WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1868.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Militia Act, 1865," it is provided that the said Act shall come into operation in such districts as the Governor may from time to time, on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, specify and appoint by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority vested in me in this behalf, do hereby proclaim, specify, and appoint all that part of the Colony situated in the Provinces of Wellington and Taranaki whereof the boundaries are as follows:—The sea coast from the mouth of the River Waitotara to the mouth of the River Hangatahua, thence the River Hangatahua to its source, thence a straight line to the summit of Mount Egmont, thence a straight line to the source of the River Waitotara, thence the River Waitotara to the commencing point at its mouth—to be a District within which "The Militia Act, 1865," shall henceforth be in operation.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Public Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Public Houses Act, 1868," it is enacted that whenever the Colonial Forces shall be employed for the purpose of suppressing rebellion or other disturbances in any part of the Colony, and shall be stationed at any place near to or within such part, it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, by Proclamation, to declare that, from and after a day to be fixed therein, such part of the Colony as shall be defined in the Proclamation shall be a Proclaimed District within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act, and thereupon it shall not be lawful for any person, whether holding a license under any Act or Ordinance regulating the sale of wine, ale, beer, or spirits, or not, to sell or supply any wine, beer, or spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind without the permission of such person as the Governor shall from time to time appoint to grant permits for the sale of such articles within such district; and if any person, not being the holder of a permit so granted as aforesaid, shall keep his house open, or shall sell or supply any wine, ale, beer, or spirits, or any fermented or spirituous liquors, whether for money or other reward or without money or reward, within any district after the day fixed in any Proclamation relating to such district as the day for the coming into operation thereof, such person shall be liable to forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than twenty nor more than one hundred pounds, to be recovered in a summary way before any one or more Justices of the Peace:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority for that purpose vested in me, do hereby proclaim and declare that all that part of the Colony situated in the Provinces of Wellington and Taranaki, whereof the boundaries are as follows:—The sea coast from the mouth of the River

Waitotara to the mouth of the River Hangatahau, thence the River Hangatahau to its source, thence a straight line to the summit of Mount Egmont, thence a straight line to the source of the River Waitotara, thence the River Waitotara to the commencing point at its mouth—shall from and after the twenty-fourth day of September be a Proclaimed District within the meaning and for the purposes of "The Public Houses Act, 1868," aforesaid.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Public Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Public Houses Act, 1868," it is enacted that whenever the Colonial Forces shall be employed for the purpose of suppressing rebellion or other disturbances in any part of the Colony, and shall be stationed at any place near to or within such part, it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time by Proclamation, to declare that from and after a day to be fixed therein such part of the Colony as shall be defined in the Proclamation shall be a Proclaimed District within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act, and thereupon it shall not be lawful for any person, whether holding a license under any Act or Ordinance regulating the sale of wine, ale, beer, or spirits, or not, to sell or supply any wine, beer, or spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, without the permission of such person as the Governor shall from time to time appoint to grant permits for the sale of such articles within such district:

And whereas by a Proclamation bearing even date herewith His Excellency the Governor, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities for that purpose vested in him, hath proclaimed and declared that all that part of the Colony situated in the Provinces of Wellington and Taranaki, whereof the boundaries are as follows:—The sea coast from the mouth of the River Waitotara to the mouth of the River Hangatahau, thence the River Hangatahau to its source, thence a straight line to the summit of Mount Egmont, thence a straight line to the source of the River Waitotara, thence the River Waitotara to the commencing point at its mouth—should from and after the twenty-fourth day of September, be a Proclaimed District within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority for that purpose vested in me, do hereby appoint to be the person who may grant permits for the sale of wine, ale, beer, or spirits within the said Proclaimed District.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

E. W. STAFFORD.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application has been made to His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by Henry Augustus Severn, of Melbourne, in the Colony of Victoria, praying for the grant to him, the said Henry Augustus Severn, of Letters Patent under the Seal of the said Colony, for the exclusive use, advantage, and enjoyment of a new invention of a machine called "A Gold and Mercury Saving and Amalgamating Machine." And notice is hereby given, that any person who may wish to prefer any objections to the granting of such Letters Patent is hereby required, within four calendar months from the publication of this notice, to send to the office of John Boyle Bennett, Esquire, Registrar-General, at Wellington, in the Province of Wellington, in the said Colony of New Zealand (being the person appointed for that purpose under the provisions of "The Patent Act, 1860"), a statement, in writing, showing the grounds of such objection, and subscribed with the proper name and address of the person so objecting.
