NOTICES TO MARINERS.

Nos. 30 and 31 of 1869.

Marine Department.
Wellington, 4th November, 1869.

THE following Notices to Mariners respecting the Light on Flinders Jetty, Western Port, and Beacons in channel leading to Port Adelaide, are published for general information.

JAMES M. BALFOUR, Colonial Marine Engineer.

Flinders Jetty, Western Port.

REFERENCE to a Notice to Mariners dated the 18th of May last, it is hereby notified, for the information of masters of vessels and others trading to, or seeking shelter in, Western Port, that a Lamp-post has been erected on the outer end of Flinders Jetty, and on and after this date a Light will be exhibited therefrom between sunset and sunrise.

The light is fixed, and shows bright from N.N.E round northerly to  $E.\frac{1}{2}N.$ ; it then changes to red from  $E.\frac{1}{2}N.$  to N.N.E.

The light is elevated 24 feet above high water, and should be seen in clear weather about four miles distant.

Vessels may anchor off the jetty in three (3) fathoms water, and in order to avoid fouling the submarine cable should not bring the light to bear to the westward of W.½S., and should invariably be anchored with the light showing red.

W. Collins Rees,
Secretary for Harbours and Navigation.
Office of Harbours and Navigation, Melbourne, 22nd September, 1869.

Beacons, Port Adelaide.

Notice is hereby given, that four new Beacons, all painted red, have been erected on the western side of the new cutting in the channel leading to Port Adelaide.

The first commencing at Snapper Point, with a diamond-shaped head, and the last with a chess head, off the mouth of Mutton Cove.

The deepest water being immediately to the eastward of the beacons, with not less than 10 ft. 9 in. (ten feet nine inches) at low water springs.
