WELLINGTON, MONDAY, JULY 8, 1867.

G. GREY, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Imperial Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is amongst other things enacted, that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent, as in the said Act provided, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him, to declare by proclamation his disallowance of such Bill; and that any such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein.

And whereas the Ordinances hereinafter specified have been enacted by the Superintendent of Wellington, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, and the said Ordinances were received by the Governor on the seventeenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinances should be disallowed:

Now therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the following Ordinances passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Wellington, namely:—

- "The Protection of Certain Animals Act, Wellington, 1867," Session XV., No. 2.
- "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Sale of Spirituous and Fermented Liquors," Session XV., No. 5.
- "The Wanganui Bridge Amendment Act," Session XV., No. 6.
- "The Fencing Act, 1867," Session XV., No. 10.
- "The District Highways Act, 1867," Session XV., No. 11.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. GREY, Governor.
 A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," it is "provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time subsequent to the proclamation of a Gold Field, to withdraw by proclamation therefrom any Crown Lands which he may deem it necessary to withdraw, and such lands shall thenceforth be dealt with, sold, occupied, and disposed of under any law or laws for the time being in force regulating the sale or disposal of or in any way affecting or relating to the management or dealing with the Crown Lands within the Province in which such Gold Field is situate, in like manner as though such lands had never been comprised in any proclaimed Gold Field."

And whereas it is deemed necessary to withdraw from the Canterbury Gold Field the piece of land hereinafter described:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim and declare that all that piece of land containing seventy-nine (79) acres, more or less, situate near the south bank of the River Grey, commencing at a point on the road reserved along the north-eastern bank of the Omotomoto Creek, the same being six (6) chains seventy (70) links south-east of the Omotomoto Bridge; thence following a line bearing North 64° 30' East (magnetic) a distance of about thirty-five (35) chains twenty (20) links; thence following another line bearing South 40° 50' East (magnetic) a distance of about sixteen (16) chains forty (40) links to the road before mentioned; and from thence returning along the same to the commencing point, shall be and the same is hereby withdrawn from the said Canterbury Gold Field.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

G. GREY, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, the Province of Southland was constituted and established under "The New Provinces Act, 1858," and it is provided by the Constitution Act, that it shall be lawful for the Governor of New Zealand, by proclamation or otherwise, to dissolve the Provincial Council of any Province, whenever he shall think it expedient so to do:

Now therefore, I, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the said power, do, by this proclamation, dissolve the Provincial Council of the said Province of Southland.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
