WELLINGTON, MONDAY, AUGUST 12, 1867.

G. GREY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Intestate Estates Act Amendment Act, 1866," it is enacted that the Governor may by proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, from time to time, divide the Colony for the purposes of "The Intestate Estates Act, 1865," and of the said Amendment Act, into such and so many districts as he shall think fit, and every such district shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Curator's District; and in like manner from time to time, as he shall think fit, to abolish any such district, and alter or vary the boundaries of any district, or increase the numbers of such districts. And it is provided that the Provinces of this Colony, for which Curators have before the passing of this Act been appointed, shall be deemed to be districts defined pursuant to this said Amendment Act, subject in every respect to be varied or altered as if defined under the said Amendment Act.

And whereas the Province of Canterbury is a Curator's District under the said Acts:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, doth hereby vary and alter the boundaries of the Curator's District of the Province of Canterbury, and doth hereby proclaim define and appoint that all that portion of the Colony comprised within the following limits, viz. :—from the mouth of the River Awarua, at the western extremity of the boundary of the Provinces of Otago and Canterbury, northwards along the sea-coast to the Five Fingers Rocks between the Rivers Grey and Buller, thence eastward to the summit of Mount Faraday, thence along the watershed between the tributaries of the said Rivers Grey and Buller, thence southward along the watershed between the east and west coast of the Provinces of Nelson and Canterbury to the point where it intersects the said boundary of the Provinces of Otago and Canterbury, thence westward along the said boundary to the commencing point at the mouth of the River Awarua, shall be and the same is hereby constituted a district for the purposes of the said Act, and shall be called "Westland District."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this tenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. GREY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The New Zealand Post Office Act, 1858," it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, by proclamation to be published in the New Zealand Gazette, to fix, alter, and abolish the rates of postage at any time payable within the Colony for the transmission of letters and newspapers by post, either between places within New Zealand or to or from places beyond seas, and at what time the same shall be paid, and that the postage so made payable shall be charged and paid accordingly; and also that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to make rules and regulations for the managing of the several Post Offices, and for the receiving, despatching, conveying, and delivering of letters. And whereas, by a Proclamation duly made and issued, bearing date the sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the Governor in Council did, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, fix certain rates of postage, and the times at which the same respectively should be paid. And whereas it is desirable that the said rates should be altered as hereinafter mentioned, and that the printed matter hereinafter mentioned should be received and despatched, and conveyed by post free of charge: Now therefore, in exercise of the power and authority vested in me in this behalf, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, do hereby proclaim and declare that no postage shall be paid or payable for the transmission by post, within the Colony, of the Reports of Parliamentary Debates, printed by authority of the General Assembly, if the same shall bear upon the face or cover of them the words "Parliamentary Debates, published by authority," either in writing or print; but the same shall be received at any post office in the Colony, and despatched and conveyed by post from any one part of the Colony to any other part of the Colony free of charge; and with the like advice and consent, I do proclaim and declare that this Proclamation shall take effect from and after the tenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the tenth day of August, 1867.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Marine Act, 1866," it is enacted that the Governor in Council, may, from time to time, make such regulations as may be found necessary respecting the anchoring and mooring of vessels in any port; the packing, landing, deposit, and removal of gunpowder, the erection of magazines for the safe keeping thereof; the watering, ballasting, and discharging of ballast of or from vessels; and also in all cases in which no provision or no sufficient provision is made by the said Act for the purpose of facilitating or more effectually carrying into execution any of the objects thereof, to make and prescribe all such regulations, either general or applicable to particular cases only, as he shall think fit; and such regulations from time to time to revoke or alter, as to the Governor in Council shall appear to be requisite:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power and authority, doth hereby make the following regulations respecting the use of the moorings and the ballasting of vessels at the Port of New Plymouth, and doth order that the same shall come into operation and take effect from and after the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

REGULATIONS.

Mooring Charges.

For every vessel using the moorings not exceeding fifty tons register—Twenty shillings.

For every vessel using the moorings over fifty but not exceeding one hundred tons register—Thirty shillings.

With an addition of Ten shillings for every additional hundred tons, or fractional part thereof; and a further charge of five shillings a day on every vessel lying at the moorings for more than four days during which cargo can be landed from her.

These charges shall be deemed to be Port Charges, and the provisions of the forty-fourth section of "The Marine Act, 1866," shall be applicable thereto.

Ballast.

The master of every sailing vessel on anchoring in the Port of New Plymouth, shall furnish to the Harbour Master an approximate statement showing the number of tons weight of goods he intends discharging in the port, and the number of tons of ballast which will be required to keep the vessel in proper seaworthy trim; and every such master of a vessel shall, as his vessel is discharged, take in from time to time sufficient ballast to keep her continually in seaworthy trim. For refusing or neglecting to comply with the provisions of this regulation, the master of any vessel shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding Twenty pounds.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the tenth day of August, 1867.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The New Zealand Settlements Acts Amendment Act, 1866," it is provided that all lands taken under the authority of "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," or "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," or either of them, and sold and disposed of under the authority of the said first recited Act, entitled "The New Zealand Settlements Acts Amendment Act, 1866," shall be sold or disposed of under regulations to be made by the Governor in Council, which regulations shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in pursuance of the authority vested in him in that behalf by the said first recited Act, doth hereby, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, of the Colony of New Zealand, make the following additional regulation to those contained in the Order in Council dated twenty-third November, 1866, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the same date, for the sale and disposal of lands within the Province of Auckland, which have been taken under the authority of the said recited Acts, or either of them.

Additional Regulation.

WHEREAS the Commissioner appointed by the Governor to carry out the regulations for the sale of lands taken for settlement under "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," in the Province of Auckland, did, in a public notification dated the twenty-sixth of June, 1867, and advertised in the Auckland Provincial Government Gazette, No. 33, of the twenty-seventh of that month, notify that the land specified in the Schedule hereunder written will be offered for sale by auction, at the Waste Lands Office, Auckland, on Thursday, fifteenth August instant:

Surveyor's No.	Parish No.	Area.			Upset Price.
		A.	R.	P.	£	s.	d.
	9	4,350	0	0	4,350	0	0

And whereas the terms of payment prescribed in such notification are that one-fourth of the purchase money should be paid at the time of sale, by way of deposit, and the remaining three-fourths within three calendar months after the sale, and in the event of the second payment not being made as aforesaid, the sale to be void and the deposit forfeited.

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the fifth day of April last, certain scrip issued or to be issued by the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, or any person duly deputed by him, and more particularly described in such Order, was authorized to be taken as money on certain specified conditions in the purchase of general rural land:

Now the Commissioner is authorized by this Regulation to accept scrip issued as aforesaid, in or towards payment of the balance of three-fourths of the purchase money (payable within three calendar months after the sale) of the particular allotment of land hereinbefore described; and in respect of such three-fourths of the purchase money, such scrip shall be deemed and be taken to be money for the amount for which the same shall have been issued, and shall be receivable for such amount as payment or part payment of such three-fourths aforesaid; the deposit of one-fourth of the purchase money, payable at the time of sale, to be receivable only in cash, and the other conditions advertised in the above-mentioned notification of sale to remain unaltered.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this tenth day of August, 1867.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the eleventh section of "The Public Domains Act, 1860," it is enacted that the Governor, by Order in Council, may from time to time delegate all or any of the powers by the said Act conferred upon any person for any period, and subject to such stipulations as may be specified in such Order, and that every such delegation may from time to time in like manner be altered or revoked:

And whereas it is enacted by "The Public Domains Act Amendment Act, 1865," that the word "person" in the hereinbefore recited section of "The Public Domains Act, 1860," shall be deemed to include more persons than one:

And whereas His Excellency the Governor, by a certain Order in Council made on the sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, did delegate certain powers conferred by "The Public Domains Act, 1860," to certain persons therein mentioned, subject to certain stipulations therein specified:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke the said Order in Council, and to make another delegation in lieu thereof:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth, by this present Order, revoke the delegation contained in the said Order in Council made on the sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and doth, with the like advice and consent, by this present Order delegate, but only with respect to the piece or parcel of land described in the first clause or section of the Schedule to "The Public Domains Act, 1860," all the powers conferred by the Act first abovenamed, except the powers under or conferred by sub-sections five and ten of section five and section eleven, to the undermentioned persons—

FREDERICK WHITAKER, Esq.,
ROBERT GRAHAM, Esq.,
JOHN ANDERSON GILFILLAN, Esq.,
FRANCIS DART FENTON, Esq.,
GEORGE BURGOYNE OWEN, Esq.,
RICHARD FIELD PORTER, Esq.,
RICHARD RIDINGS, Esq.,

subject to the stipulations hereinafter contained, that is to say:—

1. The said Delegates shall meet for the transaction of business on the first Monday in each month, at ten o'clock in the morning, at the office of the Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, or at such other place as may from time to time be fixed by the said Delegates.

2. Special meetings may be held on the requisition of any two of the said Delegates, provided that two days' notice of such meeting be given to each of them.

3. Any three of the said Delegates shall form a quorum.

4. At any such meeting of the Delegates they shall choose a Chairman, who may join in the discussion, and shall have an original as well as a casting vote.

5. All questions shall be determined by the majority of votes of the Delegates present at a meeting.

6. None of the powers hereby delegated shall extend to or be executed in respect of the parcel of ground known as the Government Garden, or to any land in the actual occupation of the Governor, except at his instance and request.
