WHEREAS by a Proclamation under my hand and issued under the public seal of the said Province, and bearing date the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, after reciting sections nine and ten of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and reciting the delegation to me, the said Donald McLean, by the Governor of New Zealand, of the several powers vested in the said Governor by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth sections of the said Act, I the said Donald McLean, by virtue of the powers vested in me in that behalf, did proclaim that after the date thereof the several Colonies of Australia, that is to say,—the Colony of Victoria, the Colony of New South Wales, the Colony of Queensland, the Colony of South Australia, and the Colony of Western Australia, as well as the Colony of Tasmania, as well as from all the ports situate in the Colony of New Zealand, and the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Islands of Great Britain and Ireland, should be deemed to be infected districts within the meaning and for the purposes of the above mentioned Act, and that no cattle after the date hereof until further notice, should be imported into the Province of Hawke's Bay from such districts: Provided, however, that the Superintendent of the said Province might allow any cattle to be landed from vessels from the Islands of Great Britain and Ireland, subject to such conditions and restrictions as he might deem expedient, and the circumstances of any cases might require. And whereas by a further Proclamation under my hand and issued under the public seal of the said Province, I did annul and make void the said Proclamation so far as the same declared the Port of Wellington to be an infected district within the meaning of the said Act, and did thereby declare that it should be lawful to import cattle from the said Province of Wellington into the said Province of Hawke's Bay: And whereas it is expedient to rescind and annul both the said Proclamations before recited: Now therefore I, the said Donald McLean, Superintendent as aforesaid, do hereby rescind and annul the said Proclamation before recited, dated the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and also the said Proclamation dated the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and hereby declare that this present Proclamation shall take effect from the fourteenth day of May now next ensuing.

Given under my hand and issued under the public seal of the Province of Hawke's Bay, at Napier, this seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.
