

THE NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE
EXTRAORDINARY.

Published by Authority.

---

---

WELLINGTON, MONDAY, APRIL 12, 1869.

---

---

Government House,
 Wellington, 12th April, 1869.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH, K.G., will land at the Queen's Wharf, at 11.30 a.m., this day (Monday), the 12th April; and will afterwards hold a Levée at the Government Offices, at 1 o'clock p.m.

Gentlemen who have received cards of entrée, and Members of the Legislative Council, will assemble in the Colonial Secretary's Office.

The Members of the House of Representatives will assemble in their own Chamber.

Members of the Provincial Council of Wellington, Members of the Town Board of Wellington, the Clergy of the several Denominations, and Officers of the Army, Navy, Militia and Volunteers, will assemble in the Office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives; the general Public will assemble in the Legislative Council Chamber.

Each gentleman will provide himself with two cards with his name printed or written thereon; one to be left in the principal entrance hall, the other to be given to the Governor's Aide-de-Camp.

Gentlemen attending the Levée will wear either official dress, uniform, or evening costume.

By Command,
 HENRY D. PITT,
 Captain R.A., A.D.C.

