WELLINGTON, SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1866.

Governor's Order, No. 73.

G. GREY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
 GREETING:

WHEREAS by a Governor's Order, dated the seventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the Port of Molyneux, in the Province of Otago, was declared to be no longer a Port for the purposes of "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858:" And whereas it has become expedient to annul the said Order, and to reappoint the Port of Molyneux to be a Port for the purposes of the above-mentioned Act: Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the power in me for this purpose vested by "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," do hereby appoint, that on and from the date hereof, there shall be within the Province of Otago, a Port to be called the limits whereof shall be as follows,—extending from the mouth of the Puerua River, along the Clutha River and the ocean beach as far as the boundary between sections 6 and 7 of block VII, South Molyneux, and including the spaces reserved for the Township of Molyneux.

The Port of MOLYNEUX,

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, this fifteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. GREY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Arms Act, 1860," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by warrant under his hand, from time to time, to appoint persons to make and issue licenses in the forms and to the effect respectively set forth in the Schedule to the said Act, which persons are in the said Act designated and referred to as Licensing Officers:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the said powers and authority, do hereby appoint an Officer of Customs in the Colony of New Zealand, to be a Licensing Officer under the said Act.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House at Wellington, this twenty-first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. GREY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
 GREETING:

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Arms Act, 1860," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by warrant under his hand, from time to time, to appoint persons to make and issue licenses in the forms and to the effect respectively set forth in the Schedule to the said Act, which persons are in the said Act designated and referred to as Licensing Officers:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority, do hereby appoint

WILLIAM MILLS, Esq.,

Collector of Customs at the Port of Lyttelton, to be a Licensing Officer under the said Act.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. GREY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
GREETING:

WHEREAS by "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by warrant under his hand, from time to time, to appoint polling places for each electoral district within or without the limits thereof, and to appoint any one of such places to be the principal polling place for the district, and all or any of such polling places at any time to abolish, and to appoint other polling places in lieu thereof.

And whereas by warrant under the hand of the Governor, bearing date the sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three,

Messrs. Frame and Richardson's House, Mohaka, was appointed a principal polling place for the District of Mohaka, for the election of Members of the Provincial Council of the Province of Hawke's Bay:

And whereas it is expedient to abolish the same:

Now know ye, that I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby abolish the above-named principal polling place for the District of Mohaka, for the election of Members of the Provincial Council of the Province of Hawke's Bay, and do appoint in lieu thereof—

Messrs. PIERCE'S WOOLSHED, Mohaka.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, this nineteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.
