NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1867.

G. GREY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The District Courts Act, 1858," it is provided that there shall be within the Colony Courts of Record to be called District Courts, and the Governor is empowered by proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to constitute throughout the Colony, or in any part thereof, districts within which such Courts shall be respectively held, and from time to time, by notification in the New Zealand Gazette, to fix the times and places within the district at which every such Court shall be held.

And whereas by a proclamation bearing date the eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, a district was constituted in the Province of Otago within which a District Court should be held under the said "District Courts Act, 1858," to be designated "The District Court of the Otago Gold Fields:" And whereas by a Warrant under the hand of His Excellency the Governor bearing date the tenth day of January last past, certain times and places were fixed and appointed for holding sittings of the said Court, and it is expedient that there should be additional sittings of the said Court within the said Province:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority, fix and appoint that sittings of the said District Court, additional to those already appointed, shall be held as follows:—

- In the Resident Magistrate's Court at Lawrence:
On the second Tuesday in June, and the second Tuesday in August;
- In the Resident Magistrate's Court at Naseby:
On the second Wednesday in July, and the second Wednesday in September;
- In the Resident Magistrate's Court at Clyde: On the Monday next after the second Wednesday in July, and the Monday next after the second Wednesday in September;
- In the Resident Magistrate's Court at Queens-town: On the Monday second after the second Wednesday in July, and the Monday second after the second Wednesday in September; in every year, or as soon as conveniently may be after such days respectively.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor this twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. GREY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Protection of Certain Animals Act Amendment Act, 1866," it is amongst other things enacted that the Act shall not come into force in any Province until proclaimed by the Governor in the New Zealand Gazette, and in the Gazette of the Province in which it shall be designed that it shall be brought into force, and only from a date to be fixed therein:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the power and authority so vested in me by the above recited Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that "The Protection of Certain Animals Act Amendment Act, 1866," shall come into force in the Province of Canterbury, on and from the thirtieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-ninth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

ERRATUM.—In Gazette No. 18, 23rd March, 1867, folio 124, for "Harry Charles William Rigg," Cornet in the Bay of Plenty Cavalry Volunteers, read "Harry Charles William Wrigg."

G. GREY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Land Registry Act, 1860," it is enacted that the Governor shall, from time to time, as he shall think fit, by proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, constitute throughout the Colony of New Zealand, or in any part thereof, Registrars' Districts for the purposes of that Act, and such districts abolish, and the boundaries of any district define and alter, and also declare by what local name each such district shall be designated. And whereas by a proclamation dated the nineteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, a certain district was defined and constituted, and was called the District of Dunedin. And whereas it is expedient to abolish the said district with a view to the constitution of a new district, to include the whole of the Province of Otago:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on me by the said recited Act, do hereby abolish the said District of Dunedin, and do hereby constitute a new district for the purposes of the said Act, and define the same to be all that portion of the said Colony of New Zealand known as the Province of Otago; and I further declare that the district above defined shall be designated

THE DISTRICT OF OTAGO.

This proclamation shall take effect on and after the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-ninth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. GREY, Governor.

IN virtue of the powers conferred on me by "The Land Registry Act, 1860," I do hereby appoint that registration under the said Act shall commence in the District of Otago, as the said district is defined in a proclamation bearing even date herewith, upon the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. GREY, Governor.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in me vested in this behalf, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby make the following regulation, and do direct that the same shall be in force within each Gaol of the Colony, from and after the date of its publication in the New Zealand Gazette.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir

George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at Wellington, this twenty-ninth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

Each prisoner shall be provided with a Bible and Prayer Book, approved by the religious denomination to which the prisoner belongs.

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, under his hand and the public Seal of the Colony, from time to time, to delegate to the Superintendent of any Province, or such other person as the Governor may deem fit, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor, or the Governor in Council, by the Act now in recital, except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven, of the said Act, subject or not to any limitations or restrictions as he may think fit, and in like manner to alter or revoke any such powers:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in the exercise of the power and authority for this purpose in me vested, do hereby delegate unto as Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, all the powers vested in me, under or by virtue of the said "Gold Fields Act, 1866," except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven, to have, hold, and exercise, within the Province of Auckland, the said powers hereby given to the said John Williamson, Esquire, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer: Provided always that copies of all Rules and Regulations made under the delegation aforesaid shall be forthwith transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, in order that the same may be laid before the General Assembly, in accordance with the provisions of the one hundred and tenth clause of "The Gold Fields Act, 1866."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony this twenty-seventh day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

Approved in Council:

FORSTER GORING,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, under his hand and the public Seal of the Colony, from time to time, to delegate to the Superintendent of any Province, or such other person as the Governor may deem fit, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor, or the Governor in Council, by the Act now in recital, except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven of the said Act, subject or not to any limitations or restrictions as he may think fit, and in like manner to alter or revoke any such powers:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in the exercise of the power and authority for this purpose in me vested, do hereby delegate unto as Superintendent of the Province of Nelson, all the powers vested in me, under or by virtue of the said "Gold Fields Act, 1866," except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven, to have, hold, and exercise, within the Province of Nelson, the said powers hereby given to the said Oswald Curtis, Esquire, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer: Provided always that copies of all Rules and Regulations made under the delegation aforesaid shall be forthwith transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, in order that the same may be laid before the General Assembly, in accordance with the provisions of the one hundred and tenth clause of "The Gold Fields Act, 1866."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony this twenty-seventh day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

Approved in Council:

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twenty-seventh day of April, 1867.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Marine Act, 1866," it is enacted that the Governor may, by Order in Council, from time to time, delegate all or any of the powers and authorities vested in him by the said Act unto any person or persons, for any period, and subject to any regulations, restrictions, or stipulations which may be specified in such Order, and every such delegation may from time to time alter or revoke:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Bath, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, do, by this Order, delegate unto

JOHN WILLIAMSON, Esq.,

Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, such of the powers vested in me as Governor by section seven of the said Act as enable me to erect, superintend, and maintain harbour-marks, lights, and beacons, now or hereafter to be placed within the limits of any port in the Province of Auckland, or the approaches thereto, subject however to such directions as may from time to time be issued by the Colonial Marine Engineer, as to the size, position, and colour of such harbour-marks, lights, and beacons; and to appoint and suspend or remove Port or Harbour Masters, and other officers of ports or harbours within the Province of Auckland; and to define and regulate the conduct and duties of Port or Harbour Masters, and other persons employed in carrying out the objects of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and of "The Marine Act, 1866," within the said Province; and also, within the said Province, the powers vested in me by clauses ten, eleven, fifteen, and thirty-seven of the said last-mentioned Act, and the power vested in me by clause sixteen of the said last-mentioned Act, to exempt from pilotage, within all or any of the ports of the Province of Auckland, such Colonial trading vessels trading to the ports of such Province only as to him shall seem proper to be so exempted; to have and exercise the said powers hereby delegated to the said John Williamson, Esq., so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer, subject nevertheless to such regulations as may from time to time be made by the Governor in Council under authority of clause fifty-one of the said last-mentioned Act.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twenty-seventh day of April, 1867.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Marine Act, 1866," it is enacted that the Governor may, by Order in Council, from time to time, delegate all or any of the powers and authorities vested in him by the said Act unto any person or persons, for any period, and subject to any regulations, restrictions, or stipulations which may be specified in such Order, and every such delegation may from time to time alter or revoke:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Bath, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, do, by this Order, delegate unto

OSWALD CURTIS, Esq.,

Superintendent of the Province of Nelson, such of the powers vested in me as Governor by section seven of the said Act as enable me to erect, superintend, and maintain harbour-marks, lights, and beacons, now or hereafter to be placed within the limits of any port in the Province of Nelson, or the approaches thereto, subject however to such directions as may from time to time be issued by the Colonial Marine Engineer, as to the size, position, and colour of such harbour-marks, lights, and beacons; and to appoint and suspend or remove Port or Harbour Masters, and other officers of ports or harbours within the Province of Nelson, and to define and regulate the conduct and duties of Port or Harbour Masters, and other persons employed in carrying out the objects of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and of "The Marine Act, 1866," within the said Province; and also, within the said Province, the powers vested in me by clauses ten, eleven, fifteen, and thirty-seven of the said last-mentioned Act, and the power vested in me by clause sixteen of the said last-mentioned Act, to exempt from pilotage, within all or any of the ports of the Province of Nelson, such Colonial trading vessels trading to the ports of such Province only as to him shall seem proper to be so exempted; to have and exercise the said powers hereby delegated to the said Oswald Curtis, Esq., so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said

Province, and no longer, subject nevertheless to such regulations as may from time to time be made by the Governor in Council under authority of clause fifty-one of the said last-mentioned Act.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twenty-seventh day of April, 1867.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly intitled "The Protection of Certain Animals Act, 1865," it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, by warrant under his hand, from time to time to delegate all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or the Governor in Council by the aforesaid Act, subject to such regulations as he may think fit, and may from time to time rescind such delegation :

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in exercise of the power and authority for this purpose in me vested, do hereby delegate unto

as Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, all the powers vested in me as Governor or as Governor in Council by the aforesaid Act, to have, hold, and exercise within the Province of Canterbury, the said power hereby delegated to the said William Sefton Moorhouse, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer: Provided always that copies of all instruments signed or issued by the Superintendent under such delegation shall be further transmitted to the Colonial Secretary for record.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twenty-seventh day of April, 1867.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," (section 4) the Governor may, by any Order in Council from time to time, annul, make void, or alter, or vary, and make anew any Orders in Council, regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations made and published by the Governor under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or of this Act, or by the Superintendent of any Province, under or in pursuance of any power delegated to him under any of the powers of delegation contained in the said Act; and whereas by section five of the said Amendment Act "as to regulations, appointments, and prohibitory and other declarations made by Superintendents of Provinces in pursuance of any powers delegated under the powers of delegation contained in the said Act or this Act, the power of annulling, making void, or allowing, or varying and making anew any such regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations vested in the Governor by this Act, may from time to time be delegated by the Governor in Council by warrant under his hand to the Superintendent of any Province:"

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Grey,

K.C.B., in exercise of the power and authority so vested in him as Governor as aforesaid, doth by this Order in Council delegate to

JOHN WILLIAMSON, Esq.,
Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, so long and so long only as he shall continue to be such Superintendent, all the powers which by the said fourth section of the said Amendment Act the Governor in Council is authorized so to delegate.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

NOTE.—Similar delegations issued to the Superintendents of Taranaki, Wellington, Hawke's Bay, Nelson, Marlborough, Canterbury, and Southland.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twenty-seventh day of April, 1867.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS at a sitting of the Native Lands Court of New Zealand, held at Waipuna, Whangaroa, in the Province of Auckland, on the seventh day of March, 1867, the claim of Kingi Hori Kira, and Riwhi Hongi, to a piece of land called Paihia, situated at Mahinepua, near Whangaroa, in the Province aforesaid, was heard, and a certain order was thereupon made by the Court aforesaid. And whereas it is enacted by "The Native Lands Act, 1865," that the Governor in Council may order a re-hearing of any matter judicially heard before the Court aforesaid, before one or more Judges of the Court and two or more Assessors, as may be specified in the Order in Council ordering such re-hearing, and within such a period of time as may be limited in such order, provided that no such order for a re-hearing shall be made after six months shall have elapsed from the date of the original decision. And whereas it is expedient that the said claim shall be re-heard before the said Court :

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, in pursuance and execution of the above recited power and authority, doth hereby order that the aforesaid claim of Kingi Hori Kira and Riwhi Hongi, to the aforesaid piece of land, shall be re-heard before

a Judge of the said Court, and before the under-mentioned Assessors, or any two of them, that is to say—

REIHANA KIRIWI,
MAIHI TE HUHU,
HOTERENE TAWATAWA,

and doth order that such re-hearing shall take place before the last day of August next.

J. C. RICHMOND.

Office of Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, Christchurch, 10th April, 1867.

I, GEORGE BOWRON, Registrar of Joint Stock Companies for the Province of Canterbury, do hereby notify that I have registered a Memorandum of Association, with Articles of Association, establishing a Company, with limited liability of the shareholders therein, intituled

"THE CANTERBURY BREWING MALTING AND DISTILLING COMPANY (LIMITED);"

the objects of which are the purchase of the Albion Brewery, brewing, malting, and distilling, the purchase of materials for the above purposes, and the kilo-drying of grain at such places as the Company shall from time to time determine, and doing all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects; and that in pursuance of the provisions of "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1860," I have issued a Certificate of Incorporation of the said Company, bearing date this tenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

GEORGE BOWRON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

In the matter of "The Patents Act, 1860," and of Letters Patent, dated respectively the fifteenth day of June, 1863, and the twelfth day of October, 1866, under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, granted to CHARLES MARTIN for his inventions of an improvement or improvements in the manufacture of an alloy or alloys of titanium and iron.

NOTICE is hereby given that "The New Zealand Iron and Steel Company (Limited)," the assignees of the abovenamed Charles Martin, of the said inventions, have made application that the description and specifications of certain new improvements of the said original inventions may be annexed to each of the original descriptions and specifications of the said inventions, and recorded; and that the Colonial Secretary may certify in the margin of such annexed descriptions and specifications the time of the same being annexed and recorded as aforesaid.
And any person or persons who may wish to prefer any objection to the annexation of the description and specifications of such new improvements and recording thereof as aforesaid, is or are hereby required to send within four months from the publication hereof to Charles Knight, Esquire, M.D., of Wellington, being the person appointed for that purpose under the provisions of the said Act, a statement in writing setting forth the grounds of such objection, subscribed with his or their proper name or names and address.

A. DE B. BRANDON,

Solicitor for the Applicant.

Dated at Wellington this fifteenth day of April, 1867.

THE Dunedin Boot and Shoe Company (Limited).
Notice is hereby given, that at an extraordinary general meeting of the Dunedin Boot and Shoe Company (Limited), duly convened in accordance with "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1860," on the fourth day of February, 1867, at which the necessary quorum was present, a special resolution was unanimously passed "That the Dunedin Boot and Shoe Company (Limited) should be wound up voluntarily." And notice is hereby further given that at another extraordinary general meeting, held on the twenty-eighth day of March following, being at an interval of not less than one month, nor more than three months, from such first-mentioned meeting, duly convened as aforesaid, at which the necessary quorum was also present, a special resolution was passed unanimously "That such first-mentioned special resolution should be confirmed."

Dated the 15th day of April, 1867.
