WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1867.

G. GREY, Governor.
 A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The District Courts Act, 1858," it is enacted that there shall be within the Colony of New Zealand Courts of Record, possessing Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction, to be called District Courts, and the Governor is empowered from time to time, ~~as he shall think fit~~, by proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to constitute throughout the Colony, or in any part thereof, districts within which such Courts shall be respectively held, and such districts to abolish, and the boundaries thereof to define or alter, and also to declare by what local name such Courts shall be designated.

And whereas by proclamation, dated the twentieth day of January, 1866, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the twenty-sixth day of January, 1866, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, did, in pursuance and exercise of the aforesaid power and authority, constitute and proclaim the two several districts of the said Colony therein described, to be districts within which District Courts should be held under the said Act, and "The District Courts Amendment Act, 1865."

And in further pursuance and exercise of the authority aforesaid, I did by the said proclamation declare that the said Courts should be respectively designated by the names which are therein specified:

And whereas it is expedient that the said districts should be abolished, and that one district having the boundaries hereinafter described should be constituted:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid, in pursuance and exercise of the aforesaid power and authority, do hereby abolish the districts constituted by the said in part recited proclamation, and I do hereby constitute and proclaim the district hereinafter described to be a district within which a District Court shall be held under the said Act, and "The District Courts Amendment Act, 1865."

And in further pursuance and exercise of the authority aforesaid, I do hereby declare that the said

Court shall be designated by the name hereinafter specified, that is to say—

Designation of Court.—
 The District Court of Westland.

Description of District.—
 The Westland District shall comprise so much and such parts of the Provinces of Nelson and Canterbury as are bounded by a line from the mouth of the River Mackay, in the said Province of Nelson, to the summit of Mount Arthur, in the said Province of Nelson, thence by a straight line to the junction of the River Gowan (otherwise called Rotoroa) with the River Buller, thence by a straight line to the summit of Mount Princess, in the said Province of Nelson, thence by a straight line to the saddle between the Huranui River and the Teremakau River, thence south-west by the watershed between the East and West Coasts of the said Province of Canterbury to the southern boundary of the said Province of Canterbury, thence westwards by the said boundary to the mouth of the River Awarua, in the said Province of Canterbury, and thence north-east by the sea to the mouth of the said River Mackay.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this nineteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

G. GREY, Governor.
 A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Resident Magistrates' Criminal Jurisdiction Extension and Amendment Act, 1865," it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, at any time to suspend the operation of the second and third sections of "The Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," with respect to any Resident Magistrate's Court, provided always that such suspension shall not be held to prevent the issuing of warrants of distress or commitment, or otherwise enforcing due satisfaction of any judgment obtained in such Resident Magistrate's Court previous to such suspension. And whereas by a proclamation bearing date the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, the fourteenth day of July then next ensuing was determined and declared to be the day on and from which the provisions of the said "Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," and especially the powers conferred by sections two and three thereof, should be exercised to the limit of jurisdiction of one hundred pounds in the Resident Magistrate's Court at Hokitika, in the Province of Canterbury: And whereas it is expedient to suspend the operation of the said second and third sections of the said Act with respect to the Resident Magistrate's Court at Hokitika aforesaid. And whereas by a proclamation bearing date the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the eleventh day of February then next ensuing was determined and declared to be the day on and from which the second and third sections of the said "Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," should come into force to the limit of jurisdiction of one hundred pounds in respect of the Resident Magistrate's Court at Greymouth in the Province of Canterbury: And whereas it is expedient to suspend the operation of the said second and third sections of the said Act with respect to the Resident Magistrate's Court at Greymouth aforesaid. And whereas by a proclamation bearing date the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the eleventh day of February then next ensuing was determined and declared to be the day on and from which the provisions of the said "Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," and especially the powers conferred by sections two and three thereof, should be exercised to the limit of jurisdiction of one hundred pounds in the Court of the Resident Magistrate exercising jurisdiction within the limits of the Nelson South-west Gold Fields, in the Province of Nelson: And whereas it is expedient to suspend the operation of the said second and third sections of the said Act with respect to the said last-mentioned Court:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority so vested in me as aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare that the operation of the said second and third sections of "The Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," shall from and after the fifteenth day of April next, be suspended with respect to the said several Resident Magistrates' Courts at Hokitika, Greymouth, and the Court of the Resident Magistrate exercising jurisdiction within the limits of the Nelson South-west Gold Fields.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this nineteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. GREY, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand intituled "The District Courts Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, to bring into operation, with respect to any District Court, from and after a day to be named in such proclamation, either the whole of the said Act, or such sections thereof as to him may seem fit:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority vested in me for this purpose do hereby proclaim and declare the second day of April next to be the day on and from which the said "District Courts Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1866," shall come into operation with respect to the District Court of Westland.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this nineteenth of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The District Courts Act, 1858," it is provided that there shall be within the Colony Courts of Record possessing Civil and Criminal jurisdiction, to be called District Courts, and the Governor is empowered from time to time by notification in the New Zealand Gazette, to fix the times and places within the district at which every such Court shall be held:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority, fix that Sessions of the District Court of Westland shall, after the second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, be held at Hokitika, in the Province of Canterbury, in the Supreme Court House there, in every year, and on the following days, that is to say: For the despatch of Criminal and Civil business, on the third Tuesday in the months of April, June, August, October, December, and February: For the despatch of Civil business only, on the third Tuesday in the months of July, November, January, and March; and at Greymouth, in the said Province of Canterbury, in the Resident Magistrate's Court House there, in every year, on the following days, that is to say: For the despatch of Civil business only, on the first Tuesday in every month, after the second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
