WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 1866.

G. GREY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION

Disallowing a certain Nelson Act.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Imperial Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is amongst other things enacted that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent, as in the said Act provided, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him, to declare by Proclamation his disallowance of such Bill, and that any such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such Proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein:

And whereas the Act hereinafter specified has been enacted by the Superintendent of Nelson, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, and the said Act was received by the Governor on the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be disallowed:

Now therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the following Act passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Nelson, viz.:

"An Act to provide for the construction and maintenance of Roads and other Public Works in certain districts, Sess. XIV., No. 4."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the seal of the said Colony this twenty-first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

G. GREY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Resident Magistrates' Criminal Jurisdiction Extension and Amendment Act, 1865," it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, at any time to suspend the operation of the second and third sections of "The Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," with respect to any Resident Magistrate's Court, provided always that such suspension shall not be held to prevent the issuing of warrants of distress or commitment, or otherwise enforcing due satisfaction of any judgment obtained in such Resident Magistrate's Court previous to such suspension. And whereas by a Proclamation bearing date the twenty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, the first day of February then next ensuing was determined and declared to be the day on and from which the provisions of the said "Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," and especially the powers conferred by sections two and three thereof, should be exercised to the limit of jurisdiction of one hundred pounds in the Resident Magistrate's Court at Wanganui, in the Province of Wellington: And whereas it is expedient to suspend the operation of the said second and third sections of the said Act with respect to the Resident Magistrate's Court at Wanganui:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority so vested in me as aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare that the operation of the said second and third sections of

"The Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," shall be suspended with respect to the said Resident Magistrate's Court at Wanganui from and after the fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, now next ensuing.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twenty-fourth day of August, 1866.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and by "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Governor by Order in Council to declare that, if at any time it shall be made to appear to the Governor that any infectious or contagious disease has broken out in any district out of the Colony, such district is infected within the meaning of the said Acts, and from time to time to make such Regulations as to him shall seem fit for prohibiting the importation of cattle into the Colony from such district, and the landing and driving of such cattle, and for destroying cattle imported landed or driven contrary to such Regulations:

And whereas the State of Panama is a district in which it has been made appear to the Governor that an infectious and contagious disease has broken out:

Now therefore His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power and authority, doth hereby declare that Panama is an infected district within the meaning of the Acts, and doth make the following Regulations:

Regulations.

No cattle shall be imported into or landed or driven in New Zealand, which shall have come from Panama.

Any person guilty of any breach of this Regulation shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred pounds for every head of cattle so imported landed or driven.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twenty-fourth day of August, 1866.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly, intituled "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," it is amongst other things enacted that if any goods enumerated or described in the Table of Prohibitions contained in the 32nd section of the said Act, shall be imported or brought into New Zealand, then, and in every such case, such goods shall be forfeited and shall be destroyed or disposed of as the Commissioner of Customs may direct.

And whereas in the said Table of Prohibition of Goods absolutely prohibited to be imported are included infected cattle, sheep, or other animals, and hides, skins, horns, hoofs, or any other part of cattle or other animals, which the Governor in Council may prohibit in order to prevent any infectious or contagious distemper or disease:

Now therefore His Excellency the Governor by and with the advice of the Executive Council, doth in pursuance of the hereinbefore recited provisions of the said Act, by this present Order, absolutely prohibit the importation from the State of Panama into New Zealand of any cattle, sheep, goats, horses, pigs, or poultry, and of hides, skins, horns, hoofs, and all other parts of such animals, in order to prevent the infectious or contagious distemper or disease, now prevalent in Panama among animals of the several kinds aforesaid, from spreading in New Zealand.
