WELLINGTON, TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1868.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
 A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Imperial Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is amongst other things enacted, that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent, as in the said Act provided, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him, to declare by proclamation his disallowance of such Bill; and that any such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein.

And whereas the Ordinances hereinafter specified have been enacted by the Superintendent of Otago, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, and the said Ordinances were received by the Governor on the twenty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinances should be disallowed:

Now therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the following Ordinances passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, namely:—

"The Inflammable Oil Ordinance, 1868;" and
 "The Fencing Ordinance, 1868."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by the one hundred and thirty-third section of an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1867," it is enacted that it shall be the duty of the Town Clerk of every borough as soon as conveniently may be after every election of a Mayor for such borough to give notice to the Colonial Secretary for the time being of such election and of the person elected, and it shall be lawful for the Governor if he shall think fit, and if such person shall not then be a Justice of the Peace, by warrant under his hand published in the New Zealand Gazette, to appoint such person to be a Justice of the Peace for the Colony, and it is also thereby enacted that in every such appointment it shall be expressed that it is made under the one hundred and thirty-third section of the said Act; and it is further declared that such appointment shall continue in force only during the mayoralty of such person, and the person so appointed shall not by virtue of such appointment be authorized to sit or act as a Justice of the Peace elsewhere than within the borough:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority in me vested in this behalf, do hereby appoint the person elected to be Mayor of the borough of Timaru, to be a Justice of the Peace, under the one hundred and thirty-third section of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1867."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twelfth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Otago Municipal Corporations Empowering Act, 1865," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint the person elected to be Mayor of any city or incorporated town as therein mentioned, to be a Justice of the Peace for the Colony, provided that in every such case such appointment shall continue no longer than the mayoralty of such person. And whereas Thomas Tayler, Esq., has been elected Mayor for the Town of Port Chalmers:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority vested in me in that behalf do hereby appoint the said to be a Justice of the Peace for the Colony of New Zealand.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twelfth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twelfth day of August, 1868.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the fourth section of an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," it is enacted that the Governor may, by any Order in Council, from time to time, annul, make void, or alter, or vary, and make anew, any Orders in Council, regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations made and published by the Governor under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or of the Act now in recital, or by the Superintendent of any Province, under or in pursuance of any power delegated to him under any of the powers of delegation contained in "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," aforesaid. And whereas by the sixth section of "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," aforesaid, it is enacted that Orders in Council, and all regulations made by the Governor under the authority of either of the Acts aforesaid, shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette, and all such Orders in Council and regulations shall take effect from and after such day, being a day subsequent to the first publication thereof in such Gazette, as shall be prescribed in that behalf by the Governor in such orders and regulations respectively, and not before. And that it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he shall deem it expedient so to do, to direct that all Orders in Council and regulations so made by him, under the authority of either of the Acts aforesaid, shall be published in any one or more of the Government Gazettes of the Provinces within the Colony, as well as in the New Zealand Gazette, as aforesaid, but the publication thereof in any Provincial Government Gazette shall not be necessary, nor shall the omission of such publication in any Provincial Gazette invalidate any such order or regulations. And whereas William Rolleston, Esq., the Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, by virtue of the powers to him delegated by the Governor in that behalf, did, by proclamation dated the tenth day of June last, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the twelfth day of June last, proclaim and declare all that portion of the Province of Canterbury in the said proclamation particularly described, to be an infected district within the meaning of the said Acts; and did, by the same proclamation, make the regulations therein contained, for the destruction of diseased cattle within the said infected district, and for preventing the further spread of disease. And whereas it is expedient that the said regulations should be altered and varied in certain respects:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise and in pursuance of all powers and authorities vested in him in this behalf, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby order that the said regulations shall be altered and varied in manner hereinafter appearing:—

Instead of the penalty of fifty pounds in the third, seventh, ninth, tenth, eleventh, thirteenth, and sixteenth of the said regulations respectively mentioned, any person offending against the provisions of the said regulations in any of the cases therein respectively mentioned, and for offence against which a penalty of fifty pounds is by the said regulations declared to be imposed, shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and not being less than five pounds.

The ninth of the said regulations shall be read as if there had been omitted therefrom the words "may be taken before two Justices of the Peace and."

And in further pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him as aforesaid, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the like advice and consent as aforesaid, doth hereby further order that this present Order in Council shall be published in the Government Gazette of the Province of Canterbury, and that the said regulations, as altered and varied hereby, shall take effect from and after the twenty-fourth day of August, 1868.

FORSTER GORING,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twelfth day of August, 1868.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the fourth section of an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," it is enacted that the Governor may, by any Order in Council, from time to time, annul, make void, or alter, or vary, and make anew, any Orders in Council, regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations, made and published by the Governor, under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or of the Act now in recital, or by the Superintendent of any Province, under or in pursuance of any power delegated to him under any of the powers of delegation contained in "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," aforesaid. And whereas by the sixth section of "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," aforesaid, it is enacted that Orders in Council, and all regulations made by the Governor under the authority of either of the Acts aforesaid, shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette, and all such Orders in Council and regulations shall take effect from and after such day, being a day subsequent to the first publication thereof in such Gazette as shall be prescribed in that behalf by the Governor in such orders and regulations respectively, and not before. And that it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he shall deem it expedient so to do, to direct that all Orders in Council and regulations so made by him, under the authority of either of the Acts aforesaid, shall be published in any one or more of the Government Gazettes of the Provinces within the Colony, as well as in the New Zealand Gazette as aforesaid, but the publication thereof in any Provincial Government Gazette shall not be necessary, nor shall the omission of such publication in any Provincial Gazette invalidate any such order or regulations. And whereas William Rolleston, Esq., the Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, by virtue of the powers to him delegated by the Governor in that behalf, did, by proclamation dated the ninth day of June last, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the twelfth day of June last, proclaim and declare that after the publication of such proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, all that portion of the Middle Island of New Zealand lying to the North of the Hurunui River, and of a straight line from the source of that river to the County of Westland, the County of Westland, and the Provinces of Otago and Southland in the Middle Island, and the Provinces of Auckland and Taranaki in the North Island, should be deemed to be infected districts within the meaning of the Acts aforesaid; and did further proclaim and declare the regulations in the said proclamation contained for the destruction of diseased cattle, and for preventing and regulating the removal and transportation of cattle from the said several infected districts, into the Province of Canterbury. And whereas it is expedient that the said regulations should be altered and varied in certain respects:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise and in pursuance of all powers and authorities vested in him in this behalf, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby order that the said regulations shall be altered and varied in manner hereinafter appearing, that is to say:—

Instead of the penalty of fifty pounds in the first and third of the said regulations respectively mentioned, any person offending against the said regulations in any of the cases therein respectively mentioned, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty of any sum not being less than five pounds and not exceeding fifty pounds.

The third of the said regulations shall be read as if there had been omitted therefrom the words "may be taken before two Justices of the Peace and."

And in further pursuance and in exercise of the powers vested in him as aforesaid, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the like advice and consent as aforesaid, doth hereby further order that this present Order in Council shall be published in the Government Gazette of the Province of Canterbury, and that the said regulations, as altered and varied hereby, shall take effect from and after the twenty-fourth day of August, 1868.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, the twelfth day of August, 1868.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Provincial Compulsory Land Taking Act, 1866," it is enacted that Standing Rules and Orders shall be prepared and adopted by every Provincial Council, regulating the proceedings on Bills authorizing the taking of land compulsorily, but that the same shall have no force or effect until they have been approved of by the Governor in Council, and been published in the New Zealand Gazette. And whereas the Standing Rules and Orders contained in the Schedule hereto have been prepared and adopted by the Provincial Council of the Province of Auckland, and it is expedient that effect should be given to the same:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said Act, do hereby approve of the rules and orders contained in the Schedule hereto, as adopted by the said Provincial Council of Auckland, for regulating the proceedings in the said Council on Bills authorizing the taking of land compulsorily.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

STANDING RULES AND ORDERS of the Provincial Council of Auckland for regulating proceedings on Bills authorizing the taking of land compulsorily under "The Provincial Compulsory Land Taking Act, 1866."

NOTICES BY ADVERTISEMENT.

Subject of Notices.

1. In all cases where application is intended to be made for leave to bring in a Bill under "The Provincial Compulsory Land Taking Act, 1866," notices shall be given, stating the objects of such intended application, and the time at which copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Superintendent's Office.

Notices to contain name of Township, &c.

2. Such notices shall also contain a description of the lands, together with the names of the townships or other territorial divisions in, through, or into which the work is intended to be made, maintained, varied, extended or enlarged, and shall state the time and place of deposit of the plans of such lands, the books of reference, and copies of the Provincial Government Gazette notice, respectively.

Cemeteries, Gas Works, &c.

3. In cases of Bills respecting any burial ground, cemetery, or gas works, the notices shall set forth and specify the limits within which such burial ground, cemetery, or gas works are intended to be erected or made.

Notice of intention to divert Water.

4. In all cases where it is proposed to divert into any intended cut, canal, reservoir, aqueduct, or navigation, or into any intended variation, extension, or enlargement thereof respectively, any water from any existing cut, canal, reservoir, aqueduct, or navigation, whether directly or derivatively, and whether under any agreement with the proprietor thereof or otherwise, the notices shall contain the name of every such existing cut, canal, reservoir, aqueduct, or navigation, the water supplying which will either directly or derivatively flow or proceed into any such intended cut, canal, reservoir, aqueduct, or navigation, or into any intended variation, extension, or enlargement thereof.

Publication of Notices.

5. Not less than thirty days before the commencement of the session in which it is proposed to make application for a Bill, such notices shall be published once at least in the Provincial Government Gazette, and if such Bill relate especially to any particular city or town in which any newspaper is published, such notice shall be published in two successive weeks in one and the same newspaper published therein, the first publication to be not less than thirty days before the commencement of the session.

Notices and Applications to Owners, Lessees, and occupiers of lands and houses.

6. Not less than thirty days before the commencement of the session in which it is proposed to make application for a Bill by which any lands or houses are intended to be taken, or an extension of the time granted by any former Act for that purpose is sought, application in writing must be made to the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all lands and houses so intended to be taken, or which may be taken, as being within the limits of deviation defined upon the plan, and such applications shall be as nearly as may be in the form set forth in the Appendix marked A.

Service of application.

7. Such application shall be made by delivering the same personally to every such party, or by leaving the same at his usual place of abode, or in his absence from the Colony, with his agent, or by forwarding the same by post, in a registered letter addressed with a sufficient direction to his usual place of abode, and posted before the first of such thirty days at the chief post office in the Province, at such hours and according to such regulations as may from time to time be in force for the posting and registration of registered letters.

Evidence of application.

8. In all cases the written acknowledgment of the party applied to shall, in the absence of other proof, be sufficient evidence of an application having been made, or notice given; and in case of an application or notice having been forwarded by post, in a registered letter, the production of the post office receipt for such letter, duly stamped, shall be sufficient evidence of the due delivery of such letter, provided it shall appear that the same was properly and sufficiently directed, and that the same was not returned by the post office as undelivered.

Lists of Owners, &c., assenting, dissenting, and neuter.

9. Separate lists shall be made of the names of such owners, lessees, and occupiers, distinguishing those who have assented, dissented, or are neuter in respect to such application, or who have returned no answer thereto, and where no written acknowledgment has been returned to an application forwarded by post, or where such application has been returned as undelivered, at any time before the making up of such lists, the direction of the letter in which the same was so forwarded shall be inserted therein. (See Schedule.)

Notice to Owners, &c. Trust properties.

10. Not less than thirty days before the commencement of the session in which it is intended to make application for a Bill relating to or affecting ecclesiastical or corporation property, or property held in trust for public or charitable purposes, notice in writing of such application to the Legislature shall be served upon the owners or reputed owners of such property, and the lessees or reputed lessees of such property, holding leases for any term of twenty-one years or upwards, excepting such of the said persons as may be promoters of the Bill.

Notice to Owners, &c. Cemeteries and Gas Works.

11. Not less than thirty days before the commencement of the session in which it is intended to make application for any Bill for making a burial ground or cemetery, or the erection of works for the manufacture of gas, notice shall be served upon the owners and occupiers of every dwelling-house situate within three hundred yards of the limits within which the proposed burial ground, cemetery, or gas works are intended to be erected or made.

Notice to Owners, &c., of relinquishment of Works.

12. Previously to asking leave to bring in a Bill whereby any part of a work authorized by any former Act is intended to be relinquished, notices in writing of such Bill shall be served upon the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands in which the part of such work intended to be thereby relinquished is situate

Service and evidence of application.

13. The notices required by the three preceding orders shall be served and the service thereof proved in the same manner as directed in Standing Orders Nos. 7 and 8.

Service of notice and application when invalid.

14. No notice served or application made on a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, or before eight o'clock in the forenoon, or after eight o'clock in the afternoon of any day shall be deemed valid, except in case of delivery of letters by post.

Plans and Books of Reference to be deposited with the Superintendent.

15. In all cases of Bills applied for in pursuance of these Standing Orders, by which any lands or houses are intended to be taken, a plan of the work proposed to be made, maintained, varied, extended, or enlarged, together with a book of reference, shall be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Superintendent of the Province, not less than thirty days before the commencement of the session in which it is proposed to make application for the Bill.

Contents of Book of Reference.

16. Such book of reference to every such plan shall contain the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, reputed lessees, and occupiers of all lands or houses in the line of the proposed work, or within the limits of deviation, as defined upon the plan, and shall describe such land and houses respectively. (See Schedule.)

Superintendent to endorse Memorial on Plans.

17. The Superintendent shall make a memorial in writing upon the plans and books of reference so deposited with him, denoting the time at which the same were lodged in his office, and shall at all reasonable hours of the day permit any person to view and examine the same, and to make copies or extracts therefrom; and the plans so deposited shall be retained in the possession of the Superintendent until the session of the Provincial Council next ensuing shall be about to be held, when they shall be forwarded by the Superintendent to the office of the Clerk of the Provincial Council, so as to be deposited there as nearly as may be within a week of the commencement of the session.

Parties objecting may Petition.

18. Any parties complaining of a non-compliance with the Standing Orders or objecting to the principles of the Bill may petition the Council against it, and such petition shall be referred to the Select Committee on the Bill for their consideration, and such petitioners may appear and be heard by themselves, their agents and witnesses before such Committee.

Bills to be printed at the expense of Promoters.

19. Before leave is given to bring in a private Bill, and at subsequent stages whenever the Council shall order the reprinting thereof, such Bill shall be printed at the expense of the parties applying for it, in the same form as public Bills, and a sufficient number of copies delivered to the Clerk of the Council for the use of the members thereof.

Constitution and Duties of Select Committees on Bills.

20. When a Bill shall have been read a first time it shall be referred to a Select Committee, to consist of the Speaker, the member in charge of the Bill, and three other members, not locally or otherwise interested, to be appointed on motion, of which notice must be given; and such Committee shall report whether the Standing Orders have been complied with, and if not, whether they ought or ought not to be dispensed with, and generally on the merits of the Bill.

Chairman to have casting Vote only.

21. In every Select Committee three shall be a quorum, and the Chairman shall only have a casting vote.

Bill to be dealt with as a Public Bill. Stages prescribed.

22. Upon a private Bill being brought up and reported by the Select Committee, such Bill shall be proceeded with as in the case of public Bills, a future day being appointed for the second reading: Provided that there shall always be an interval of not less than two days between such report and the second reading, and not less than two days between the second and third reading.

Standing Orders with regard to giving Notices not to be dispensed with.

23. No motion shall be made to dispense with the Standing Orders 1 to 14 inclusively, which refer to the giving of notices.

Remaining Orders not to be dispensed with unless twenty-four Members present.

24. No motion shall be made to dispense with any of the remaining Standing Orders without due notice thereof, and such motion shall not be considered by the Council unless there be twenty-four members present.
