WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 19, 1868.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a proclamation bearing date the nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the Governor did declare the length of the voyage for a passenger ship proceeding from any part of the Islands of New Zealand to the respective places therein mentioned, and did declare what should be the scale of diet, and the medicines, medical comforts, and medical instruments for the use of the passengers. And whereas it is desirable that the same should be amended:

Now therefore, in exercise of all powers and authorities enabling me in this behalf, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, do hereby revoke the hereinbefore recited proclamation, and do proclaim and declare that for the purposes of the said Act, the length of the voyage for a "Passenger ship" between any part of either of the Islands known as the North and Middle Islands of New Zealand and the undermentioned places respectively, shall be determined by the following scale, that is to say:—

From any part of either of the Islands known as the North and Middle Islands of New Zealand.	If the Ship be propelled by sails alone, or by steam power, not sufficient without the aid of sails to propel the ship after the rate of five statute miles an hour.	If the Ship be propelled either wholly or in aid of sails by steam engines of not less power than sufficient without the aid of sails to propel the ship after the rate of five statute miles an hour.
	Days.	Days.
To the Chatham Islands	12	6
From the Chatham Islands	22	10
To the New Hebrides, New Caledonia, Fiji, Navigator's and Friendly Islands	30	15
To any Port in Tasmania	40	22

To Hindostan, China, Japan, and West Coast of the Continent of America, north of the Equator	100	60
To Ports in the Atlantic Ocean south of the Equator	120	75
To Ports in the Atlantic Ocean, north of the Equator	150	90

And I do further proclaim and declare that the scale of diet for the use of the passengers during the said several voyages, shall be in accordance with the thirty-fifth section of "The Passengers Act, 1855."

And I do lastly proclaim and declare that the medicines, medical comforts, medical instruments, and other matters deemed necessary for the medical treatment of the passengers during the said several voyages, shall be such as are prescribed by the forty-third and forty-fourth sections of the said Act.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this eighteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

JOHN HALL.

Approved in Council:
FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Sheriffs Act, 1858," it is enacted that after the passing of the said Act it shall be lawful for the Governor, and for no other person, to appoint fit persons to be Sheriffs within the Colony, who shall hold their office during pleasure; and, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, and for no other person, to define the districts within which the jurisdiction of the several Sheriffs shall be exercised, and the limits of such districts from time to time to alter as occasion may require. And whereas by warrants, bearing date the eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, the boundaries of the Sheriffs' Districts of Nelson and Westland were defined. And whereas it is expedient that the limits of the said Nelson and Westland Sheriffs' Districts should be altered in manner hereinafter mentioned, and that a new Sheriff's District should be formed out of portions of the said Nelson and Westland Districts:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in me vested in this behalf, do hereby define the territory comprised within the following limits, that is to say,—a straight line from the mouth of the River Mackay, in the said Province of Nelson, to the summit of Mount Arthur, in the said Province of Nelson; thence by a straight line to the junction of the River Gowan (otherwise called Roturoa,) with the River Buller; thence by a straight line to the summit of Mount Princess, in the said Province of Nelson; thence by a straight line to the saddle between the Hurunui River and the Teremakau River; thence by the southern boundary of the said Province of Nelson to the sea coast; and thence by the sea to the mouth of the River Mackay, to be a Sheriff's District under the provisions of "The Sheriffs Act, 1858," to be called

THE SHERIFF'S DISTRICT OF WESTLAND NORTH.

And in further pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority, I do hereby define all the territory comprised within the following limits, that is to say,—the sea coast from the mouth of the River Awarua to the mouth of the River Grey; the southern boundary of the Province of Nelson to the saddle between the rivers Teremakau and Hurunui; the watershed between the eastern and western coast of the Province of Canterbury to its intersection with the northern boundary of the Province of Otago; and the said last-mentioned boundary to the commencing point at the mouth of the River Awarua, to be a Sheriff's District under the provisions of "The Sheriffs Act, 1858," to be called

THE SHERIFF'S DISTRICT OF THE COUNTY OF WESTLAND.

And in further pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority, I do hereby define all that portion of the Province of Nelson which is not included in the Sheriff's District of Westland North, hereinbefore defined, to be a Sheriff's District under the provisions of "The Sheriffs Act, 1858," to be called

THE SHERIFF'S DISTRICT OF NELSON.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor this ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

J. C. RICHMOND.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in this behalf enabling me, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby fix and appoint that Sittings of the District Court of the Otago Gold Fields, additional to those already appointed, shall be held as follows:—

In the Resident Magistrate's Court at Lawrence:—On the second Tuesday in June and the second Tuesday in August next.

In the Resident Magistrate's Court at Naseby:—On the second Wednesday in July and the second Wednesday in September next.

In the Resident Magistrate's Court at Clyde:—On the Monday next after the second Wednesday in July, and the Monday next after the second Wednesday in September next.

In the Resident Magistrate's Court at Queens-town:—On the Monday second after the second Wednesday in July, and the Monday second after the second Wednesday in September next.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

J. C. RICHMOND.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twelfth day of March, 1868.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," it is enacted that the order and manner in which land taken under the authority of "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," and "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," should be laid out for sale and sold should be at the discretion of the Governor, who shall have power to cause such land or any part thereof to be laid out for sale and sold from time to time in such manner, for such consideration, and in such allotments as he shall think fit, and subject to such regulations as he shall with the advice of the Executive Council from time to time prescribe. And whereas by "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment Act, 1866," it is provided that the said lands shall be sold for such consideration or at such price, and whether for cash or otherwise, as the Governor shall from time to time prescribe, and that all lands taken under authority of the said "New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," and "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," or either of them, and sold or disposed of under the authority of the said first recited Act, shall be sold or disposed of under Regulations to be made by the Governor in Council, which Regulations shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette :

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor in exercise of all powers and authorities vested in him in that behalf, doth hereby, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, make the following Regulations for the sale and disposal of land taken under the said Acts or either or any of them in any part of the said Colony.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1. Whenever in any regulation made, or hereafter to be made, under the said Acts any powers are given to or any duty is imposed on the Colonial Secretary, such powers and duties shall be deemed to have been and to be given to and imposed upon the Minister for the time being in charge of the administration of confiscated lands.

2. In construing the foregoing regulation the expression "the said Acts" shall be deemed and taken to mean "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863;" "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment Act, 1864;" "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865;" and "The New Zealand Settlements Acts Amendment Act, 1866," or any or either of them.

And in further exercise of the said powers and authorities His Excellency the Governor, with the like advice and consent aforesaid, doth make the following regulations for the sale and disposal of lands taken under the said Acts or either of them, in the districts of Ngatiawa, Middle Taranaki, and Ngatiruanui.

Regulations for the Sale and Disposal of Lands in the districts of Ngatiawa, Middle Taranaki, and Ngatiruanui.

1. The Colonial Secretary may, at his discretion, sell to any person who, with his license or permission had, prior to the date of these regulations, occupied and made valuable improvements upon lands taken under the said Acts within the Township and Suburbs of Carlyle, on the River Patea, the whole or any part which the Colonial Secretary may think fit of the land so occupied by such person: Provided that no land shall be sold under this regulation at a lower rate than ten shillings per foot of frontage with a depth not exceeding two chains.

2. The Colonial Secretary may receive tenders for purchase from such occupiers as in the last regulation described, whenever the land in their occupation shall have been advertised for sale, and may, if he thinks fit, on receipt of any such tender withdraw the land tendered for from such sale, and may, after such sale, accept of such tender as regards the whole or any part of the land tendered for, provided that the price accepted shall not be less than that paid at auction for the nearest sections of like frontage and advantages; provided also that no lot shall be sold under this regulation which does not conform in shape and proportions to the survey of the town and suburbs, and to the rules in force in that behalf as to Crown Lands in the Province of Taranaki.

3. The Colonial Secretary may cause such annual licenses as he may think fit to be issued and renewed in his name, authorizing the licensee to cut and remove timber from such of the said lands within the said districts, not exceeding in any case ten acres, as shall be fully described in such license, and there shall be paid for every such license and renewal a fee of one pound.

4. The Colonial Secretary may cause a lease or leases to be issued in his name of the whole or any part of any of the lands taken under the said Act and now described, or which shall hereafter be described, on the district maps, as the Railway Reserve; such lease to be granted by public auction or tender for any term not exceeding ten years, and with or without liberty to cut timber, and subject to such reservations as he may think fit, subject always to power to the Governor from time to time to cause such surveys, roads, or railways as he may think fit to be made within, through, or across the said reserve, and to take such timber as may be necessary for public works from any part thereof.

5. The Colonial Secretary may cause Pasturage Licenses to be issued for the whole or any of the lands taken under the said Acts within the said districts. Every such license shall be granted by tender, and shall be terminable by the Colonial Secretary, as to the whole or any part of the land comprised therein, on two months' notice, and shall be subject to power to the Governor to cause such surveys, roads, or railways, as he may think fit, to be from time to time made within through or across the land comprised therein.

6. In construing the five foregoing regulations the expression "the said Acts" shall be deemed and taken to mean "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863;" "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment Act, 1864;" "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865;" and "The New Zealand Settlements Acts Amendment Act, 1866," or any or either of them.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington; the eighteenth day of March, 1868.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly, intituled "The New Zealand Post Office Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time by proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to fix, alter, and abolish the rates of postage at any time payable within the Colony, for the transmission of letters by post either between places within New Zealand, or to or from places beyond seas, and at what time the same shall be paid, and the postage so made payable shall be charged and paid accordingly. And it is also by the said Act enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to make rules and regulations for the managing of the several post offices, and for the conduct of post officers. And whereas by "The New Zealand Post Office Act Amendment Act, 1866," it is provided that certain postage shall be levied upon newspapers posted within the Colony, and by the said last-mentioned Act it is provided that every copy of a paper containing any public news or occurrences, or any remarks or observations thereon, or any political matter, or containing only or principally advertisements, and printed for sale or gratuitous distribution, may be sent by post as a newspaper if it shall be periodically published in parts or numbers at intervals not exceeding one month. And whereas by "The New Zealand Post Office Act Amendment Act, 1866" (No. 2), it is provided that the power conferred by "The New Zealand Post Office Act, 1858," on the Governor in Council, to fix alter and abolish rates of postage, and to make rules for regulating post office services, shall not be deemed to be limited altered or affected by "The New Zealand Post Office Act Amendment Act, 1866," subject however to the proviso in "The Post Office Act Amendment Act, 1866" (No. 2), mentioned. And whereas it is expedient that the New Zealand Gazette printed and published under the authority of the New Zealand Government should not be treated as a newspaper, but should be exempt from postage. And whereas it is also expedient that the several Gazettes printed and published under the authority of Superintendents of Provinces, and the Gazette printed and published in and for the County of Westland under the authority of the Governor or his delegate, should respectively be exempt from postage:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Governor of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of all powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, doth hereby order that the printed papers mentioned in the Schedule hereto shall be allowed to pass through all Post Offices in New Zealand free of postage, if enclosed in a paper wrapper open at each end, having written or printed on such wrapper in legible characters the words following, that is to say—
"Exempt from Postage, being a Government Gazette."

SCHEDULE.

Name of Gazette.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the eighteenth day of March, 1868.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Marine Act, 1867," it is enacted that the Governor may, by Order in Council, from time to time delegate all or any of the powers and authorities vested in him by the said Act unto any person or persons, for any period, and subject to any regulations, restrictions, or stipulations which may be specified in such Order, and every such delegation may from time to time alter or revoke, and also that any such delegation may be so made to any person holding office in or under the General Government of New Zealand, or in or under any Provincial Government thereof, by the title of his office, and may be therein expressed to be made to such officer and his successors in such office, and when so expressed to be made, the powers and authorities thereby delegated shall from time to time, until revocation thereof, be held and exercised only by the person for the time being holding such office and no other person:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, doth hereby delegate unto at the Port of Hokitika, in the County of Westland, and his successors in office, the powers conferred on the Governor by section eighteen of the said Act to exempt from pilotage such Colonial trading vessels as to such Collector for the time being shall seem proper to be so exempted, in all cases in which such vessels require to be exempted for the ports of the said County only; the fees for any pilotage exemptions to be accounted for and treated as pilotage dues.
The COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS,

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

BY virtue of the powers in me vested by "The Deeds Registration Amendment Act, 1863," I hereby make the following regulations for the practice and procedure of the several Register of Deeds Offices throughout the Colony, to take effect on and after the first day of April, 1868.

1. Where any deed or other instrument received for registration is indorsed or otherwise written upon or annexed unto some previously registered deed or instrument and purports to affect the hereditaments referred to in the previously registered deed or instrument, it shall be the duty of the Registrar to cause a note of reference to be made on the record copy of the subsequently registered deed or instrument to the previously registered deed or instrument, and to the book and folio of the record copy thereof, but it shall not be necessary to cause a second copy to be made of the previously registered deed or instrument, any practice heretofore to the contrary notwithstanding.

2. The note of reference may be in the following form, or to that effect:—

“The deed of which the foregoing (or above) is a copy is written (or indorsed) upon (or annexed unto) the registered deed (A— to B—) bearing date the No. and recorded vol. deeds folio ”

3. The registration fees fixed by regulation of the 17th November, 1866, are hereby abolished, and in lieu thereof the following fees shall be chargeable:—

For the registration of any plan accompanied by statutory declaration ...	0	10	0
For recording per folio ...	0	0	6
For every section or part of a section delineated ...	0	1	0
For recording any instrument in the Maori language, and for any copy of the recorded copy thereof, per folio	0	1	0
For recording any translation of an instrument in the Maori language, per folio ...	0	0	6

ALFRED DOMETT,
Registrar-General of Land.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, this eighteenth day of March, 1868.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

BY virtue of the powers in me vested by “The Deeds Registration Amendment Act, 1863,” I hereby make the following regulations for the practice and procedure of the Deeds Register Office for the District of Westland, to take effect on and from the first day of April, 1868.

1. No instrument shall be received for registration after two o'clock, p.m., on Saturdays, and after three o'clock, p.m., on other working days.

2. Immediately upon the presentation of any instrument for registration the Registrar shall, in the presence of the party presenting such instrument, number the same, and make a note thereon of the day and hour of the receipt thereof, and shall stamp the same at the end of such note with the seal of the Register Office. He shall also forthwith, in the same presence, cause an entry thereof to be made in a book of “Primary Entry,” specifying such day and hour of receipt, the number of such instrument and nature thereof, the parties thereto and land affected thereby, and the name of the party presenting the same.

3. The Registrar shall thereupon cause an entry of such instrument to be made in the Index Book under the proper head or title, specifying the day and hour of presentation, the nature of the instrument, with a reference to the Record Book in which a copy thereof shall be made. He shall also cause such instrument to be fairly and correctly copied into such Record Book.

4. Every entry in the Index Book shall be made under a head or title indicating the allotment or allotments, or part or parts thereof, of which the land to which such entry shall refer shall consist.

5. All such entries shall be made in the order in which the instrument to which they refer shall have been presented for registration.

6. So long as the land in respect of which any entry was originally made shall remain undivided, all entries relating thereto shall be placed under the head or title originally appropriated thereto. Whenever any portion thereof shall be absolutely alienated, a new head or title shall be appropriated to such portion.

7. Whenever any such new head or title shall be formed, the first entry thereunder shall contain a reference to the original head or title. Under such original head or title, there shall also be made a reference to such new head.

8. Where any mistake shall have been made in any entry, the Registrar shall rectify the same by a new entry in such form as may be convenient, specifying the day and hour of each correction. The erroneous entry shall not be erased or obliterated.

9. Every person by whom any instrument shall be brought or sent to the Register Office for the purpose of registration may require a receipt for the same, which receipt shall be stamped with the seal of the office, and shall specify the nature and number of the instrument, and the day and hour of the receipt thereof.

10. Separate Index Books shall be kept for town and country lands respectively.

Office of the Medical Board,
Wellington, 7th March, 1868.

NOTICE.—The attention of the Medical Profession is drawn to the terms of "The Medical Prac-tioners Act, 1867," which provides that on and after the 10th April next no person, except those registered under the Imperial Medical Act or under "The New Zealand Medical Practitioners Act, 1867," can legally practice medicine or surgery in New Zealand.

Medical practitioners formerly registered under Provincial Registration Acts are exempt from payment of registration fees, but are obliged to register under "The Medical Practitioners Act, 1867."

In order that the Official Register may constitute a complete list of medical practitioners in New Zealand, it is desirable that practitioners registered under the Imperial Act should have their names also placed on the New Zealand Register.
