WELLINGTON, MONDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1866.

G. GREY, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Registration Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time, by proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand, for the purposes of the said Act, into such and so many districts as he may think fit, and that every such district shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar's District; and it is provided that the Governor may at any time revoke the whole or any part of such proclamation, and issue a new proclamation dividing the Colony, or any part of it, anew into districts, or increasing the number or altering the boundaries of districts, as from time to time he may think requisite.

And whereas by a proclamation duly made and issued, bearing date the sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Governor, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, did, amongst others, constitute two districts for the purposes of the said Act, called the "Wellington District," and the "Wanganui District," the boundaries whereof were therein set forth, which said proclamation came into operation and took effect on the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

And whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said proclamation as relates to the said districts, and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such districts.

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said proclamation so far as relates to the "Wellington District" and the "Wanganui District," and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such districts shall be and is hereby divided for the purposes of the said Act into four districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows:—

WELLINGTON DISTRICT.

Bounded on the North by the River Waikanae from Cook Strait to the Tararua Range; on the South by Cook Strait; on the East by the Rimutaki and Tararua Mountains; on the West by Cook Strait.

WANGANUI DISTRICT.

Bounded on the North by the northern boundary of the Province from Cook Strait to the Ruahine Mountains; on the South by the Wangaehue River, to a point in continuation of the northern boundary of the Rangitikei (Land) District; thence along that boundary to the Rangitikei River; and thence by a line due East to the Ruahine Range; on the East by the Ruahine Mountains; on the West by Cook Strait.

RANGITIKEI DISTRICT.

Commencing at the mouth of the Rangitikei River, and following its course to the boundary of the Rangitikei District; thence along the Northern boundary of the Rangitikei District, and by a continuation of the line to the Wangaehu River; thence by the Wangachu River to the sea; and thence along the sea coast to the mouth of the Rangitikei River.

MANAWATU DISTRICT.

Commencing at the mouth of the Rangitikei River, to the boundary of the Rangitikei District; thence by a line due East to the Ruahine Range; and thence along the Ruahine and Tararua Ranges to the Waikanae River; thence along the Waikanae River to the sea coast; and along the sea coast to the mouth of the Rangitikei River.

And I hereby declare that this proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-seventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time, by proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand, for the purposes of the said Act, into such and so many districts as he may think fit, and that every such district shall be called by a distinct name and shall be a Registrar's District; and it is provided that the Governor may at any time revoke the whole or any part of such proclamation, and issue a new proclamation dividing the Colony or any part of it anew into districts, or increasing the number or altering the boundaries of districts, as from time to time he may think requisite.

And whereas by a proclamation duly made and issued, bearing date the sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Governor in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, did, amongst others, constitute two districts for the purposes of the said Act, called the "Wellington District," and the "Wanganui District," the boundaries whereof were therein set forth, which said proclamation came into operation and took effect on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

And whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said proclamation as relates to the said districts, and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such districts:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said proclamation so far as relates to the "Wellington District," and the "Wanganui District," and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such districts shall be and is hereby divided for the purposes of the said Act into four districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows:—

WELLINGTON DISTRICT.

Bounded on the North by the River Waikanae, from Cook Strait to the Tararua Range; on the South by Cook Strait; on the East by the Rimutaki and Tararua Mountains; on the West by Cook Strait.

WANGANUI DISTRICT.

Bounded on the North by the northern boundary of the Province from Cook Strait to the Ruahine Mountains; on the South by the Wangaehu River to a point in continuation of the northern boundary of the Rangitikei (Land) District; thence along that boundary to the Rangitikei River; and thence by a line due East to the Ruahine Range; on the East by the Ruahine Mountains; on the West by Cook Strait.

RANGITIKEI DISTRICT.

Commencing at the mouth of the Rangitikei River, and following its course to the boundary of the Rangitikei District; thence along the northern boundary of the Rangitikei District; and by a continuation of the line to the Wangaehu River; thence by the Wangaehu River to the sea; and thence along the sea coast to the mouth of the Rangitikei River.

MANAWATU DISTRICT.

Commencing at the mouth of the Rangitikei River to the boundary of the Rangitikei District; thence by a line due East to the Ruahine Range; and thence along the Ruahine and Tararua Ranges to the Waikanae River; thence along the Waikanae River to the sea coast; and along the sea coast to the mouth of the Rangitikei River.

And I hereby declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-seventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Otago Loan Ordinance, 1861," passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, provision was made for raising a loan of fifty thousand pounds for the public service of the said Province and for liquidation of the public debt.

And whereas by "The Otago Loan Ordinance, 1861-2," provision was made for the appointment by the Governor, of trustees for receiving such sums as by the said Ordinance are required to be paid to them.

And whereas by the said last mentioned Ordinance it is further provided that every sum so paid should be invested on the security of debentures issued by the General Government, or otherwise, as His Excellency the Governor and Superintendent should direct.

And whereas by "The Otago Loan Ordinance, 1862," provision was made for raising a loan of five hundred thousand pounds for the public service of the Province of Otago, and for providing a sinking fund for the liquidation thereof.

And whereas by the said Ordinance it was further provided that every sum so paid should be invested in the security of debentures issued by the General Government, or otherwise, as His Excellency the Governor and the Superintendent should direct.

And whereas Alfred Rowland Chetham Strode, of Dunedin, and John Jones, of Waikouati, have been duly appointed trustees under and by virtue of the powers in the said respective Ordinances in that behalf contained.

And whereas the said trustees have received, and now hold, for the purposes of the said sinking funds, by the said respective Ordinances provided for certain sums as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say— for the purposes of "The Otago Loan Ordinance, 1861," and "The Otago Loan Ordinance, 1861-2," the sum of seven thousand and twenty-three pounds and ten shillings.

And whereas it is expedient that the said sum of seven thousand and twenty-three pounds and ten shillings, and other sum or sums that may now or hereafter be so held by the said trustees should be invested on the security of debentures issued by the Government of the Province of Otago, pursuant to request from His Honor the Superintendent of the said Province of Otago:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise of the power vested in him by the said recited Ordinances, doth hereby order and direct that the said sum of seven thousand and twenty-three pounds and ten shillings, and any other sum which may now or hereafter be so held by the said trustees, shall be invested on the security of debentures issued by the Government of the said Province of Otago.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT.

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Native Lands Act, 1865," it is enacted that "Juries for the trial of matters under this Act shall be formed in accordance with regulations to be issued by the Governor:"

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said Act do hereby issue the following Regulation for the formation of juries for the trial of matters under "The Native Lands Act, 1865."

Juries for the trial of matters under "The Native Lands Act, 1865," shall be formed as follows:—The Judge shall, from the bystanders or from persons residing within ten (10) miles of the place at which the Court shall sit or shall be sitting, from a list of eighteen (18) men, from which twelve (12) persons shall be selected by lot, and the persons so selected, or so many of them as may attend and be willing to serve shall be impanelled as a jury to try the matter. Provided that if less than twelve (12) out of the persons so selected shall attend and be willing to serve, or if any juror shall absent himself and the number of the jury be thereby or by challenge or otherwise reduced to less than twelve (12), the Judge shall complete the number of twelve (12) jurymen from the bystanders: Provided also that by consent of the parties a jury of any greater or less number than twelve (12) not being less than four (4) (to be selected as aforesaid) may be impanelled for the trial of any matter under the said Act.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, this eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

J. C. RICHMOND.

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, under his hand and the public Seal of the Colony, from time to time, to delegate to the Superintendent of any Province, or such other person as the Governor may deem fit, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor, or the Governor in Council, by the Act now in recital, except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven, of the said Act, subject or not to any limitations or restrictions as he may think fit, and in like manner to alter or revoke any such powers:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in the exercise of the power and authority for this purpose in me vested, do hereby delegate unto as Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, all the powers vested in me, under or by virtue of the said "Gold Fields Act, 1866," except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven, to have, hold, and exercise, within the Province of Auckland, the said powers hereby given to the said Frederick Whitaker, Esq., so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer: Provided always that copies of all Rules and Regulations made under the delegation aforesaid shall be forthwith transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, in order that the same may be laid before the General Assembly, in accordance with the provisions of the one hundred and tenth clause of "The Gold Fields Act, 1866."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the seal of the said Colony this twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

E. W. STAFFORD.

Approved in Council:

FORSTER GORING,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

NOTE.—Similar delegations issued to the Superintendents of Taranaki, Hawke's Bay, Wellington, Nelson, Marlborough, Canterbury, Otago, and Southland.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this sixth day of October, 1866.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS at a sitting of the Native Lands Court of New Zealand, held at Onoke, in Hokianga, in the Province of Auckland, on the third day of July, 1866, the claim of Tamati Waka Nene, Eruera Patuone, and others, to a piece of land called Waitaroto, situated near the Bay of Islands in the Province aforesaid, was heard and a certain order was thereupon made by the Court aforesaid. And whereas it is enacted by "The Native Lands Act, 1865," that the Governor in Council may order a rehearing of any matter judicially heard before the Court aforesaid before one or more Judges of the Court and two or more Assessors, as may be specified in the Order in Council ordering such rehearing, and within such a period of time as may be limited in such order: Provided that no such order for a rehearing shall be made after six months shall have elapsed from the date of the original decision. And whereas it is expedient that the said claim shall be reheard before the said Court:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, in pursuance and execution of the above recited power and authority, doth hereby order that the aforesaid claim of Tamati Waka Nene, Eruera Patuone, and others, to the aforesaid piece of land, shall be reheard before Frederick Edward Maning, Esquire, a Judge of the said Court, and before the undermentioned Assessors or any two of them, that is to say,—

Hoir Karaka,

Wiremu Hopihana,

Wiremu Tana Papahia,
Tio,
Penetana Papahuria,
and doth order that such rehearing shall take place before the thirtieth day of January next.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the sixth day of October, 1866.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Native Reserves Amendment Act, 1862," it is amongst other things provided, that where under the provisions of "The Native Reserves Act, 1856," the assent of the aboriginal inhabitants is required to bringing land under the operation of the said "Native Reserves Act, 1856," the Governor may, by Order in Council, declare such assent to have been ascertained, and thereupon the title of the aboriginal inhabitants in the land to which the same shall relate shall be deemed to be extinguished, and the land shall, from the date of such Order in Council, vest in Her Majesty for the purposes and subject to the provisions of the said "Native Reserves Act, 1856," as altered by the recited Act, and that as effectually as if the same had been ceded and conveyed by such aboriginal inhabitants to Her Majesty:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby declare that the assent of the aboriginal inhabitants to the bringing the piece of land described in the Schedule hereunder written under the operation of "The Native Reserves Act, 1856," has been ascertained.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

SCHEDULE.

All that piece of land situate at Porirua, District of Wellington, bounded on the North-east by the "Hanganga Kaipuke" (a small stream), a short distance South of "Te one potu," and by a line from the head of that stream to the southern boundary of the College land; towards the south-east by Porirua
Harbour to the northern boundary of Cooper's Grant; towards the South by Cooper's Grant; towards the West by other portion of the Porirua Native Reserve; and towards the North by the southern boundary of the College land.

"The New Zealand Native Reserves Act, 1856."

I, GEORGE F. SWAINSON, a person duly appointed in this behalf, under the provisions of "The New Zealand Native Reserves Act, 1856," hereby certify and report that I have ascertained that the aboriginal inhabitants entitled to the piece or parcel of land described in the Schedule hereunder written, have assented that the said piece or parcel of land shall be subject to the provisions of the said Act.

As witness my hand this fifth day of March, 1866.

GEORGE F. SWAINSON.

Schedule above referred to.

All that piece of land situate at Porirua, District of Wellington, bounded on the North-east by the "Hanganga Kaipuke" (a small stream), a short distance South of "Te one potu," and by a line from the head of that stream to the southern boundary of the College land; towards the South-east by Porirua
Harbour to the northern boundary of Cooper's Grant; towards the South by Cooper's Grant; towards the West by other portion of the Porirua

Native Reserve; and towards the North by the southern boundary of the College land.

Report adopted this sixth day of October, 1866, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this sixth day of October, 1866.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Electric Telegraph Act, 1865," the Governor of New Zealand is empowered to establish lines of electric telegraph, and to purchase any lines of electric telegraph then existing. And whereas by the said Act it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Order in Council, to make regulations for the transmission and delivery of all despatches, messages and communications by means of any such line and in like manner to fix and determine the fees, rates, or dues to be demanded and received for the transmission of any such despatch, message, or communication, and for the delivery thereof respectively, and the modes and times of payment; and to regulate the conduct, management, working and maintenance of any such telegraph line, and any such fees, rates, dues or regulations from time to time to increase or lower, repeal, alter, or vary respectively, and direct and make such others as may be deemed expedient; and such fees, rates, and dues may be legally recovered; and such regulations shall have the force of law when published in the Government Gazette of the Colony.

And whereas by an Order in Council duly made and issued, bearing date the first day of April, 1866, the Governor in Council did, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, fix and determine the fees, rates, or dues to be demanded or received for the transmission of any such despatches, messages, or communications by means of any line of telegraph which has been or hereafter shall be established or purchased under the powers conferred by the said Act: And whereas it is expedient to revoke the Schedules of "Tariff of Charges for the transmission of Telegrams" attached to "Regulations and Conditions under which Telegrams are authorized to be transmitted on the Lines of Electric Telegraph belonging to the General Government of New Zealand," and to substitute other charges in lieu thereof:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise of the powers vested in him by the herein-before recited Act, doth, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, revoke the said Schedules of "Tariff of Charges," and doth substitute the following Tariff of Charges for the Transmission of Telegrams in lieu thereof, and doth declare that such revocation and substitution shall take effect from and after the first day of November,
One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twelfth day of October, 1866.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Coupons Act, 1864," it is provided that the powers created by that Act shall not be exercised until the Governor in Council shall have approved of the stamps to be used for the purpose of the said Act, nor until regulations as to the manner in which the same may be used shall have been issued by the Governor in Council, or except in conformity with such regulations:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor in Council, in exercise of the power vested in him by the said recited Act, doth hereby approve of certain stamps, the description of which is hereunto annexed, and are deposited in the office of the Colonial Secretary, to be used for the purposes of the said Act by the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, and doth hereby issue the following regulations in conformity with which such stamps are to be so used.

Regulations.

There shall be only one copy of such stamps for stamping coupons under "The Coupons Act, 1864," in the Province of Wellington, which stamps shall be kept in the custody of the Provincial Treasurer of the Province of Wellington in a strong box having two distinct locks and two keys, one thereof to be in the keeping of the Colonial Treasurer or of the Colonial Sub-Treasurer at Wellington, and the other in the keeping of the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington. The stamps shall only be delivered out to the Superintendent upon his requisition in writing, for the purpose of stamping a certain number of coupons mentioned in such requisition, and shall be returned by the Superintendent to the above custody immediately after having been so used. No debentures or coupons shall be stamped with such stamps, nor shall they be in any way used except in the presence of the Superintendent or the Provincial Secretary or some person or persons to be appointed in writing for that purpose by the Superintendent.

Such appointed person shall keep an account of the number of debentures and coupons stamped, and shall not suffer the stamps to be used after the number or amount of debentures from time to time authorized by law shall have been stamped, nor otherwise than for the purpose of stamping such coupons.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Description of Stamps referred to in above Order in Council, viz.:—

The impressions of the signatures of
I. E. FEATHERSTON, Superintendent;
W. HICKSON, Provincial Treasurer.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 28th September, 1866.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint the following gentlemen to be Registrars of Marriages, and of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, for the districts, in the Province of Wellington, set opposite their names respectively as defined in proclamation published in this Gazette:—

JOHN BATTEN SMITH, Esq.	...	Manawatu.
JAMES FREEMAN FLETCHER, Esq.	...	Rangitikei.
JOHN ELISHA SMITH, Esq.	...	Wellington.
DAVID STARK DURIE, Esq.	...	Wanganui.

These appointments to take effect on and from the first day of November, 1866.

E. W. STAFFORD.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 12th October, 1866.

THE following notification issued by the Government of St. Helena is published for general information.

E. W. STAFFORD.

Government Notification.

INFORMATION having reached this Government that erroneous impressions exist in several ports in India, China, and elsewhere, to the effect that charges on Shipping calling at St. Helena have been increased: Notice is hereby given that there is no foundation for such reports, and that all port charges at St. Helena have been abolished, save and except the penny per ton heretofore charged for the gratuitous medical treatment and maintenance of sick seamen (British or Foreign) left behind at the Colonial Hospital.

Notice is further given, that a monthly mail is made up at the General Post Office in London direct for St. Helena, usually performing the passage in twenty-two days. Return mails from St. Helena to England by steam, are likewise made up in every month; and once a month to the Cape of Good Hope and all ports eastward thereof.

Owners, consignees, masters of vessels, and others interested are informed that every facility will be afforded at the Post Office at St. Helena for the due care and transmission of their letters.

By command,

R. C. PENNELL, Colonial Secretary.
St. Helena, 18th April, 1866.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
(Judicial Branch.)
Wellington, 9th October, 1866.

THE following Certificates and Declarations are published in conformity with the provisions of "The Execution of Criminals Act, 1858."

THE following Rules and Regulations for the Wynyard Pier, Auckland, approved of by the Governor in Council, are published for general information.

JOHN HALL.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE WYNYARD PIER.

1st. No lighter, cargo boat, trading or other vessel, and no raft baulk timber, or other bulky article, is allowed to lie or ground alongside the Wynyard Pier, or to be in any way made fast to the same.

2nd. No cargo, timber, or goods whatsoever (personal luggage excepted) shall be landed or shipped from the Wynyard Pier.

3rd. No boat shall be made fast in such a manner as to obstruct or impede access to the steps; and in case any person causing such obstruction or impediment will not remove or cause to be removed the same, when ordered by the Harbour Master, pilot, or officer appointed for the purpose by the Superintendent, the Harbour Master, pilot, or officer appointed may removed such obstruction.

4th. None but licensed watermen's boats are allowed to be moored to the pier during the night, and all others must be hauled off to their own moorings, leaving the steps clear.

5th. Washing of clothes or other articles on the pier is prohibited.

6th. Fishing from or off the steps of the pier is prohibited.

Bye-law made by His Honor the Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, by virtue of Clause 38 of "The Marine Board Act, 1863."

Any person offending against any of the Rules and Regulations for the Wynyard Pier, made and published by His Honor the Superintendent of Auckland, bearing date the fifth day of June, shall be liable to the following penalties, recoverable in a summary way, viz. :-

For every breach of the first, second, third, and fourth Regulation, any sum not exceeding ten pounds; of the fifth or sixth Regulation, any sum not exceeding two pounds.

I, Frederick Whitaker, Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, by virtue of all the powers in any wise enabling me in this behalf, do hereby make and publish the foregoing Rules and Regulations.

Given under my hand this first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

FREDERICK WHITAKER,

THE following Bye-law and Regulation for the Port of Dunedin, approved of by the Governor in Council, is published for general information.

JOHN HALL.

BYE-LAW and Regulation made and published by His Honor Thomas Dick, Esq., Superintendent of the Province of Otago, in the Colony of New Zealand, and by the Marine Board of New Zealand for the Port of Dunedin, under the powers in that behalf conferred on them by "The Marine Board Act 1863," repealing bye-law No. 20 of the Bye-laws and Regulations for the Port of Dunedin, made and published in the New Zealand Gazette of 8th June last, and substituting a new bye-law in lieu thereof.

20. Licensed Boatmen shall be entitled to demand one shilling for the first quarter of a mile and sixpence for every additional quarter (irrespective of the number of passengers) according to the distance they may be required to go from or to any jetty or landing place in the Harbour of Otago, and any jetty place or anchorage within said Harbour.

I, Thomas Dick, Superintendent of the Province of Otago, by virtue of all powers in anywise enabling me in this behalf, do hereby repeal Clause 20 of the Bye-laws and Regulations for the Port of Dunedin, made and published in the New Zealand Gazette, of eighth day of June last, and do hereby make and publish in lieu thereof the foregoing Bye-law and Regulation for the Port of Dunedin.

Given under my hand this seventh day of September, 1866.

THOMAS DICK,
 Superintendent of Otago.

The Marine Board of New Zealand in virtue of all the powers in anywise the Board in this behalf enabling doth hereby also make and publish the foregoing Bye-law and Regulation.

CHAS. SHARP,
 President of the Marine Board.

In the Supreme Court of New Zealand: Otago and Southland District.

In the matter of the petition of Wolf Harris, of Dunedin, in the Province of Otago, merchant, trading there under the style or firm of "Bing, Harris and Co.," a creditor of William Perkins, of the same place, draper, to the extent of not less than fifty pounds; and in the matter of "The Debtors and Creditors Act, 1862," and "The Debtors and Creditors Act Amendment Act 1865."

THE matter of the above petition coming on this day for the second hearing thereof: Upon reading the order for sequestration of the bankrupt's estate made herein and bearing date the seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and upon hearing Mr. Harris, of counsel for the said petitioner, and Mr. Haggitt, of counsel for the said bankrupt, it is ordered that Edward Bowes Cargill, and Thomas Sherlock Graham, both of Dunedin, aforesaid, merchants, be, and they are hereby appointed trustees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and it is declared that this order shall be a vesting order; and it is further ordered that all the real and personal estate of the bankrupt, which shall vest in the said Edward Bowes Cargill, and Thomas Sherlock Graham, by virtue of their said appointment, shall be held by them, their heirs, executors, and administrators respectively (except the wearing apparel of the bankrupt, his wife, and children, which shall be retained by them,) upon and for the following trusts and purposes, namely:—

1. To sell, collect, and get in such real and personal estate, and receive the moneys to arise therefrom, and execute all necessary conveyances and assurances thereof.

2. To retain and pay all expenses properly incurred of, and attending such sale, collection, and getting in.

3. To pay the poundage and fees payable under the above-mentioned Acts.

4. To pay the costs properly incurred of and incidental to the petition in these matters, and subsequently thereto, such costs to be first taxed, and also all costs and expenses in these matters which have been, or which shall be ordered by this Court, or by any Judge thereof, to be paid out of the estate of the bankrupt.

5. To distribute the net residue of the said trust moneys between and amongst and for the benefit of all the creditors of the bankrupt, who were his creditors at the time of the presentation of this petition, and who shall duly prove their debts by affidavit filed in the office of the Registrar of this Honorable Court, within three calendar months from the date of this order, by way of pro rata distribution, subject to existing legal priorities, but so that the said creditors shall not receive more than twenty shillings in the pound upon their said respective debts.

6. To pay the ultimate surplus (if any) of the said trust moneys to the bankrupt.

And it is further ordered that the matters of the said petition be further adjourned until the fifth day of November next.

Dated this tenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

By the Court,

ROBERT CHAPMAN,

Registrar.
