Act, 1864, Amendment Act, 1865," shall be in the said form hereunder written in sums of not less in amount than Twenty pounds, nor more than One thousand pounds, at the discretion of the Agent hereinafter mentioned and appointed, and that the same shall bear interest at the rate of Eight pounds per centum per annum. And that the said Edward William Stafford shall until otherwise ordered be the sole Agent in New Zealand to sign and issue the same. And I do direct that Coupons, in the said form hereunder written, may or may not be appended to the Debentures issued under the said fifth section of "The Debentures Act, 1864, Amendment Act, 1865," as the said Edward William Stafford in his discretion may think fit. And I do direct that the said Edward William Stafford shall have all the powers under said Act and the said Amendment Act, or either of them, in reference to the issuing of Debentures under the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act.

I, JOHN B. BENNETT, Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in New Zealand, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full and true copy of a List in which I have entered all NAMES of Officiating Ministers which have been sent in to me, in conformity with the provisions of "The Marriage Act, 1854," for insertion in the List for the year 1866.

Given under my hand, at Auckland, this seventeenth day of January, 1866.

JOHN B. BENNETT,
 Registrar-General.

Notice to Applicants for Crown Grants in exchange for Certificates under "The Native Lands Act, 1865."

General Crown Lands Office, Wellington, 1st November, 1865.

APPPLICANTS for Crown Grants in exchange for Certificates under "The Native Lands Act, 1862," or 1865, are requested to take notice that no Crown Grant will in any such case be issued, unless a distinguishing number shall have been previously affixed to the section or block of land comprised in the Certificate by the Commissioner of Crown or Waste Lands of the Province in which the land is situate. It will be the duty of the applicant for a Crown Grant to ascertain that such number is affixed as aforesaid before applying for a Grant.

ALFRED DOMETT,
Secretary for Crown Lands.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Sunken Rock off the Island of Kawau, Hauraki Gulf.

A SUNKEN Rock, having 9 feet water on it at low spring tides (with 5 to 10 fathoms close to), has been discovered in the passage between the Flat Rock and the Island of Kawau, and about half a mile distant from the shore of the latter, with the following compass bearings:—

South-eastern point or extreme of Kawau	S. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W.
Flat Rock	E. $\frac{1}{4}$ S.
Tiritiri Lighthouse	S. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E.
Takatau Point	N.W. by N.

CHAS. SHARP,
President of Marine Board.

Marine Board Office, Wellington, 9th January, 1866.
