Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1866.

G. GREY, Governor. A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Land Registry Act, 1860," W it is enacted that the Governor shall from time to time as he shall think fit, by proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, constitute throughout the Colony of New Zealand, or in any part thereof, Registrar's Districts for the purposes of that Act, and such districts abolish, and the boundaries of any district define and alter, and also declare by what local name each such district shall be designated: And whereas by a proclamation dated the twentysecond day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three a certain district was defined and con-stituted and was called "the District of Auckland:" And whereas it is expedient to alter the boundaries of the said district, with a view to include therein the additional limits hereinafter described :

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on me by the said recited Act, do hereby alter the boundaries of the said District of Auckland for the purposes of the said Act, and do hereby define the same to be as follows, namely:—that portion of the said Colony of New Zealand known as the Province of Auckland, bounded on the Northeast and West by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto, and on the South by the River Mokau to its source; thence by a right line running from the source of the Mokau to the point where the Ngahunga or Tuhua, the principal tributary of the Wanganui River, is intersected by the thirty-ninth parallel of south latitude; thence Eastward by the thirty-ninth parallel of south latitude to the point where that parallel of latitude cuts the East Coast of the Northern Island of New Zealand. And I hereby declare that the district above defined shall be designated "The District of Auckland." And I hereby further declare that this proclamation shall take effect on and after the first day of January, one the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixtysix.

J. C. RICHMOND, (for the Colonial Secretary.) GOD SAVE THE QUEEN !

G. GREY, Governor. ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twenty-eighth day of November, 1866.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL. THEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Native Reserves Amendment Act, 1862," it is amongst other things provided that where under the provisions of "The Native Reserves Act, 1856," the assent of the "The Native Reserves Act, 1856," the assent of the Aboriginal inhabitants is required to bringing land under the operation of the said "Native Reserves Act, 1856," the Governor may, by Order in Council, declare such assent to have been ascertained, and thereupon the title of the Aboriginal inhabitants in the land to which the same shall relate, shall be deemed to be extinguished, and the land shall from the date of such Order in Council vest in Her Majesty, for the purposes and subject to the provi-sions of the said "Native Reserves Act, 1856," as attested by the recited Act, and that as effectually as if the same had been ceded and conveyed by such Aboriginal inhabitants to Her Majesty:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven. Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of land described in the Schedule hereunder written under the operation of "The Native Reserves Act, 1856," has been ascertained.

FORSTER GORING, Clerk of the Executive Council.

SCHEDULE.

All that piece of land situate at Porirua, District of Wellington, bounded on the East by the Hanganga Kaipuke (a small stream), a short distance South of Te Onepoto, on the West by a line starting from a point on Cooper's boundary, till it intersects the boundary of the College land, on the South by the boundary of Cooper's Grant to the Porirua Harbour, and by the Harbour to the starting point.

FORM No. 1. "The New Zealand Native Reserves Act, 1856." I, George F. Swainson, a person duly appointed in this behalf under the provisions of "The New Zealand Native Reserves Act, 1856," hereby certify and report that I have ascertained that the Aboriginal inhabitants entitled to the piece or parcel of land described in the Schedule hereunder written have assented that the said piece or parcel of land shall be subject to the provisions of the said Act.

As witness my hand this fifth day of March, 1866. GEORGE F. SWAINSON.

Schedule above referred to.

All that piece of land situate at Porirua, District of Wellington, bounded on the East by the Hanganga Kaipuke (a small stream), a short distance South of Te Onopoto and by a line from the head of that stream to the southern boundary of the College land, towards the South-east by Porirua Harbour to the northern boundary of Cooper's Grant, towards the South by Cooper's Grant, towards the West by other portions of the Porirua Native Reserve, and towards the North by the southern boundary of the College Land.

Report adopted this sixth day of October, 1866, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony.

General Post Office,

Wellington, 26th November, 1866. THE following Bye-Laws (Regulations for Licensed Watermen and Boats) for the Bluff Harbour, approved of by the Governor in Council, are published for general information.

E. W. STAFFORD, (In the absence of Mr. Hall.)

BYE-LAWS, BLUFF HARBOUR.

Regulations for Licensed Watermen and Boats.

1. If any person shall ply for hire in Bluff Harbour with any boat in the conveyance of passengers, unless both he and the boat which he shall use for that purpose shall be thereto duly licensed in manner hereinafter directed, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

2. Before any license shall be granted to any person he shall prove to the satisfaction of the Harbour Master that he thoroughly understands the management of a boat, and the Harbour Master shall thereupon give him a certificate to that effect, upon the presentation of which, and the payment of a fee of ten shillings to the Provincial Treasurer, he shall be entitled to receive a Waterman's License in the form hereto annexed, and he shall thereafter be called a licensed waterman.

3. Every such license shall remain in force as long as it shall not be suspended or cancelled in manner hereinafter provided.

4. Every licensed waterman, when employed either on the Jetty or in the Harbour, shall be subject to the control of the Harbour Master, and if any such licensed waterman shall fail or neglect to obey any order or instructions given to him by the Harbour Master, in the discharge of his duty as Harbour Master, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

5. The Harbour Master shall inspect every boat for which a Waterman's Boat License shall be desired and its appurtenances, and he shall give to the owner thereof a certificate in writing, in which shall be stated the name of the boat, the length, breadth, depth, cubic capacity, the name of the owner, and the number of persons which such boat shall be licensed to carry in ordinary weather, and also as hereinafter provided when the black ball shall be hoisted at the masthead and half-mast high.

6. To assist the Harbour Master to ascertain the number of persons which any boat may safely carry, he shall, in addition to measuring the cubic contents, be authorized to require the person applying for a license in his presence to lade it to its bearings, and to ascertain the absolute weight of such lading. 7. Upon presentation of the certificates hereinbefore

7. Upon presentation of the certificates hereinbefore mentioned and upon the payment of one pound to the Provincial Treasurer he shall issue to the person named therein, and for the boat named in the boat certificate, a license in the form hereto annexed. 8. But no boat shall be licensed under these

8. But no boat shall be licensed under these Regulations unless it shall, by admeasurement inside, be at least four feet six inches in the beam and twenty inches deep, nor unless it shall contain eighty cubic feet of space, nor unless also it shall be in sound condition, properly found, and, in the opinion of the Harbour Master, suitably constructed for the safe conveyance of passengers.
9. No boat shall be licensed under these Regu-

9. No boat shall be licensed under these Regulations which shall not be owned by a licensed waterman, and the license of any licensed boat which shall cease to be owned by the licensed waterman to whom the license shall have been issued shall thereby become null and void.

10. Every Waterman's Boat License which shall be issued under these Regulations, shall, save during the time in which the same may be suspended, or unless it shall be sooner cancelled in manner hereinafter provided, remain in force for one year from the date hereof and no longer.

11. Every licensed waterman shall, in a conspicuous place in the sternsheets or on the back-board of every boat with which he shall ply for hire, have legibly painted in letters not less than two inches long the name of the boat, the number of persons (including the crew) that the boat shall be licensed to carry in ordinary weather, and the name of the owner, and in default thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

12. Every licensed waterman who shall carry in any boat more passengers or passengers and luggage than by the license for such boat and these Regulations shall be authorized, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five pounds and not exceeding twenty pounds.

13. It shall be lawful to lade any licensed waterman's boat partly with passengers or partly with cargo or luggage; and for the purposes of these Regulations every one hundred and fifty pounds weight of cargo or luggage, over and above the twelve hereinafter allowed to each passenger, shall be deemed to be equivalent to one passenger.

14. If any licensed waterman shall be convicted of larceny, or of using, while carrying passengers, threatening, abusive, obscene or profane language, or of being drunk whilst carrying passengers, the Superintendent may, if he shall see fit, by notice in the Provincial Government Gazette declare the license or licenses held by such licensed waterman to be forfeited, and every such licence shall thereupon become null and void.

15. Every licensed waterman who, unless his destination shall render it necessary, shall take a boat carrying passengers into the tide rip when it shall be breaking and dangerous, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

16. If any licensed waterman shall stow, or suffer to be stowed in any boat of which he shall have charge, and in which there shall be any passenger, cargo or luggage, in such a manner as to interfere with the rowing, or to endanger the life of such passenger, he shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five pounds and not exceeding twenty pounds.

17. Every licensed waterman who shall not, when required by the Harbour Master, suffer his licensed boat or boats, and the appurtenances thereof, to be inspected, and who shall not, for that purpose, have it or them ready at the time or place which shall be appointed by the Harbour Master, and render such assistance as may be then and there required from him, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

18. If the Harbour Master, after inspecting any licensed waterman's boat and its appurtenances, shall be of opinion that it is unsound, not properly found, or otherwise unseaworthy, he is hereby authorized to suspend and demand the custody of the license of such boat until he shall be satisfied that it shall have been properly repaired or otherwise rendered seaworthy; and the owner of such boat, who shall fail to deliver to the Harbour Master such license when so demanded, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which he shall fail to deliver up the same.

19. Every licensed waterman in charge of a licensed waterman's boat, shall, when required by the Harbour Master or any passenger by such boat, produce his own and boat's license for inspection, and, in default, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

20. Any licensed waterman who shall lend his license to any other person shall be liable to a penalty of five pounds.

21. But any licensed waterman who by sickness shall be prevented from plying, shall, on depositing with the Harbour Master a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner to that effect, together with his license, be permitted to nominate a substitute in his stead, and if such substitute shall prove to the satisfaction of the Harbour Master that he thoroughly understands the management of a boat, the Harbour Master shall issue to him a certificate which shall authorize him to ply for hire in the conveyance of passengers for a period not exceeding one month, and such certificate may from time to time be renewed during the illness of the licensed waterman whose license shall be so deposited with the Harbour Master.

22. During the currency of every such certificate, and for the purposes of these Regulations, it shall be deemed to be a waterman's license; and every person to whom such a certificate shall be issued, shall be deemed to be a licensed waterman, subject to these regulations.
