WELLINGTON, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1867.

G. GREY, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Native Lands Act, 1867," it is among other things provided that in any case where under the said Act ("Native Lands Act, 1867,") the Court would not have had jurisdiction, it shall be competent to the said Court to inquire into and determine any question affecting the subdivision of or any title to or interest in any Native Reserve which may be referred to it by the Governor. And whereas it is expedient that it should be ascertained who are the Natives interested in the Native Reserves mentioned in the Schedules hereunto attached, and that the said Reserves should be subdivided accordingly, being Reserves in respect of which the assent of the aboriginal inhabitants to the bringing of the said Reserves under the operation of "The Native Reserves Act, 1856," has been obtained:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers vested in me in that behalf, do hereby refer to the Native Lands Court to determine who are the Natives interested in each of the Reserves hereunder described, and to order the subdivision of the same among those Natives who may be so interested in such manner as to the said Court shall seem fit, and to order certificates to be issued according to the plan of such subdivision in such or like manner as is provided in the seventeenth section of "The Native Lands Act, 1867."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, this second day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
