WELLINGTON, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1868.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the second section of "The Colonial Forces Courts-Martial Act, 1868," it is enacted that the Governor may from time to time, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, appoint and declare any portion of the Colony defined in such Proclamation to be a "Disturbed District" within the meaning of the said second section of the said Act; and that during the time that any of the officers or men of the New Zealand Armed Constabulary, embodied under "The Armed Constabulary Act, 1867," shall be stationed, employed, or in any way on service within any district proclaimed under the second section of the said Act as a Disturbed District, all things contained in any Act of the Imperial Parliament which shall then be in force in New Zealand for punishing mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the Army and their quarters, and in the Articles of War made in pursuance of such Act, shall apply to, and the powers thereby created shall be exercised by, such officers and men of the New Zealand Armed Constabulary aforesaid:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in exercise and in pursuance of the power and authority for that purpose vested in me, do hereby proclaim all that portion of the Colony comprised within the circumference of a circle having a radius of fifteen miles from the Mission Station, Waerengahika, to be a "Disturbed District" within the meaning of the second section of "The Colonial Forces Courts-Martial Act, 1868," aforesaid.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

T. M. HAULTAIN.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Public Houses Act, 1868," it is enacted that whenever the Colonial Forces shall be employed for the purpose of suppressing rebellion or other disturbances in any part of the Colony, and shall be stationed at any place near to or within such part, it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, by Proclamation, to declare that, from and after a day to be fixed therein, such part of the Colony as shall be defined in the Proclamation shall be a Proclaimed District within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act; and thereupon it shall not be lawful for any person, whether holding a license under any Act or Ordinance regulating the sale of wine, ale, beer, or spirits, or not, to sell or supply any wine, beer, or spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind without the permission of such person as the Governor shall from time to time appoint to grant permits for the sale of such articles within such district; and if any person, not being the holder of a permit so granted as aforesaid, shall keep his house open, or shall sell or supply any wine, ale, beer, or spirits, or any fermented or spirituous liquors, whether for money or other reward or without money or reward, within any district after the day fixed in any Proclamation relating to such district as the day for the coming into operation thereof, such person shall be liable to forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than twenty nor more than one hundred pounds, to be recovered in a summary way before any one or more Justices of the Peace:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority for that purpose vested in me, do hereby proclaim and declare that all that part of the Colony comprised within the circumference of a circle having a radius of fifteen miles from the Mission Station, Waerengahika, shall, from and after the thirtieth day of November, be a Proclaimed District within the meaning and for the purposes of "The Public Houses Act, 1868," aforesaid.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

T. M. HAULTAIN.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Public Houses Act, 1868," it is enacted that whenever the Colonial Forces shall be employed for the purpose of suppressing rebellion or other disturbances in any part of the Colony, and shall be stationed at any place near to or within such part, it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, by Proclamation, to declare that from and after a day to be fixed therein such part of the Colony as shall be defined in the Proclamation shall be a Proclaimed District within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act, and thereupon it shall not be lawful for any person, whether holding a license under any Act or Ordinance regulating the sale of wine, ale, beer, or spirits, or not, to sell or supply any wine, beer, or spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, without the permission of such person as the Governor shall from time to time appoint to grant permits for the sale of such articles within such district:

And whereas, by a Proclamation bearing even date herewith, His Excellency the Governor, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities for that purpose vested in him, hath proclaimed and declared that all that part of the Colony comprised within the circumference of a circle having a radius of fifteen miles from the Mission Station, Waerengahika, should, from and after the thirtieth day of November, be a Proclaimed District within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority for that purpose vested in me, do hereby appoint to be the person who may grant permits for the sale of wine, ale, beer, or spirits within the said Proclaimed District.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

T. M. HAULTAIN.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Volunteer Act, 1865," it is enacted that the Governor may at any time call out for actual service any Volunteer Corps, and that every officer and volunteer belonging to any corps so called out shall be bound to assemble at such place as the Governor may direct, and shall remain on actual service until released by the Governor's authority:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, do hereby call out for actual service the several Volunteer Corps named in the Schedule hereto; and I do hereby direct the officers and volunteers of each of the said corps to assemble at the time and place mentioned, and set opposite to the name of such corps in the Schedule aforesaid.
